LETTERS TO FORT ST. GEORGE FOR 1699-1700

VOLUME No. VII.

FORT ST. DAVID 30TH: DEC<sup>R</sup>: [1699].

TO THE HON<sup>BLE</sup>: THOMAS PITT

The Gen<sup>l</sup>: Books of this plac[e . . . ] the ult<sup>o</sup>: April last are copy'd out fair, & await onl[ . . . ] & compared w<sup>ch</sup>: beleive may take up 3 days [ . . . ] shall hasten them to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>:

We find some of our letters s[ . . . ] & c<sup>a</sup>: remain yet unanswered, especially to the main point [ . . . ] Contract, mention'd in ours of the 4th: Ins<sup>t</sup>: y<sup>t</sup>: for each 500 [ . . . ] should be paid our merch<sup>ts</sup>: here, on said contract; th[ . . . ] take off 3000 pag<sup>a</sup>: worth of Europe goods & [ . . . ] to any amo<sup>t</sup>: as yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: thought fitt to Invest [ . . . ] to w<sup>ch</sup>: we humbly conceive to be necessary for us to have, we write to the hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: w<sup>ch</sup>: if not agreed to, we pray y[ou] & c<sup>a</sup>: not to send us any more Europe bales, as not [ . . . ] to dispose of those we have already w<sup>ch</sup>: are r[ . . . ] of all sorts includeing the 40 rec<sup>d</sup>: by the [ . . . ] are much damaged by the worm breeding [ . . . ] the Perpetuanos of light colours; w<sup>ch</sup>: we apprehend to be by their being ill cured in England probably in hast in the Winter Season: but our old remains are worse, & were Invoiced to us from the Fort as damaged goods; nor have we any good Godowns convenient for lodgeing any woollen manufacture, and therefore we request yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>RS</sup>: & c<sup>AS</sup>: leave to build such as are absolutely necessary, as well for calico, as Europe bales, and are much streighten'd & hard put to it, to find room for 248 bales of white cloth of all sorts we now have ready, for wth: in all our walls there are no more new buildings, than the chambers Mr. Cranwell now lives in, & a new Cook-room & indeed all the old buildings are so very narrow creazy and leaky, as not to contain any goods, thô for a short time, upon a pinch & their often patching & repairing (w<sup>ch</sup>: we are sorry to say) may have cost at all times as much as might well nigh have built substantiall lading lodgeings & warehouses; thô it may be said it is not now a proper time yett our occasions are very urgent.

Some days agoe 100 horse of Mongamas wth: her Egiy y<sup>t</sup>: accompanied the late Nabob to Court are return'd thence & came to Villeporram to w<sup>ch</sup>: number Jenser Cawn has added 100 horse more & 2 Elephants for the greater state of conveighing the King's Tasharife & Phirmaund to Mangomah & to receive the King's tribute of her.

Surup Sing haveing laboured under such streights and difficultys by reason of the poverty of the countrey under him, being so often harrassed and plunder'd as y<sup>t</sup>: he is not able to pay the small forces y<sup>t</sup>: remain wth: him, hath therefore agreed wth: & substituted under him one Ramajee Gunnies a Braminy, wth: full & ample power to incourage people to come & inhabit the severall desolate towns wth: in his Governm<sup>t</sup>: granting them Cowls assures them they shall not be robb'd, plunder'd or any ways molested by any party belonging to the King so y<sup>t</sup>: Ramajee [Gun]nies hath undertaken to pay all standing forces & [Surup] Sings charges of house keeping &c<sup>a</sup>: The said Ramojee had leave about some eight days agoe to come to town[on] some business, thō he hath not yett been to visitt the Dep[. . .] but hath sent his Complement of excuse till a lucky [ . . . ] offers for him to perform it. He intends to bring Family into Tevenapatam out of the way from the[m] who are believed to come suddantly into these parts being sent for.

This Ramojee Gunnies hath [ . . . ] character of an honest & just man, to whom we [ . . . ] welcome reception the better to fix & continue a [ . . . ] correspondence between us at this time, when he is in so much power, to turn out & take in as he pleases Countreys under his management & he may be [ . . . ] us in his place, w<sup>ch</sup>: we may the rather beleive w[ . . . ] so good a pawn as his wife & family to reside wth: safety & protection.

On the 13th: past Padre Paulo de[Soa]his petition to us in consultation aga<sup>t</sup>: Padre Gul[ielmus]la valle, late Vicar of the churches of Cuddalore & [Tevenapa] tam; complaining of his sufferings for some y<sup>r</sup>: occasion'd by the said Padre Guilielmus, w<sup>ch</sup>: he says beleive may be the same in substance he deliver'd Presid<sup>t</sup>: & Councill at Fort St. George in February therefore pray'd his case might be heard & exa [ . . . ] right of both said churches, next under & by [ . . . ] the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>s</sup>: But the severall papers past b[etween] y<sup>r</sup>: Padre's wth: their translates took up some time, in Consultation, y<sup>t</sup> both Padrees appear'd, & joyntly they had no more to say than what they had a we[ . . . ]ing: so y<sup>t</sup> upon a full hearing of the whole[ . . . ]turning over, & searching into all requ[ . . . ]papers relateing to this affair, we came to this resolution the Dep<sup>y</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: to putt the following questions viz<sup>t</sup>: If we should refer the whole matter to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: right truly stated, or determine the same here, to w<sup>ch</sup>: it was said & answer'd y<sup>t</sup> yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: at the time when Mr. Haynes was at the Fort had order'd the examination & decideing of the whole matter here where both Padrys being upon the place, might be present face to face: the next was on whose side the right of both churches did appear w<sup>ch</sup>: was unanimously declared & agreed to be in Padre Paulo de Soa. The next question whether for the better accomodateing of difference, we should give one church to each Padre, or both to Padre Paulo de Soa[ . . . ] to have both churches; so y<sup>t</sup>: on the 20th: Ins<sup>t</sup>: we reinstated Padre Paulo de Sao into the free exercise of his former Preistly office in said churches, within the hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: bounds, but with all submission to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>as</sup>: good likeing & approbation & at the same time delivered him the keys of both churches in Consultation, & in the same inst<sup>t</sup>: of time, Padre Gulielmus delivered us a protest in his own name, w<sup>ch</sup>: shall wth: all other papers relateing to this matter speedily be sent yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: meantime we pray you to suspend your censures of us till we have sent the whole state of the case, truly & impartially stated, on w<sup>ch</sup>: we grounded our Judgment. However we are not in love with any more of the Theatine order to be settled here, unless their moralls be better w<sup>ch</sup>: gives cause to suspect their principles, as shall be shewn hereafter.

On the 25th: Ins<sup>t</sup>: a Daves ship called the White Elephant, Hans Harman Biorn Commd<sup>r</sup>: arrived here in 13 days from Atcheen wth: news of a strange revolution of Governm<sup>t</sup>: in y<sup>t</sup> place, w<sup>ch</sup>: may be better known to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: by the severall English letters, by w<sup>ch</sup>: you'll understand of two Piratt Prisoners sent hither in Ju[ ] on said ship concerning whom we shall want yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>rs</sup>: &c<sup>as</sup>: orders. Also one Rowland Wilson a Serjeant in the hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: service, came out on the Nassau wtha petition we herewith send yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: w<sup>ch</sup>: is what at present offers, but y<sup>t</sup> we are wth: the wishes of a good new year [ ] all.

humble servants.

The inclosed letter came wth: the Piratts aforementioned.

This petition humbly sheweth y<sup>t</sup>: yo<sup>r</sup>: petitioner Rowland Willson after haveing been taken in the Bedford being on board in the station of serjeant arrived at London a second time after comeing from France and was promised an Ensigns Employ in the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>s</sup>: service by S<sup>r</sup>: Thomas Rawlinson, Mr. Sam<sup>l</sup>: Ongley & Mr. John Dubois, but the ship having orders to [ . . . ] was forc'd to come on board without but afterwards received a L<sup>te</sup> at Plymouth y<sup>t</sup>: I should have an order for a Com [ . . . ] by the next ship or ships y<sup>t</sup>: came out, so yo<sup>r</sup>: petitioner haveing proceeded his voyage on board the ship Nassau Capt: James Minty Commander untill we arriv'd at Batavia the merc[hants] going on shore expecting to have found a man y<sup>t</sup>: [ . . . ] have serv'd 'em as Linguister or Interpreter they not haveing the Portugeuze tongue nor any in the ship [but] my selfe & one boy y<sup>t</sup>: was the Cap<sup>ts</sup>: serv<sup>t</sup>: w<sup>ch</sup>: was not [ . . . ] manage their business.

Now yo<sup>r</sup>: petitioner had an opportunity of comeing to Madrass but the merch<sup>ts</sup>: said itt would be a great detriment to the Comp<sup>s</sup>: in their business if I did not goe to China wth: them & y<sup>t</sup>: I might render the Comp<sup>s</sup>: [ . . . ] peice of service by soe doeing & y<sup>t</sup>: they should [ . . . ] you his hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: Councill at Madrass by lres [ . . . ] be blameless & receive pay from y<sup>e</sup>: time of my leave[ing] 'em in China untill my arrivall at a Comp<sup>s</sup>: port. Now yo<sup>r</sup>: petitioner having done their business effectually & having sent most of y<sup>e</sup>: goods on board y<sup>e</sup>: rest in y<sup>e</sup>: factory left 'em satisf'y'd wth: my service & gott a passage wth: [ . . . ] for Malacca. Now yo<sup>r</sup>: petitioner having Em[barked on] board Cap<sup>t</sup>: Legatt bound for Acheen arrived th[ . . . ] to have found some ship bound for y<sup>e</sup>: coast but [ . . . ] any y<sup>e</sup>: time of y<sup>e</sup>: year being past I design'd wth: Cap<sup>t</sup>: Legatt for Bencoolen but we lost our passage [ . . . ] forc'd to goe for Janselon where wee remained [ . . . ] of Septemb<sup>r</sup>: & takeing in tin design'd for Beng[ . . . ]ing to an anchor of y<sup>e</sup>: point of y<sup>e</sup>: Island we had[ . . . ] at NW & we lost two anchors so was forc'd to be [ . . . ] for Malacca where we arrived y<sup>e</sup>: 29th: of y<sup>e</sup>: af[ . . . ] since w<sup>ch</sup>: I have used my dilligence as before [ . . . ] passage for y<sup>e</sup>: coast or some other port [ . . . ] Effectted being arrived in one of Mr. Dilltons ships at Acheen got my passage in a Dean for Cuddalore where I now am & hope y<sup>t</sup>: yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: will take into consideration w<sup>t</sup>: trouble I have been at likewise w<sup>t</sup>: expense in a twelve months time since I left Amoy.

Rama Linga our chief minter, says y<sup>t</sup>: if he has yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: Councills leave, he can procure Surup Sings Perwanna for coyning rup<sup>s</sup>: at Cuddalore, of

There is one James Neeve, formerly a Corporall in this Garrison whom we reduced to a private centinell because he would not reduce himself to temperance & sobriety, haveing served y<sup>e</sup>: hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: y<sup>e</sup>: space of 7 years desires yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: leave to goe to Madrass to be discharg'd in order to his going for England to whom we have promis'd yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: answer, is all at present, but that we are

wth: yo<sup>r</sup>: of the 20th: Novemb<sup>r</sup>: w<sup>ch</sup>: came to our reception y<sup>e</sup>: 14th: current wth: y<sup>e</sup>: packett w<sup>ch</sup>: we forwarded immediately. Recd: ye 1st
1699-1700.

Wee observe yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: [ . . . ] of our drawing Bills on you w<sup>ch</sup>:
had we thought [ . . . ] have met wth: yo<sup>r</sup>: non approvall should not [ . . . ] ted, but your being y<sup>e</sup>: last year soe ins<sup>t</sup>: wth: us to [ . . . ]
of Exc<sup>o</sup>: made us adventure on it, & we thought we [had] done an acceptable peice of service being se[ . . . ] ded consideration that hereby we should be able to keep [y<sup>e</sup>: wea-]vers well employ'd & soe secure them from y<sup>e</sup>: new [ . . . ] who otherwise would have inevitably drawn th[ . . . ] us advanceing in y<sup>e</sup>: price, buying their goods [ . . . ] of Comittees & Moors
& so paying custom [ . . . ] they procure them, w<sup>ch</sup>: would be an advantage to y<sup>e</sup>: severall Rajahs, Suddars, Aveldars &c<sup>a</sup>: renters, and soe cause them willingly to admit their trade especially having that pretence ags<sup>t</sup>: us that we were not able fully to employ y<sup>e</sup>: weavers ourselves, & yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: adviseing us you designed us a supply per y<sup>e</sup>: Scepter we relyed on her arrival wth: you & soe your being sufficiently in stock but doubted whether it might be to early to save her passage to us, but since we have erred in our calculation, we beg your pardon & shall not be guilty of y<sup>e</sup>: same omission for y<sup>e</sup>: future.

Wee dare not expostulate wth: yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: concerning y<sup>e</sup>: goodness & prizes of your goods & ours but must acquiesc in your sentim<sup>t</sup>: only adding y<sup>t</sup>:
our goods continue at y<sup>e</sup>: same stated price as agreed on at y<sup>e</sup>: first settlem<sup>t</sup>: of
y<sup>e</sup>: factory when Madapollam, Metchlepatam, &c<sup>a</sup>: have been forc'd to advance 25 per cent wee must likewise observe there has never been (as we have been
ill sortm<sup>t</sup>: of our goods makeing it our business to keep them as exact to muster

as we can, otherwise to receive them at a proportionable abatem<sup>t</sup>: to their defect. The contract for fine narrow strip'd Betteelas of w<sup>ch</sup>: wee sent yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: musters was but for rup<sup>s</sup>: 6,000 y<sup>e</sup>: greatest part whereof yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: rec<sup>d</sup>: per y<sup>e</sup>: Neptune & y<sup>e</sup>: remainder will be compleat per y<sup>e</sup>: Benjamin being in our Godowns.

Yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>rs</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: expectation will bee answer'd in full returns per y<sup>e</sup>: Benjamin of what sent us and w<sup>t</sup>: we have drawn Bills, but we admire at yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>rs</sup>: advice of chargeing w<sup>t</sup>: should have happen'd to come short to our acco<sup>t</sup>: because wth: submission wee think it has been never practicable neither doe we in the least apprehend ourselves security for y<sup>e</sup>: merch<sup>ts</sup>: but our Duty is we apprehend to make y<sup>e</sup>: contracts on y<sup>e</sup>: terms wee can & then to use all dilligent means to have them perform'd w<sup>ch</sup>: we neither have or ever shall be wanting in or any other particular that may promote or forward our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters Interest according to y<sup>e</sup>: best of our abillity & Judgm<sup>ts</sup>:. But if yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: expect more from us and that we must be answerable for any defaults of y<sup>e</sup>: merch<sup>ts</sup>: or y<sup>e</sup>: like we desire yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will acquit us, and send some other persons to take that heavy charge on them who exceed us in Duty or Fidelity we hereby acknowledge ourselves lyable to our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: masters in[ . . . ]spect our actions have come short of theirs,[ . . . ] not wee hope we shall then have that Meritt we ha[ve conti]nuously endeavour'd to acquire both of our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters & yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Councill.

If yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: had at any time or[der'd]y<sup>e</sup>: Provision of rice, paddy, oyle, butter, Horses, gi[ . . . ] & wee had neglected it, wee had been justly ly[ab]le to] censure & displeasure but we doe not remember ev[er . . . ] to have received such orders from you more then of butter & 500 Bags of fine rice per y<sup>e</sup>: Neptune [procureable at reasonable rates w<sup>ch</sup>: was not to be as per our Consultation of y<sup>e</sup>: 10th: July to w<sup>ch</sup>: referr, butter being soe scarce that many of y<sup>e</sup>: Inhabitants were forced to eat Oyle for want thereof, & fine rice not attainable; neither doe wee remember that of late any command<sup>rs</sup>: have carryed [ . . . ] of Goods more then Cap<sup>t</sup>: Lestley on y<sup>e</sup>: Neptune who carryed up a parcell of Horse Grain & of w<sup>ch</sup>: then advising yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: y<sup>t</sup>: you might adjust its freight as you thought convenient & by w<sup>ch</sup>: we have bin inform'd he was a sufferer & w<sup>ch</sup>: should we think [be] sent up on y<sup>e</sup>: R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: acco<sup>t</sup>: wth:out order must have bin justly charg'd to our acco<sup>t</sup>: w<sup>t</sup>: orders we have rec<sup>d</sup>: we alwaies endeavour'd timely to obey as y<sup>e</sup>: Exigency of Affairs would admit, & have ever studied to gaine yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: approbation of our actions w<sup>ch</sup>: we are heartily sorry to perceive wee soe much want.

It has never been our Custome to keep our Generall Books acco<sup>t</sup>: cash Dyarys &c<sup>a</sup>: behind hand & y<sup>e</sup>: occasion of their being soe at present is y<sup>e</sup>: want of hands being but 3 persons and M<sup>r</sup>: Owen often indisposed wth: y<sup>e</sup>: Gout, neither have we factors provisions, being quite out of store of paper, Ink, quills, &c<sup>a</sup>: & therefore hope yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will readily excuse y<sup>e</sup>: want of them.

We are never remiss in our correspondence wth: M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell & have used all means possible to prevent y<sup>e</sup>: new Comers prejudicing our Masters Affairs in w<sup>ch</sup>: we must affirme we have been very effectually by our more then ordinary friendship & correspondence wth: y<sup>e</sup>: Nabob, who has not yet discharg'd their vackeel or will give him a letter of y<sup>e</sup>: receipt of their present, and they are feign to doe w<sup>t</sup>: little business they do in these parts clandestinely by Moors & Committees who pay y<sup>e</sup>: customes & Bribe for w<sup>t</sup>: they soe carry away & to whome we are not a little troublesome but w<sup>t</sup>: has done y<sup>e</sup>: greatest prejudice to our hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters is Nollacopille Dowla y<sup>e</sup>: great grain merch<sup>t</sup>: (whose Brother Ballow is in Madrass) like himself their head Merch<sup>t</sup>: who coming into these parts and Ganjam wth: some of their money has endeavour'd to alienate our weavers from us by offering higher prices advising them w<sup>t</sup>: a vast treasure y<sup>e</sup>: new Comp<sup>a</sup>: has & therefore they shall be always fully employ'd. That [ . . . ] Rybar is goeing to y<sup>e</sup>: King for them who will bring a Phirmaund & that wee shall be permitted to trade but a little longer wth: many more such stories w<sup>ch</sup>: we are not willing againe to assert to y<sup>e</sup>: Weavers &c<sup>a</sup>: are all forgeries promising them a continuall employ for y<sup>e</sup>: future & to some of y<sup>e</sup>: heads of their cast giving tashariffs at our Merch<sup>ts</sup>: charge to keep them stedfast to our Interests wee hitherto pretty well [have] done by keeping them employ'd in arrears to us but when they come for a month or two to want worke and can be employ'd by them or any other they will be sure to embrace it, & that was all we dare to meddle wth: Dowla's Affairs he being so greata a trader to Madrass, but if yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: would give us [ . . . ] we could find out means enough for y<sup>e</sup>: Nabob [ . . . ] him & impeede his procureing of goods.

Wee endeavour all we can to keep y<sup>e</sup>: merch<sup>ts</sup>: to y<sup>e</sup>: proportion of course Goods and if they [ . . . ] in Fine at one time they must make it up in course another, as we frequently tell them & shall take care they performe.

Our last was of y<sup>e</sup>: 20th: Instant per ship Fleetwood just after departure whereof we were honor'd with your angry resenting letter of y<sup>e</sup>: 27<sup>o</sup>: ult<sup>o</sup>: wth: y<sup>e</sup>: return'd Bill of Exchange w<sup>ch</sup>: since yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: would not accept of wee have discharged by our Merch<sup>ts</sup>: who actually rec<sup>d</sup>: y<sup>e</sup>: gold and therefore yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will receive soe much less in y<sup>e</sup>: Benjamins Cargoe and w<sup>t</sup>: induced us to draw y<sup>s</sup>: & y<sup>e</sup>: other Bills we have already advised yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: in our last of y<sup>e</sup>: 20th: to w<sup>ch</sup>: referr hoping our reasons may prove materiall to plead our excuse.

If yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will peruse our Dyary and Consultations of y<sup>e</sup>: 6. 7. & 8th: June you will find we sent you y<sup>e</sup>: copsy of two Contracts therewth: one for pag<sup>s</sup>: 5,000 the other for P<sup>s</sup>: 2,852: 16: w<sup>ch</sup>: make together y<sup>e</sup>: summe of pag<sup>s</sup>: 7,852: 16: for w<sup>ch</sup>: we drew a Bill in part on yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: per our Letter of advice of y<sup>e</sup>: 9th: of June for pag<sup>s</sup>: 5,973: payable to Ninan Mestre for y<sup>e</sup>: value rec<sup>d</sup>: here of Mahomed Labee and we then offer'd Shamsadeen Noquedah a Bill for his money amo<sup>t</sup>: to pag<sup>s</sup>: 1,879: 9: y<sup>e</sup>: amo<sup>t</sup>: of yo<sup>r</sup>: Bill Return'd w<sup>ch</sup>: together compleats our Contracts, But he desired us to defer it till his ship should goe, for what reason we know not, and w<sup>ch</sup>: we assented too conceiveing there was no harme for y<sup>e</sup>: money to lye so much longer in y<sup>e</sup>: R<sup>t</sup>: hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>ns</sup>: chest, and this is all y<sup>e</sup>: mistery we know in y<sup>e</sup>: matter, and are not a little sorry we should gaine yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: displeasure thereby. The Blank in the postscript was an omission of our Secretary's w<sup>ch</sup>: how happen'd we cannot tell, the amo<sup>t</sup>: being enter'd in our Register [ . . . ] yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: please to order shall be sent you for your satisfaction, but however y<sup>e</sup>: Contracts would demonstrate the summe design'd to be Inserted in y<sup>e</sup>: postscript for we had not y<sup>e</sup>: amo<sup>t</sup>: in cash & so consequently y<sup>e</sup>: summe in y<sup>e</sup>: second contract must be y<sup>e</sup>: amo<sup>t</sup>: design'd for that Blank, and your promised payment to our first Bill and not forbidding us to draw more being seconded wth: severall reasons w<sup>ch</sup>: appeared was wholly conducive to our masters Interest encourag'd us to doe it, but being we have erred therein we againe beg yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: pardon.

We are sorry yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: conceives so ill an opinion of us w<sup>ch</sup>: we doe not deserve but assure you that our actions will undergoe y<sup>e</sup>: severest examination & that we shall never be guilty of infidelity nor if possible of inadvertency & wherein we have committed y<sup>e</sup> latter we crave your excuse, we hope w<sup>t</sup>: now advised will be satisfactory enough to convince yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: we did not designe to pawne this Bill on you as you insinuate but w<sup>t</sup>: acted therein was fair and square without any sinister or Clandestine designs or Interest, & y<sup>e</sup>: number of Bales you will Receive by y<sup>e</sup>: Benjamin we doubt not but will convince yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: we have studied nothing in taking up this gold but to forward & promote our Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters Interest and thereby to gain theirs & y[our good] will and approbation, we heartily wish yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: had rec<sup>d</sup>: y<sup>e</sup>: bill from us before y<sup>e</sup>: merch<sup>ts</sup>: gold came, w<sup>ch</sup>: we will assure you was not y<sup>e</sup>: Chiefs neither was he [ . . . ] one pag<sup>a</sup>: weight therein, as he will testifie upon oath if required, but such a quantity as they rec<sup>d</sup>: not finding a present vend for, and fearing by long lying their butter might be detarded they proposed to us y<sup>e</sup>: sending some person to Madrass & desired our assistance of Peons (whose [cost] they bore) and not having any correspondence [ . . . ] they desired of y<sup>e</sup>: Cheife to write to his Servant to assist y<sup>e</sup>: sale & w<sup>ch</sup>: is all either he or any belonging to him was concern'd therein.

As to y<sup>e</sup>: coming of a new Serlascar w<sup>ch</sup>: tho is yett dubious for every day produces various reports we must advise y<sup>t</sup>: if it should so happen, twould stand y<sup>e</sup>: R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: in about rup<sup>s</sup>: 3,000 to secure & maintain their present Interest, the Sallabad present being rup<sup>s</sup>: 2,500 on y<sup>e</sup>: coming of a new Serlascar w<sup>ch</sup>: is enter'd in y<sup>e</sup>: Duans Books, and there would be about rup<sup>s</sup>: 500 more in Darbar charges to his Confidants & Servants, but then great part of this may be saved if yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will send us mony, toys & rarities, by valluing them at an extraordinary rate, as we did wth: Rustumill, when we had in our Godowns for s<sup>d</sup>: purpose, your Chyna spreading, Fine Gunns, Looking glasses, of all sorts of flint ware wth: many other toys and fine Cloth as will appear by our Books already sent you.

We thought it improper to enter Gold in our cash Book, it being wth: y<sup>e</sup>: submission we conceive only accustomed to enter current coynes there, and for that reason omitted it, makeing Journall parcells thereof duly in our Generall Books as you will find upon their receipt, we shall observe w<sup>t</sup>: you write about freighting w<sup>t</sup>: Bales may be left on y<sup>e</sup>: Benjamins dispatch & if possible comply therewith, we are very sensible all Bills of Exch<sup>a</sup>: ought to be accompany'd wth: Letters of advice, and we think we never drew one on yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: without one, and what mention'd in the Dyary thereof was only to note y<sup>e</sup>: Noqueda's then requesting it, and we shall never for the future give yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: occasion to complaine of y<sup>e</sup>: largeness of our Dyarys but be concise therein as you desire, By that now enclosed yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will perceive y<sup>e</sup>: Ball<sup>a</sup>: of our last m<sup>o</sup>: Cash w<sup>ch</sup>: we have paid most or all to the washers and they will require such another summe from us before y<sup>e</sup>: arrivall of y<sup>e</sup>: Benjamin [ . . . ] must take up of our Merch<sup>ts</sup>: as also for our Expences till yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: shall have an opportunity of sending us a supply w<sup>ch</sup>: we desire as soon as possible, as also a stock for our next years Investment if yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: design we shall keep y<sup>e</sup>: Weavers to our Interest & thereby frustrate the designs of y<sup>e</sup>: new Comers in these parts, w<sup>ch</sup>: we strenuously endeavour, and doubt not but at last our actions upon due representation & examination will meet wth: likewise a due applause both from our hon<sup>ble</sup>: masters and yourselves, w<sup>ch</sup>: is all we have aimed at, wth y<sup>e</sup>: renewe[all] of our wishes for a happy & merry Christmas & new year Concludes this from

This day I have had the P<sup>u</sup>sall of your hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: Generall to Metchlepatam, P<sup>h</sup> which P<sup>h</sup>ceive wee are not to expect any present Supplies of money for the carrying on the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Com[p<sup>s</sup>]business, which I'me, verry Sorry to understand, having been Pag<sup>a</sup>: 500 behind with our merchants here ever since the 26th: Octob<sup>r</sup>: as alsoe the next payment drawing very neare and without complying therewith we must bee forced to lett the contract fall, which would be very acceptable news to our merch<sup>ts</sup>: knowing very well where to mend themselves consid<sup>r</sup>ably to their advantage altho our prices are thought [see high.]

I can't be soe exact in sorting [the] Goods as I would, occasion'd by not giving due compliance to our contract concer[n]ing which I've had [severall] Debates with these Merchants who flew off [& for] Some days would not come near the ffactory [therefore] I was forc'd in Some [measure to comply otherwise must] have sent no goods at [y<sup>s</sup>: time wth: I thought might prove much more disadvantageous to my Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters & tho' I told them I desir'd noe more then w<sup>t</sup>: was specify'd in y<sup>e</sup>: contract, they answer'd that hitherto they had comply'd wth: their obligation but I had not therefore as y<sup>e</sup>: breach was on my side they could think s<sup>d</sup>: contract to be noe better then voyd & of noe effect soe that yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: [two lines lost] & c<sup>a</sup> may please to see how affairs here are [in soe bad] a posture that if some other method be not taken for the carrying on this business, twill neither accrue to the benefit of our honourable Masters, nor the credit of the managers, and I hope your honour & c<sup>a</sup>: will be pleas'd to doe us that Justice to grant, that [tis not] ffeasible for us to provide Goods five P<sup>h</sup> cent chea[per] then the new comp<sup>a</sup>: and to be soe backward in our paym<sup>ts</sup>: when they pay downe two thirds of their cont[ract] at the sealing; besides allowing their Merchants for their encouragement, what was formerly here usual as alsoe giving large presents to all the Gov<sup>r</sup>: Sub govern<sup>rs</sup>: & renters in the country for the better carrying on their business which I have not been capable of doing here; both for want of orders for the same, and alsoe wherewith all to doe itt, concerning I have not been backward in adviseing and if our common money would have reach't to the defraying these charges, we should not have been penurious, nor in the least slack handed in disbursing the very utmost fanam, for upholding the Hon<sup>r</sup>: and credit of our honourable Employers.

I have now neare thirty Peons Spread in the country for the securing our cloth otherwise should scarce had any brought in, for there is such catching att Goods that we are compell'd to chop almost every peice be[fore] it is taken off the loome, & Some to stand by and [secure it soe that] with these & other unavoydable expen[ces] we are att in y<sup>e</sup>: end we shall be loosers unless your [hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: will be pleased to grant some allowance for our extraordinary charges. I hope yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: will be pleased to pardon my being soe plaine, y<sup>e</sup>: urgency of y<sup>e</sup>: affair requireing itt.

hundred, and Thomas Lovell designs to waite on your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: by that conveyance.

On the 26<sup>o</sup> of Xber the Embassador sent for Thomas Lovell & delivered him a paper wherein he commanded him not to make any application to y<sup>e</sup>: new Nabob who was then hourly expected, [but did not] arrive till the last of that month; [and yesterday he Sent the Consull wth: three others to complement the Nabob] from him; and to lett him know that [he was Sent] Embassdor from the [King of England to the Great] Mogull to procure [a Phirmaund for our tradeing in his Dominions therefore hoped he would not impeed any business belonging to y<sup>e</sup>: English Yesterday y<sup>e</sup>: Consull rec<sup>d</sup>: letters from Suratt w<sup>ch</sup>: brought news y<sup>t</sup> two ships belonging to y<sup>e</sup>: new Comp<sup>a</sup>: were arriv'd there, that the Govern<sup>r</sup>: of Surratt was Dead which occasion'd [great trou]bles on the Europeans; as to the Europe news [wee] cannot yett learn; only that the last Ship departed from England the 7th: of May last wee are with all Submission.

THE HUMBLE PETITION OF LUCY POIREIR.

Humbly Sheweth

N<sup>o</sup>: 10.

That your petition<sup>rs</sup>: first husband M<sup>r</sup>: John Field came out of England in the Service of the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Company in the year of our Lord 1662, in the m<sup>o</sup> of Septemb<sup>r</sup>: and served his Master many years with ffdellity but hath not yett nor any belonging to him, Received one penny of his halfe salary payable in England your petition<sup>r</sup>: therefore doth humbly implore your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to represent it home to the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Comp<sup>a</sup>: that it may be paid to her ord[er] in England.

Your petition<sup>r</sup>: further begs that [your] hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will be pleas'd to represent home to the [R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>:] Comp<sup>a</sup>: the like case of halfe salary belonging to M<sup>r</sup>: George Croock your petition<sup>rs</sup>: late husband who dyed in Bengall and left behind him three children one whereof is now in England which money your petition<sup>r</sup>: desireth may be paid to her order towards his Education.

Your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: Generall Letter of the 3<sup>d</sup>: Ins<sup>t</sup>: we rec<sup>d</sup>: on the 8th: following at night; and have detain'd your peons till now, by whom we send our Gen<sup>l</sup>: books of the fformer year, ending the ulti<sup>o</sup>: Aprill last.

To the coineing of Rup<sup>t</sup>: in our mint of Cuddalore, we sent your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: a farthar proposall by Narran, to which we have not yett rec<sup>d</sup> any answer. We say that Rama Linga promises to procure (by means of his Relations that are of the mint in Chingee) a cowl from Surup Sing, for the free liberty of that coynage in our mint: and as to the coining those fanams we formerly advised we shall not further urge Since your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: does not approve of itt, thô those and other sorts are commonly coined in y [ . . . ] as it hath been in former years in England for [ . . . ] the coineing their own farthings. The business of the Shroff shall be further consider'd & advise yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: our thoughts on y<sup>e</sup>: same so soon as we can have leasure and convenient time for it, after the departure of the Benjamin for England.

We have provided copper, and can have more as we shall have occasion, but Brimstone is very Scarce and dear here, which formerly used to be sold for about 7: or 8 Pag<sup>s</sup> Candy, is now 18 and very ordinary: so that we humbly conceive it may be cheaper bought of those that bring it from Manilla to yo<sup>r</sup>: port.

We are thankful for the leave given us to limited Sums, to draw upon you, which liberty we shall not abuse: thô now and Some months past, we have labour'd under some difficulty and Streights, thrô want of cash to defray the necessary charges of the Garrison, we have drawn two bills of Exchange (of yesterdays date) upon your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Viz<sup>t</sup>: one for pag<sup>s</sup>: 1,500 at 15 days Sight, payable to Senh<sup>r</sup>: Matthew Carvalho de Silva the other for pag<sup>s</sup>: 252 at ten days Sight, payable to the hon<sup>ble</sup>: President and we request your leave about the beginning of next month to draw upon you a bill for Pag<sup>s</sup>: 2,700 for Soe much will be paid into the Comp<sup>s</sup>: cash, on the 3<sup>d</sup>: of feb<sup>ry</sup>: next payable to the afores<sup>d</sup>: Matthew Carvalho de Silva.

We inclose to your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: the amo<sup>t</sup>: of Goods laden at Cuddalore, on board of the Danes Ship taken by the piratts, by which it doth appear that the Patans are the loosers, for soe much as their factor or broker Armuta Pilla, Inhabitant in Cuddalore has laden on S<sup>d</sup>: Ship we likewise Send your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: the account of Goods rec<sup>d</sup>: from, and money and goods delivered to both Setts of Merchants so that all the rest of their goods, to compleat their present contract is within the hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>s</sup>: bounds and not wanting to [come out of y<sup>e</sup>: country] and we have this day of all [sorts course & fine in our Godowns] 292 bales which [we shall daily encrease but y<sup>e</sup>: we shall want room to stow them away, as sorted, & there is no ship here or other vessel we can lade them upon, according to] order, Save the portuguese Ship formerly [advised, whose] decks are Soe very leaky that the least water that [is] Spilt, runs thrô: both decks into the hold; & her upper works are very much out of repair, and upon the whole, not fitting to lade any bale goods upon her, which is the report of the Gunners and mates we Sent to view and Survey her.

We are hastning to Send you another pair of books, which we hope may be ready next week one pair for England, and the other pair to remain with you att the fort, These now Sent are not fello[ws] the paper of both being different Sorts, which will be righted when the other pair is sent, as may be perceived by the tickets on the outside for the better distinction.

With Submission we never said the advantageous proposalls your letter mentions touching a new contract, was made or offerd us by our merchants but we said and say now, they were the terms and conditions we brought our merchants to agree with and then we proposed the same to Yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: for your consent and approbation and that part of the whole, which was to be in Europe Goods, is to be understood, to be in broad cloth and lead and not in any perpetuanos, which we cannot prevail with them to take; So that what we Say now, does not vary any waies in the quantity of what we advised your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: formerly of Europe Goods, but in Species onely which may have been an ommission in us, of not having explain'd the same before, yet we shall not be wanting to press and obleige them to take off Some part of the perpetuanos, if all circumstances does but concurr, to the making a new Investment, and [thô] we have your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: leave yett the hard terms you putt us to, lames y<sup>e</sup>: whole business & makes us halt where we should begin, thrô want of money, for y<sup>e</sup>: reasons your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: give us which we beleive: and money here among the Natives is never borrow'd att less than 12 P cent P annum, thô we hope to do better, and shall discourage our merchants to bring them to as good terms as we can, and advise your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: before we conclude anything with them, meantime we request that about Some 4 or 5 coveds of each Sort of all the musters at the Fort, may be sent us for our Merchants to See and consider of and that each muster to be Sent us, have a tickett affixt to it, with their respective marks numbers, lengths, breadths, and prices, the better to direct us alsoe the quantitys of all the Sevrall Sorts, you would have us contract for.

One of the piratt prisoners with us is ill of a flux, for which reason we have enlarged him to the liberty within the fort, in his Irons; w<sup>ch</sup>: when he is gott well, we Shall with his companions Send you by Sea, on the first Ship that goes hence to your port according to order.

What we wrote formerly concerning the advantage that might be made, of coining Doll<sup>rs</sup>: into fanams in our mint here, was upon the report we had of dollers being as cheap with you as 18 or 18½ P 10 pagodas at which rate it would produce a proffitt at or near w<sup>t</sup>: we then advised your hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: as may appear if calculated and if you please to send us any, it will Stand us in Stead of Pag<sup>a</sup>: to put off to our merchants to whom we beleive Shall be indebted about a fortnight hence, tho at present they are in arrear to us their fine Goods mounting high.

We rec<sup>d</sup>. what was Sent us upon Narran's Boat, Sometime before we had your advices of the same.

The Journall Pcells and account 'curr': taken out of the Bengall Books EE and FF relateing to M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes Sent by the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President to the Dep<sup>y</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: were rec<sup>d</sup>: & produced to M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes; to w<sup>ch</sup>: he promises to give his ans<sup>w</sup>: so soon as conveniently he can, after we have send yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: the other pair of Gen<sup>l</sup>: books, which are now comparing and examineing.

Herewith comes a packett apart containing Sevrall papers, relateing to the Examination of the difference, between Padre Paulo de Sao and Padre Gulielmo de la Valle, w by which you'l observe the reasons, grounds and motives, which prevailed to induce us (with Submission) to place the one, and displace the other, in w<sup>ch</sup>: if we have erred, we are Sorry for, and crave your hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>as</sup>: Pardon; but we hope may be adjudged to be onely in the manner, and not in the matter or merit of the cause, as haveing in our consience done it as an act of right and Justice, w<sup>ch</sup>: is always well pleaseing to God and all good men that understand it: and for further Satisfaction to those that are desirous; we refer to the Dep<sup>y</sup>: Gov<sup>r</sup>: P<sup>t</sup>icular letter and papers, which are not fitt to be mention'd here, So that we hope your candour may acquitt us if prejudice does not intercept the Same which is that offers att present, but that we are now and always wth: all Submission and respect.

This Serves chiefly to advise your hon<sup>rs</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: that the Sloop S<sup>t</sup>: Anthony Peter Eyes Master, is come to an Anchor this morning, in the road of Tevenapatam before we knew what She was, Wee have order'd the Master to anchor in the road of Cuddalore; which he has done accordingly, on her we Shall lade all our fine goods, especially the Shady Betteela's whereof we may have about 16 bales. We have rec<sup>d</sup>: this day of M<sup>r</sup>: Bugden, into the companys cash, Pag<sup>a</sup>: 150 for which we have given, a bill of Exchange; drawn upon your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: at 8 days Sight, payable to Thomas Harris which is at present that offers, but that we are.

Enclosed comes Invoice of w<sup>t</sup>: Goods Sent down on the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>s</sup>: vessells Purgoes and boats for Ship Benjamin's Cargoe to the fort amounting to rup<sup>s</sup>: 14996: 11<sup>a</sup>: 6 and Should have dispatch'd her earlier had we not occasion for the vessells at the same time to lade the Sidney, for which Ship we have 1300 bales ready 1037 are Sent away and could have forwarded more but that we send the Ruby with goods to the Benjamin, on which ship M<sup>r</sup>: Anthony Testard takes his passage to dispatch her, and Cap<sup>t</sup>: Browne Shall have orders to touch at Vizagapatam and Metchlepatam as your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: directs.

M<sup>r</sup>: Hiller is gone for Dhacca, and from thence Sent his Serv<sup>ts</sup>: to look after his Ship att Chuttagaum, and will not returne to be Serviceable to us this Season he desires to remaine Resident of that ffactory but the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Comp<sup>s</sup>: orders being to withdraw the Subordinations we have no occasion for chiefs but if your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will be pleased to Spare us two or 3 writers or junior Factors 'twill be a great help to [y<sup>r</sup>: place very] much wanting Such assistance in the accountants and Secretarys Office which are now bare M<sup>r</sup>: Walsh being Dead, M<sup>r</sup>: Doughlass his time covenanted with the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>s</sup>: being out designes for England on the Sidney, M<sup>r</sup>: Winder and M<sup>r</sup>: Dunster deserted the Service and most of us Sick and under great Indispositions, notwithstanding all these misfortunes we doubt not to dispatch the Sidney on the returne of the vessells from the Benjamin, after which we designe to put 2,000 Baggs of Salt peter on board the East India Merchant wth: Cowries & 7 or 800 bales of Goods and Send her to your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: from hence by the first or 5th: of the next month the presid<sup>t</sup>: advising the agent that if a Ship called there and your Merchants complied wth: their contract he could assist us with Some bales, we doubt not his good Success noe less then we know his Industry and endeavours to make them comply which obliges us to take this resolution and after her we have the Josiah on which we designe to lade 2,000 Baggs of Salt peter and fill her up with Bales on all three Ships wee acco<sup>t</sup>: 3,700 bales-w<sup>ch</sup>: will amount to 200,000 Rupees more then this years Stock, if our Masters are concern'd for Soe much petre, 'tis not our faults who had not the computation of the Tonnage to their Stock, we resolved on this experiment, because the Persia ffreights was very low, and had the East India Merchant gone for Persia wee Should have had 500 Bales on our hands, and we Suppose you might have had 2 or 300 after the Benjamin's dispatch, w<sup>ch</sup>: 7 or 800 bales must have remained Severall months in the country the Interest of that money and loss of this years markets in England (besides the reputation of the East India Merchants arriveing with the comp<sup>a</sup>: would be a more considerable loss then the Gaine of a Persia ffreight would answer, tho the Ships carry 100 tonns of Salt petre home not valuabale to the ffreight in England. [Wee are obliged] to your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: [for] your advices about the Surratt affairs the Moco fleet being Safe arrived, we understand all those fears are blown over.

The Pilot that lost the Gracedieu Edw<sup>d</sup>: Tench, by name afterwards when we order'd him to tarry in Ballasore to wait the arrivall of the East India Merchant to attend upon her wth: Sloop or vessell, was Summon'd or Inticed away from our masters Service by S<sup>r</sup>: Edw<sup>d</sup>: Littleton to bring up their ship or ships w<sup>ch</sup>: he perform'd wth: better success then he did our masters, herewth: comes copy of a warrant S<sup>r</sup>: Edw<sup>d</sup>: Littleton Sent down on the agent for the body of Jonathan Winder our Masters covenant Servant upon w<sup>ch</sup>: we wrote him a letter, and rec<sup>d</sup>: a dreadfull answer copy of them both comes for your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>as</sup>: P<sup>r</sup>usall. That paper w<sup>ch</sup>: he mentions is no more then what your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: inclosed to us and finding he Summond our covenant Serv<sup>ts</sup>: and Pylot when waiting for our masters Ships demanding consulate from private Shipping and requesting them to take his pass and to Submitt to his Jurisdiction Soe that all matters of Government would have fell under the new Presid<sup>ts</sup>: management whose interest being opposite to our masters, their affairs would have been utterly destroy'd, our masters having left us in the Dark not mentioning a word about the consull in our letter by the East India Merchant we desire your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: would give us your direction by the first conveyance how to proceed, for you find S<sup>r</sup>: Edward leaves but a Peradventure of our being pardon'd and rec<sup>d</sup>: into favour by his Majestie M<sup>r</sup>: Hedges and Muttradass are gone to Muxadavad to See what can be done with the Prince for a freedome of trade, but as yett have mett wth: little Success, and we See Small likelihood of their procureing a Nishaan untill the monsoon is over, So that if they Send a ship away with 3 or 400 Bales it must be by the french their means in the months of feb<sup>r</sup>: or [March when their own shipping are departed.]

If M<sup>r</sup>: Peachie will not Send orders about his [effects] he must take the reward of his own obstinacy.

The Governour having wrote to the Agent that the Seymours Gunns and Shott might be Sent him by the Benjamin we have Shipt them accordingly and are mention'd in the companys Bill of Lading, leaveing it to your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: whither they must pay freight or not having been Serviceable to this Agency in the rebell Rajahs time, Herewith comes a list of what Goods and treasure came on the Benjamine that Cap<sup>t</sup>: Browne took ffreight for and persists that 'tis his right, if your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: thinks it Soe 'tis well otherwise we Suppose you have his charterparty money to pay him, from w<sup>ch</sup>: it may be deducted or must be referr'd to our masters in England we are.

Yours of the 28th: August we Received yesterday, with a paper Directed to the Agent demanding the body of Jonathan Winder one of our Masters Covenant Servants you say in your letter that our Masters are Oecumenicall, a hard word, we find it comes from Oecumenicus, M<sup>r</sup>: Adam Littleton Says, it signifies universall, or [Generall but you will make] in words as in other matters, and believe you [meant] Oeconomicall derived from Oeconomicus the order and Government of an house but you doe not Seem by your actions to allow us that power you write, and Invited M<sup>r</sup>: Jonathan Winder from his trust at Cassimbuzar in our Masters Service to Serve your company upon which he left his Employ and fled to the chincery, from whence we Sent for him down and required an account of concerns money and Goods delivered into his hands, there being a charge come against him By M<sup>r</sup>: Edw<sup>d</sup>: Hern, as for Imprisonment he hath been Imprison'd in noe other nature then the rest of the Companys Covenant Servants whom we will not ♡mitt to run to and fro, where they please but command them to the ffactory (when we see convenient) Employed in their Masters affairs Whereas we have given him the liberty of the Towns, and ffields.

You will persist in the opinion, that our authority of Polity and Government for these parts are annul'd it Suting Soe well wth: yo<sup>r</sup>: Masters Interest notwithstanding the act of parliament which Erects the new East India Company continues our Company for a time in as full power as ever, from whence we Inferred, that they are to Enjoy all their Rights and Priviledges, and their Governours Agents and ffactors, to exercise all powers necessary for the Support of their Government and trade, moreover wee observe in that act, that our Company are Exempted from paying the 5 ♡ cent which is for bearing the charge of consulls, from which we likewise Inferred that our companys affairs nor Servants are under your direction or controul.

We cannot belive the wisdom of the nation designed that the new Comp<sup>s</sup>: president an Interest Incompatiable, and opposite to the old company [should] have authority to Intermeddle wth: their affairs & Servants the consequence of which [would] be pernicious and destructive to the rights and libertys of our company as they will hear by your Summoning my Masters Servants from their trust and Employs.

M<sup>r</sup>: Jonathan Winder was before us yesterday evening and desired to take his passage for England on the Sidney, and to clear all acco<sup>ts</sup>: wth: us here, which we have granted him. We thank you for all your offers of Service and friendship we have learnt to make distinction between mens words, and their actions, and Shall deport ourSelves accordingly and Remaine.

I have yours of the 6th: Instant, the word, tho no Such hard one as to have recourse to D<sup>r</sup>: A: L: being in writeing very common was a mistake and truly I know not how it pass'd me as it did, you alsoe, but humane frailties will appear in Slips in meanest matter Sometimes but you were not deviated thereby from the true insta[nce and meaning, w<sup>ch</sup>: I suppose none] but are far from disallowing to you, nor is your Instance in y<sup>e</sup>: least any prooffe, for a servant may Justly complain and have relief alsoe against his master if Injured Such are the laws of England, tho I am not writeing now in the quality to answer the matter you alledge, yet this I know and think may be declared by me that the President and Councill with respect to M<sup>r</sup>: Jonathan Winder did noe more then their duty and what you would have thought yours in the like case, and doe soe in others, let him know their masters pleasure and orders (without any Invitation or incouragement with what might be needfull in respect to his post if accepted their favour, what his trust, might be where he was, they were Ignorant but understood was not Setled but gone up for a time which for ought they knew might be Elapsed or near it, likewise heard that that had been under Some displeasure from the direction and disgust as to them and haveing fulfilled his covenanted time had been at the Coast on said account in or out the Service know not or whether was not now. In Service onely occasionally and that he could dispatch Soe Soon and give up his accounts Justly Stated as he avows to have done, Shews he was but loosly Settled, but however it was you have done as they Say an act or acts of the same nature therefore they think it hard to be charg'd by you with what you [r] Selves are equally Guilty of, and I must Say had M<sup>r</sup>: Winder come among us his accounts not rightly adjusted he Should not have had nor Shall any hereafter have protection from us against any Just demands or adjusting their accounts; complaints will be freely rec<sup>d</sup>: from all persons and I trust as impartially heard Exam<sup>n</sup>'d and determin'd, as to the imprisonment of M<sup>r</sup>: Winder his complaint Setts it forth: Soe to be and till the same be Exam<sup>n</sup>'d, it will remaine as a charge upon you, I must persist in what Seems [Soe clear to me from the act of Parliament w<sup>ch</sup>: tho it [extends not to hinder & restraine] the Governour and [Comp<sup>r</sup>:] of merchants of London to continue to trade within the limits there mention'd for [a Se]tt time and tho it should be as you say that the Said Company be excused from the penalty of 5 ¶ Cent which by the way is not Soe clear nor perhaps determin'd yet neither one nor other exempts from his Majesties power and Jurisdiction & trade being distinct from Government may well be Separated and noe damage accrue thereto b<sup>ut</sup> carried on to as great an height without as with it as constant experience manifests, and if the Wisdome of the Parliam<sup>t</sup>: thought fitt to Exempt the Said Governour and Comp<sup>r</sup>: from his Majesties Authority and make them In-dependant from his Government Surely Some clause, Some words would have been put in the act to Evidence the Same but a total Silence wholly putts a period to any Such conclusion; thô his Majesty hath placed his authority in other hands it noe ways takes away the Just rights properties and priviledges wth: respect to the trade in the least, nor from any others who are more plainly exempted from the penalties in the act then the Said Governour and Company of merchants &c<sup>e</sup>: are who alsoe may claime an Exemption on Said account from his Majesties power and authority as well as yourSelves and Soe Sett up for themselves in opposition to the Government of England, I doe not know that the President for the English Company Tradeing to the East Indies hath at all intermeddled in your affairs, that mention'd about M<sup>r</sup>: Winder (being no more then any master of a family might Justly doe) hath been already answer'd, but yet if the Parliament had thought fitt it Should be Soe, thô it [is] not an Interest Soe opposite as to be Incompatible with the continuance of the old comp<sup>y</sup>: trade as is determin'd by act of Parliament and present practice (your trade being [as free as ever] yett would it not have been more pernicious and [distructive] to your rights and libertys then your inter[medling] is to all other Particulars Subjects of England resideing in India who have rights and libertys as well as yourSelves, as to M<sup>r</sup>: Jonathan Winders resolution of goeing for England, it concerns not me, he is at his own liberty in that respect, and may Seek his redress there as he pleases, if cannot have it here, The above Since writeing hath laine by for a long time and might Soe have done for altogether had not there come to hand a paper too well Authenticated for any doubt to remaine of its being a true copy of an original under the reall hands of yourSelves Set up at the Gate of the factory at Chuttanuttee [and such a] one as the world [hath scarce] ever Seen before, one would have thought that in a paper of Soe Solemne a nature and wherein besides your own designs, your lives and fortunes may be concern'd and at Stake that you Should have taken care to have given your masters whom therein you Soe much elivate there right and legall title and not have assumed that belongs not to them in the least their being a comp<sup>y</sup>: now Establish'd by the nation in their representatives and as Such it is the East India Comp<sup>y</sup>: of England, it must Seem Strange even to amazement for any other on the foot of permission to presume to Stile themselves, the East India Comp<sup>y</sup>: of England as if they were the onely or Cheife nationall Society for that purpose w<sup>ch</sup>: Seems the product of a rancorous despite to the Supream power<sup>e</sup>: and Government of England.

Your charge (and it's a heavy one) of S<sup>r</sup>: Edw<sup>d</sup>: Littleton being an usurper of authority must be in that he hath noe commission at all, or that the commission by which authority is claimed is of noe validity being granted by one that had not the legall power thereto, that he hath a reall one Such prooffe hath been given that it's Supposed noe doubt remains thereof to any one, and that the authority that gave birth to his commission can Justify itSelfe from usurpation of w<sup>ch</sup>: there Seems noe doubt never having been question'd hitherto then is S<sup>r</sup>: Edw<sup>d</sup>: Littleton noe usurper, but if otherwise and that his Maj<sup>ty</sup>: hath noe power to grant any commission then in truth S<sup>r</sup>: Edward Littleton is an usurper and in the same State in accepting and Exerciseing as his Majesty, is in granting Such commission, his predecessors had this power but how King William came to be divested of it you will doe well to manifest.

Its allsoe an Erroneous charge that he had Intermeddled in your companys affairs in that quality or in any other more then what any private person might Justly fairly and legally have done, soe your inference falls to the ground thô by the way, I am Sorry to understand that Just fair and legall acts are of pernicious consequence to your masters affaires; your first Inference or reason hath been considered already thô: the parliament doth not In their act restraine from trade yet not one Iotta is mentioned of Government nor doe they exempt you from your obedience to his Majesty or his Jurisdiction over you as Subjects.

Your Second observation of being exempted from the 5 <sup>p</sup> cent which is not clear, but admitting thô: not granting the Same a favour in one point doth not discharge from duty in all y<sup>e</sup>: rest, an exemption from a Tax or penalty doth not free from allegiance and Subjection Soe that it can noe ways exempt their Servants (wheather in England or India they being alike in that respect) much less other English men depending on their Servants here from Jurisdiction of his Majesty or the controul of his legall power otherwise there must be a new Jurisdiction Sett up and English men in their Service, or dependance must [renounce] their allegiance and become absolutely the Subjects of the Comp<sup>a</sup>: of merchants of London trading to the East Indies which tho perhaps liked by Such, if any Such as might Gripe at and aspire to a Despo[t]ick Power and Sovereigne authority, yet never was or will be allowed and that your designe is Something of that nature plainly appears by your raising the whole posse of your villanye publicly requiring them to withdraw their obedience (and thereby their allegiance) from his Majesty by not obeying or regarding any Summons or orders from those legally commissioned by him which Seems nothing short of rebellion and levying] warr against his [Majesty] and Government which is not better then usurpation therefore I can doe no less then in his Majesty's Name adjure you John Beard Jonathan White Ralph Sheldon with all those poor deluded Souls you may have drawne into oppose his Majestys authority, that you doe returne Immediately to your obedience to his Majesty and his authority that Soe if peradventure his great clemency may be exercised in pardoning and receiveing you to favour and under his protection which Seems now forfeited by this act of yours, and, that you persist not any further his Majestys gracious pleasure having been fully made known to you by his legall commission which hath been publicly read and published in its due place, and will be again the fourth of the next month, and if thought needful continued monthly for a while for the Information as well of yourselves as any Seduced poor creatures, and establishing and confirming all his Maj<sup>ty</sup>: Subjects in their duty whatever you may expect yet there may perhaps be a failure that you more then all other his Maj<sup>ty</sup>: Subjects, will have his Maj<sup>ty</sup>: Pleasure Signified to you otherwise then by his commission now in being unless in a Judicall way which may be of more pernicious consequence to yourselves then w<sup>t</sup>: you mention would be to your masters as hath happen'd to many for the like or less overt acts, of this there are not few instances which I forbear now to mention, Soe Shall conclude with this Note that the authority of which Soe much mention hath been made is noe other then what his Majesty might have executed if noe act of Parliament had been, and the Governour & Comp<sup>a</sup>: of merchants of London in the Same State were in before the act and certainly the act of Parliament doth not enlarge their power or authority nor a Bridge his Majesty his, and therefore why not now to be Submitted to as well as formerly, ought rationally to be demonstrated I am.

 P Ship China
 Caddu.

We are truly Sorry for the loss of the East India merchant in Bengall, a rumour of which wee had before from Pullicherry, of an English Ship being lost, but they knew not her name, God grant all the rest of their Shipping to arrive in Safety.

We have laden on the Chinna Caddu, belonging to Mollem 170 bales, being as many as She could Safely and conveniently take in, which we travers'd from on board his larger Ship the Cuddalore merchant, on whom at first we laded 200 bales, 30 of which are come aShoar for the reason aforesaid, and it may be a fortnight more before his Cuddalore merchant can be fitted and gott ready to Sail, She having lost Some of her masts in the late Storme that happen'd here on the 17th : Ins<sup>t</sup> : Bill of lading and Invoice of Said bales comes herewith. We have Sent our Gunner to take care of the Ship and unladeing the bales, whom wee pray may be hasten'd back to us as Soon as possible, not Knowing how Soon wee may have occasion for him, while these party's of horse of Surup Singh are roveing up and down so near our bounds, and have lain at Trevendapuram Some days, to the number of about 40 or 50 horse and as many Foot, It seems they are very much disoblig'd by our having rescued the little wreck Goods, belonging to our people laden on a boat of Colloway chittee's, which was drove aShoar & Staved 2 or 3 miles to the S<sup>o</sup> : ward of our bounds, by the late storm. In this matter Ramage Gunnies as yett and hitherto has appeared our Friend. They Threaten to Stop the River of Trevendapuram, which used to water our corn Feilds, but of this we have no certainty ; when we hear shall advise your hon<sup>r</sup> : & c<sup>a</sup> :

It is now about 12 mon<sup>a</sup> : agoe, that one Thompson (a private centinell att Fort St: George) was Sent hither to assist our Doctor in the Physick room, as having been recommended for one bred up in the business of an Apothecary : instead of which he knows nothing that way, nor anything else fitt for this place, having wholly abandon'd himself to drunkenness & Sottishness, & is beleived uses no good means for procureing to gratify his extravagancys tho he hath been often and freindly reprehended & admonish'd to reform ; but he grows still worse, & it has by a constant habitt he has used himselfe to, fixt upon him Soe that he either will not or cannot refrain from itt ; Soe that he is of no use to us, but a Dead charge concerning w<sup>ch</sup> we request yo<sup>r</sup> : orders.

We are in great want of Stores of Strong Arrack for the use of the Garrison, in So much that we have but very little or none, nor is any procureable here. We also want Timbers & Plank & about Some 20 Candy of Jaggery, as Stores for the use of our Bricklayers & most of all we want money, and shall be hard put to itt to pay off the Garrison this months charges wee Shall ad no more but that we are.

The new Sier Lascars people came Some of them yesterday to Norway a town about 10 miles from us in order to their goeing to Chicacull of which our Nabob had no Sooner news but he sent out a Party of horse & foot & to Demand a Sight of their Phirmaund having advice they had none, & which if they could not produce to impede their further proceedings what the Event will be wee Shall be Sure to give yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>A</sup>: [the] timely necessary advice & in the Interim Remain.

I am Hon<sup>d</sup>: wth: yours by Cap<sup>t</sup>: Hart of the 6th: of September 1699 & according to your commands have assisted him in his affairs all what possible.

I presume this trade may be worth the prosecuteing and that it might not be thought the R<sup>T</sup>: HON<sup>BLE</sup>: Comp<sup>A</sup>: rejects it, the king being desirous of a trade I have sent Cap<sup>t</sup>: Hancocke to Ava where he will remaine till farther orders from yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>A</sup>: Councill he being well disposed to the Service and willing to try his fortune wth: a small adventure between Cap<sup>t</sup>: Man<sup>ll</sup>: da Silva and himselfe I Sending Seaven peices of Beeteela's with him to present the Governour at his first arrivall I am told that the king is concern'd that the Comp<sup>A</sup>: has Sent him noe present now having pretended to a Settlement in his Fathers time, as by the Present I brought and he having granted most that I requested and willing to grant more wonders what Should be the reason, and he having been told that I goe away this year and withdraw the ffactory is a reason that our business has not gone soe well as it might and that I have noe answer to a Small present, sent him before the Ships arrived, requesting his order for the factory house, a Lingua, and what was wanting of the returnes of the  $\frac{1}{2}$  customes last year on Cap<sup>t</sup>: Watt's his cargoe & Since of the  $\frac{1}{2}$  of what M<sup>r</sup>: Fenwick bro<sup>t</sup>: Saying he would referr it to the next year.

The Armenians have all grants of the half customes and Gregory (who requested it) liberty of building, & by what I can understand they have good returnes of their Presents. The king is indeed ready to grant almost anything that can in reason be desired for the incouragement of a trade for more particulers I beg leave to referr to my arrivall.

Our last to you was dated the 23th: Sept<sup>r</sup>: incloseing a packquett for you and advising the arrivall of the Bedford & Hampsheir.

The 23<sup>d</sup>: Instant wee received yo<sup>rs</sup>: of the 5th: of September, copy thereof and y<sup>e</sup>: Papers Inclosed we have remitted to the Generall & Councill.

The 18th: of last month the Norris one of the new Societys Ship arriv<sup>d</sup> wth: two persons to reside here in the Councill and Some writers; but they have no power to act till their Consul arrives, who is on board of y<sup>e</sup>: Mountague, So that they have not Landed a penny worth of goods nor transacted anything of moment. We Suppose Consull Waite will expect us to be under his Subjection, as Consulls Littleton and Pitt did the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Servants att Beng<sup>l</sup>: and Metchlepatam, but we think he will be mistaken th<sup>o</sup>, we are not under So good circumstances to contend with him as yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: and the Gentlemen at Bengall are, however we will do what we can to carry on our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters trade without the assistance of any of their Competitors, We do resolutely intend to withstand them wth: an agreeable Zeal to our Masters Interest we Inclose copy of a clause of a Letter from the Generall & Councill which gives an account of the Fredericks arrivall, and y<sup>e</sup>: Montague's misfortune there are now in this five french Ships (two of them the kings) Seven Dutch Ships two Interlopers, and the Norris, and we daily expect the frederick, Bedford Hampsheir, & the four men of war, the latter have been at lanwarr having buried Commodore Warren att Tellicherry, and designe from thence to Bombay and this Place for Information, and then to proceed to Madagascor in Search of y<sup>e</sup>: Pirates. We expect to send home the Northumberland, Bedford and Hampsheir this Season. The first of whom is on dispatch from Bombay, and the Latter we hope may be gone Sometime the Next Month. The Dutch Ships have a new direttore on board with Souldiers and Instruments of Warr with designe (as tis thought) of undertaking Some action against the Moors. He has by Letters Demanded the reason why their trade is So often interrupted, and the Gentlemen of the Factory at this time Confined; to which the Governour hath return'd him a Compliment that he may come ashoar, their trade Shall not be interrupted, and he Shall have more hon: and Liberty then any of his Predecessors. We hear he is preparing to Land att Swalley with 400 Souldiers for his guard, and signes from thence to treat with the Moors. It has already this Effect that none of the Merchants that used to trade to Moco make any preparation for that Voyage, expecting the issue of this affaie; and till its concluded they resolve to hazard nothing of their Estates to sea.

We Inclose Severall Letters which we received for Sundry Persons at your place Since our Last we are.

The R<sup>t</sup> : Hon<sup>ble</sup> : Comp<sup>as</sup> : Cloth haveing laid for sometime Stopt under the Governm<sup>t</sup> : much to the discredit of our Hon<sup>ble</sup> : Employers, and not having any business Extraordinary att Metchlepatam wee thought it most convenient for my coming hither to gett S<sup>d</sup> : Goods cleare which I have Accomplish'd with a great deale of fair promises, which has been the chief thing I have had here to work upon all along, but now find those people will not be Served So any longer. The Rashwarrer is very pressing for the remaining part of pag<sup>s</sup> : 100 Present, as formerly advised, but yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : & c<sup>a</sup> : was never pleased to take any notice of it nor concerning w<sup>t</sup> : I writ yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : & c<sup>a</sup> : in allowing the washing of fine Long Cloth to our Merchants here as I find was formerly done by the latter end of next month they will have brought in the full Complement of their Contract, therefore hope your hon<sup>r</sup> : & c<sup>a</sup> : will be pleased to give us orders how we Shall Proceed.

Our Metchlepatam Merchants will not meddle with any more broad cloth or lead having the most part of what they bought lying in the ffactory yett unsold they bring in cloth briskly which is all clear'd under that Government by the Embassd<sup>rs</sup> : order we not being admitted to make our application as formerly advised.

Tomorrow God willing I designe for Metchlepatam & Shall Endeavour to gett what cloth we can washd before the hott winds come in.

The old flag att Emaldee is Soe rotten and tore that it cannott be used any longer, if your honour & c<sup>a</sup> : Please to give orders we shall gett a new one made, else twill be needless to be att the charge of keeping a Peon & flaggmens there any longer.

We have news that the old Nabob is orderd to Continue in his Government and Mide Cawn Beague intends for the Camp I am.

Thompson having made request to bear arms as a Private Centinell, we have gratified him as to the Same, and thô : he has chang'd Stations, yett dos Still retain his old ill habitt, w<sup>ch</sup> : we take no pleasure to mention again.

We now Send yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: the Journall Letter I to the Ledger of the Same formerly Sent you to remain at the Fort, w<sup>ch</sup>: was an omission of not being Sent Sooner and M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes promises his utmost diligence (and will use no excuse) to bring and keep up the present Books K to their due time.

M<sup>r</sup>: Bugden who by his diligence civill carriage and behaviour here, has rendred himself worthy of all the good Commendation we can give him and we cannot Say but we are very Sorry to part with one So fitly qualify'd but that it is in obedience to your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>as</sup>: orders, and his own desire w<sup>ch</sup>: we wish and hope may prove for his good, as he well deserves But we must now again make our earnest request to your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: as we have before in our Generall Letter of y<sup>e</sup>: 24th: May last for a Supply of Some more hands to assist in writing work, to bring up what was & Still is So much behind, Before the Deputy Governour arrived here, and our Secretary of whom we must impartially Say, dos all he can to the utmost y<sup>t</sup>: in him lyes to the carefull discharge of the Duty of his office but by the multitude of business that crouds in daily upon him, and want of assistance together with his being So much Subject to the headach w<sup>ch</sup>: is troublesom to him and much increased by Stooping at writeing, as may more at large appear to your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: in a Paper apart by all w<sup>ch</sup>: he is not able of himself to goe through with what lyes upon him w<sup>ch</sup>: we humbly offer to your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: not as any excuse in his behalfe but as the reall true reasons that our Consultations were not gott ready to be Sent by the Benjamin but he promises God willing, having his health that they Shall be wrote out fair to be Sent by the next September Shipping w<sup>ch</sup>: we have cause to beleive.

Sometime about the middle of Last month we Sent Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Farmer & Berlu to M<sup>r</sup>: Brunt y<sup>e</sup>: Dutch Resident at their factory att Tevenapatam, to represent to him y<sup>e</sup>: incommodiousness of their Godown which runs cross y<sup>e</sup>: main Street of that Town, which Intercepts and hinders out great Gunns of the Fort to Clear y<sup>e</sup> round Po[i]nt on y<sup>e</sup>: Sand Hill to the N<sup>w</sup>ard of Tevenapatam, to which he made no other answer then that he would write concerning it to Governour Commens and Councill at Negapatam, w<sup>ch</sup>: accordingly he did, and Soon after M<sup>r</sup>: Brunt came to Vissit the Deputy Governour on that occasion, and acquainted him that their Governour and Councill of Negapatam gave leave for the removeing or pulling down of y<sup>e</sup>: Said Godown, but that it belongeth to Some of their Merchants who built y<sup>e</sup>: Same; with whom we must agree, and allow them Some Consideration to Compensate the loss they Shall Sustain by pulling down, or buying S<sup>d</sup>: Godown, which cost as they Say 500 pag<sup>s</sup>: y<sup>e</sup>: building, Concerning w<sup>ch</sup>: we wait your hon<sup>rs</sup>: &c<sup>as</sup>: orders before we Conclude anything certain with them, but Shall take care to inform ourselves what they are resolv'd to let it goe for, or in Such a Case whether we ought to give any thing for takeing away So Great an inconveniency, for w<sup>ch</sup>: reason we have not yet entred on any treaty wth: them, that we may not seem to be eager or fond in purchaseing it with money if it can be obtain'd otherwise which we much doubt Cannot: meantime we have caused our Bricklayer and Carpenters to view and measure the same, w<sup>ch</sup>: being done, they report to us that that part of the Godown which crosses y<sup>e</sup>: Street measures in length 27 feet y<sup>e</sup>: breadth 19 feet the height of the wall 17 feet, and the thickness of the wall two feet, w<sup>ch</sup>: part aforesaid taken away from y<sup>e</sup>: rest of the length of y<sup>e</sup>: godown, to make it even wth: y<sup>e</sup>: rest of the buildings of y<sup>e</sup>: Street, they privately value to us at Pag<sup>s</sup>: 30.

We cannot determine any sum certain we would have yo<sup>r</sup>: honour &c<sup>a</sup>: Send us because that will depend much on Such resolutions as you may have of making or not making any new Contract in this place, before the arrivall of our Masters Shipping from England, but more of this hearafter Meantime the Deputy Governour Sends yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: his account of the Honourable Comp<sup>t</sup>: Cash, from the <sup>p</sup><sup>mo</sup> June last, to the <sup>p</sup><sup>mo</sup> Instant by which you may please to observe at how low an Ebb our cash has been, for Severall months successively, besides we have not yet quite cleared accounts with our Merchants which were it not for that we should think Pag<sup>s</sup> 1,500 or 1,600 with y<sup>e</sup>: Incomes of our farmes, might Suffice for Expence of y<sup>e</sup>: Garrison untill y<sup>e</sup>: Ships arriv'd.

We have drawn a Small bill of Exchange of 47 Pag<sup>s</sup> upon yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: of this days date Payable to Daniell Chardin Esq<sup>r</sup>: for the like vallue paid into the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Companys Cash here by the Deputy Governour payable at 3 days Sight.

In our Generall Letter of y<sup>e</sup>: 18th: January last to your honour &c<sup>a</sup>; wee desired that Some part of your Severall musters at the Fort might be Sent us, for our merchants to view and consider of, and y<sup>r</sup>: Severall and respective prices to be advised us, y<sup>e</sup>: better to direct and guide ourselves by, if your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: are willing we Should Contract with our Merchants for a [new invest]ment on the terms formerly advised your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: but the Pag<sup>s</sup>: 30,000 y<sup>e</sup>: amount which you have given us leave to Contract for will take of but a small quantity of Europe Goods thô the proportion is the Same in a lesser, as well as in a greater Summ. The Deputy Gov<sup>r</sup>: doth further declare to your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: that he hath prevailed with the Merchants who are very willing at last to Credit y<sup>e</sup>: Honourable Comp<sup>a</sup>: and to provide and bring in cloth to the amount of ten or twelve thousand Pag<sup>s</sup>: at 9 per Cent, untill y<sup>e</sup>: arrivall of y<sup>e</sup>: Honourable Comp<sup>a</sup>: Shipping, which hope may be in May or June at furthest y<sup>e</sup>: Interest to commence from y<sup>e</sup>: measuring of the Cloth, but to pay upon no more then what Shall be Embaled after Sorting of y<sup>e</sup> Washed Goods, and that your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: may beleive us to be in Earnest, we have at our Merchants own request deliver'd them out by order of Consultation 11 bales of broad Cloth on their new Intended Contract at y<sup>e</sup>: Same Rate we disposed of those we rec<sup>d</sup>: by y<sup>e</sup>: Benjamin in August Last Viz<sup>t</sup>: Pag<sup>s</sup>: 17 y<sup>e</sup> halfe or Single peece, which we pray your honour &c<sup>a</sup> to consider of, and give your answer but by all means and first of all y<sup>e</sup> musters must be Sent, or come along with y<sup>e</sup>: answer.

We hope to provide ourselves with Stores of Plank at this place wth: out geiving you y<sup>e</sup> trouble of Sending us any upon freight. The Friendship a Ship of M<sup>r</sup>. Afflecks, M<sup>r</sup> Morris Command<sup>r</sup>: from Pegu, arrivring Safely here yesterday we add no more, but that we are wth: all respect.

The consultations were written fair by M<sup>r</sup>: Bugden and myself to the end of July, and the reasons I did not finish them were these Viz<sup>t</sup>: the first and cheifest is my want of assistants haveing no body to assist in writeing fair the least paper, So that 'tis very Seldome, I am Idle, and that onely when dozed with over much writing, My Second reason is that att that Juncture of time when the Consultations Should have been writ, I was many days obliged to be att Cuddalore to inspect the delivery of the paddy to the peons, The third is that I ever was troubled wth: a Swimming in my head, which incapacitates me from Sitting long att writing; and it does So much increase upon me, by constant poreing on pen and paper that I fear it will on time or other (when no help may be att hand) bereave me of my life, I am very willing to perform w<sup>t</sup>: I am able to Serve my R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable masters, but must now with all humility, declare that If I have no assistants I Shall desire to quitt my troublesome Employ not so much for the fatigue I und[ergoe, but] that the Companys busines being (as I found most of itt) So very much backward, I shall I fear be censured as an Idle person, when as (Yo<sup>r</sup>: Worship may well know) I doe as much as I possibly can perform I hope your Worship will excuse my prolixity; and it being partly your command, I dispair not of pardon for this trouble given you from.

Our last to this was of the 14th: Ins<sup>t</sup>: which we beleive may be wth: you before this time since which on the 18th: Instant M<sup>r</sup>. Hayness has produced to us in Council a rough draught of the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys Generall Books of accounts letter K brought up to the ultimo December last but he will want large Book paper for copying out two pair fair, one pair for England, and the other pair to remain with you att the Fort, which we hope may be procured out of Some of the China Shippes, returning Via Battavia, which God grant to arrive in Safety with you.

On the Ship Friendship, Cap<sup>t</sup>: William Morrice commander we intend God willing to lade 134 bales of the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Companys which are all we have ready; and little or none more to come in, on this present Investment w<sup>ch</sup>: we shall better know when their accounts wth: ours are made up, that are now adoeing.

We have received of Captain William Morrice into the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Comp<sup>s</sup>: cash the Sum of pagodas 1200 for w<sup>ch</sup>: we have given him two bills of Exchange both of one and the Same tenour and date, drawn on the Honourable President & C<sup>a</sup>: att ten days Sight, payable to Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Frewen and Wigmore.

We want a Supply of packing Stuff, also Some bees wax, Captain Morrice having none but what is laded on account freight, which he Says he has no power to dispose of without order of those concern'd we have Supply'd ourSelves (for a while) wth: plank, having bought 130 amount to pagodas 45: 16.

We await your honour & C<sup>a</sup>: answer to Rama Lingua relateing to the coining of rupees in our mint of Cuddalore, a[s] advised you in our generall L<sup>re</sup> of y<sup>e</sup>: 18th: of Jan<sup>ry</sup> last, we Shall not enlarge [any m]ore now Save that we are with all respect.

The Consull is now contracting wth: his Merchants here for Pagodas 50000 to be brought in by August next (att which time he expects y<sup>e</sup>: London from Bengall and wth: his Madapollam merchants) who are come hither for Sixty thousand Pagodas more to be provided against s<sup>d</sup>: time I understand he refuses dealing wth: any of our merchants unless they are clear of us, except it be that famous or rather base men Quollo Narso and two more, that went to him two days after his arrivall as the Consull himselfe has afirm'd; this makes Jappa Chittee and the rest of our merchants both here and at Madapollam very disconsolate to See their inferiours, Soe briskly employed, and they in a manner quiet, & when we say anything to encourage them, their reply is what can we Expect when your bills of So Small matter are not yet paid att the Fort, and wish they had never been over p<sup>s</sup>wadded nor given too much Credit to care promises and pretentions then they might have been employed in the new companys Service as well as their neighbours.

With this we inclose Invoice of y<sup>e</sup>: 143 bales of callicoos, Laden on y<sup>e</sup>: Friendship Captain William Morrice Commander which we thought to have Sent by the Johanna on y<sup>e</sup>: 28th: Past, but that She Sailed by before wee rec<sup>d</sup>: any answer to certifie us what She was though we imagined her to be the Same that their answer told us, for which God be praised.

Your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: advises nothing of the Silk worms, Soe long promised from Bengall, thro want of which the 4 necauds are a Dead charge to y<sup>e</sup>: honourable Company for So much paid themselves here, and to their familys in Bengall there having been nothing for them to doe here for Severall months past, Since they planted a few mulberry Shrubbs which they did at y<sup>r</sup>: first coming.

Here are three dutch Runaways of your Garrison, Viz: Cloise Storm, John Bruss and Hendrick Swarton y<sup>e</sup>: two former came here on y<sup>e</sup>: 15th: Past, and the latter on y<sup>e</sup>: 3<sup>d</sup>: Ins<sup>t</sup>: Though all three of them came away at once from Madrass in Company they Seem to have been reduced to great Extremity, by the mean condition of their Cloths before they came to us, Part of which as they Say, they were fain to give to y<sup>e</sup>: Juncaneers, and y<sup>e</sup>: Rest of y<sup>r</sup>: Cloths they gave to procure y<sup>m</sup>: Provisions in their way hither. We cannot imagine what Sho<sup>d</sup>: induce them and others to run from yo<sup>r</sup>: Garrison to this unless it be that each European Private centinell is Paid here 100 of your fanams ₧ menssem, & yours of the Same condition are paid but 91 fan<sup>s</sup>: at Madrass which is 9 Small fanams difference, and was Establish'd Some years agoe by the late Governour Hatsell, Probably in time of y<sup>e</sup>: famine but it is an additionall charge to this place, and we know not well how to retrieve it, unless a fitt oppertunity Sho<sup>d</sup>: offer to change them for an Equall number of your Souldiers, to be Sent us in their Stead.

We are in great want of a Sett of Brass Standard weights to remaine with us here as well for adjusting our old weights (which are defective and complained of) as to make new ones by them, which we request may be Sent us, one piece of each weight from half a Pound Progressive to half a hundred w<sup>t</sup>: avoirdupoise.

On the 3<sup>d</sup>: Instant M<sup>r</sup>: Cranwell and Lievttenant James Davis went to Cuddalore to Vissit Some There, and Returning together at night in their way coming to the River side to take boat, it So happen'd (upon what occasion we know not) Leivtenant Davis took and threw M<sup>r</sup>: Cranwell Down to the ground at which time the lascarrs came to carry M<sup>r</sup>: Cranwell into the boat, and being in their arms, Leivtenant Davis beat him wth: his cane in Sight of all that were there Present. M<sup>r</sup>: Cranwell made his complaint of the Same y<sup>t</sup>: night, with the greatest aggravations to the Deputy Governour to doe him Justice and right against Leivtenant Davis, who had So grossely abused him, which was Promised Should be Done But the next day when y<sup>e</sup>: Councill were called on this Occasion M<sup>r</sup>: Cranwell appear'd a main Sollcitor for Leivtenant Davis, not onely for a mitigation but forgiving all the wrongs and abuses he so vehemently complain'd of the night before in w<sup>ch</sup>: the rest of the Councill Did not concurr, but the Truth is M<sup>r</sup>: Cranwell has all along by a familiarity too mean and abject procured himselfe much Slight & contempt from the military officers of this Garrison, who have soe much imposed upon him, as to have made him their Redicule, on the other Hand because we would not be partiall, wee find Leiv<sup>t</sup>: Davis very Submissive to acknowledge his fault, and is sorry for the Same, and promises not to be guilty any more of any offence of this nature, and we beleive him mean time he Stands Suspended Ex-Officio, and is confined to his chamber, untill wee have your hon<sup>rs</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: orders concer[n]ing this matter, which we pray may be hastned to us, as P<sup>r</sup> our Consultation of y<sup>e</sup>: 4th: Instant.

We being in great want of a good Gunner at Cuddalore, have entertain'd one William Wathen, late Gunner of y<sup>e</sup>: East India Merchant a Sober man of Good knowledge & well Skilled in the Art of Gunnery at 9 Pagodas P<sup>r</sup> mens: for y<sup>e</sup>: Present, but he insisted upon ten Pagodas which is the pay allowed at Madrass to the Gunner of y<sup>e</sup>: outworks and first mate to y<sup>e</sup>: Cheife Gunner there, which at his request wee promised to advise your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: of he being the most compleat in his Art as ever wee had here and as Such he ought to be valued and Serj<sup>t</sup>: Ignatius White Who hath Served the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company the Space of 12 years with good applause, and hath Officiated of late years a[s] Gentleman of the arms in this Garrison, hath petitioned us for his Discharge, wee suppose upon Some advantageous invitations made him by Some considerable Relations he hath in Manilha, wee told him wee had no power to Discharge him untill we advis'd your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: but he was so urgent and importunate with us Declaring himself to be a freeman, and that the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys Service was not bondage, in so much that he prevailed wth: us to give him leave to goe to Fort St: George on y<sup>e</sup>: China Ship now in y<sup>e</sup>: Road of Cuddalore. In whose Stead for the present we have appointed Serjant Wilson, who writes an indifferent good hand, untill further ord<sup>r</sup>: from your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: The Heer Commens design of visiting all their Factorys along The Coast, Seems to be put off untill he hath first Dispatch'd two Shippes, one of them gone from Bengall to Columbo, with a Lading of rice, and is Dayly Expected if not already arrived, and Both to be Sent away to Batavia, where it is Said they are fitting out 24 Sail of Ships, of w<sup>ch</sup>: Fleet y<sup>e</sup>: late Governour Laurence Pitt is Designed Admirall and Commander in Chief against Surrat, and to block up the Port. This is the Private news whispered about at Negapatam, and as so wee relate it to your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>:

The Avaldar of Porto Novo und<sup>r</sup>: Jemser Cawn, and Surup Sing Governour of Chingie Threatens us with a Cattamute to hinder provisions and Firewood to come into our bounds and pretend our Saving the wreck of Colloway Chitte's, boat in February last as their Reasons for So Doeing of all which wee have not yett found any Thing of itt Effectually true or whether it be to amuse us to allure their Friendship to us by a Present wee know not, whom we hope not to be affraid of at this time of day However Ramogee Gunnies hath wrot a Sawcy pert Letter to the Deputy Governour translate of which we Send your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: and Shall give answer to it Suddainly, when we Shall have Discoursed the Ranters that have Lived here Severall years past under our Government and protection whom we Shall advise not to be any more Concern'd with the Duans Business in renting of Countrys, untill There is a better Setled Government otherwise we Shall tell them to Shift for themselves.

We have rec<sup>d</sup>: yor<sup>ts</sup>: hon<sup>rs</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Gen<sup>l</sup>: Lre of y<sup>e</sup>: 28th: past wth: y<sup>e</sup>: bundle of musters accompanying it w<sup>ch</sup>: wee Shall consider & answer in due time wee Shall add no more but y<sup>e</sup>: wee are.

There needs not So great a Stir about what is mention'd Concerning the Accidentall Difference between Rob<sup>t</sup>: Cranwell and Cap<sup>t</sup>: Davis Since all was endeavour'd to be brought to a Reasonable reconciliation by most of the Councill on that Day, of our meeting on Captain Davis his Submissive acknowledgment of his fault and humbly Begging Pardon of the Deputy Governour and Councill in Gen<sup>l</sup>: and my Self in perticular, and for my part I am wholly enclined to forgive rather then foment Distractions thō there are indecent Invectives Thrown upon me in this Letter.

Yours of the 6th: Instant, wee were honoured with the 15th: wth: your accompanying Account Current of our tradeing Stock the ballance whereof we find to amount to Pag<sup>s</sup>: 26740: 19: but there is upwards of 6000 thereof in Goods for Sale and Debts not recoverable and not belonging to our Merchants besides which your hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: have given us no Credit for our expences & C<sup>a</sup>: So that our merchants wont be indebted upwards of Pagodas 18000 one half whereof is and will in a months time be Embaled and the remainder they will Discharge gradually being their old Debt occasion'd by the Severe famine and Setterams rebellion when y<sup>e</sup>: Dutch at Brimlipatam deserted their Factory and had it plundered and lost therein and by their Merch<sup>ts</sup>: upwards of a Lack of Rupees and have never Since bin able to make an Investment and a further occasion of our Merchants being in arrears was y<sup>e</sup>: former troubles being Seconded by a Scarcity of Cotton Soe that they were forced to have it from Madarass at Pagodas 24<sup>p</sup> Ca: as appears  $\Psi$  yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: books and if your hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: Shall at any time upon y<sup>e</sup>: most exact Scrutin[y] (though you are pleased to censure us So hardly) find any other reason for our arrears we hereby oblige our Selves to repay to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: for account of the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company double Said amount having never practiced any clandestin[e] or Sinister means but endeavoured all things uprightly and justly for our Employers advantage as time and experience will wee rest assured Sufficiently evince To our credits and yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: content and Satisfaction.

Wee have made yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>rs</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: full returns of the Bettee'las we Sent the 3 musters the contract being but for pagodas 1777: 28 which you have received.

That our other Bettee'las are ord<sup>y</sup>: and dear we must confess and in so much that we Should not have Embaled Some of them had wee not received repeated orders to return no goods but take all on proportionable abatements and wherein if wee have err'd wee must acknowledge our Selves blame worthy but if not (and which wee presume wee have not) we think we are excuseable especially the first musters not being made by us but by our predecessors and never yet disaproved, or forbid thō indeed Dear as we Said before but without the proffitt thereon our merchants would never be able to contract for the other goods costing much more from the weavours Loom then invoiced to the Company as wee mentioned in our Contracts, our Betttee'las to be made wth: variety of Small narrow Stripes Soe wee were always pressing the merchants to bring 'em in after y<sup>t</sup>: manner and which in p<sup>r</sup>: they complied with many goeing both by the Neptune and the Benjamin but the originall muster continueing Still the Same, we found the cloth of this Stripe to come out much better then those new narrow Stripes we ordered, and Soe made us y<sup>e</sup>: more inclinable to receive a greater quantity thereof, what our merchants have exceeded in their proportion of fine goods already Sent, they must now make up in their arrears in course and which we Shall take care of.

That the chief &c<sup>a</sup>: do's and can buy Betteelas at a much cheaper rate then the Honourable Companys are charg'd at we allow, but the reason we Desire yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to observe because they have no proportion of Long Cloth and Sallampores therewth:

Yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Shall have no more of those Betteela's you complain of then what is the due proportion by Contract and already come in having possitively forbid the merchants bringing any more to us.

Our Gen<sup>l</sup>: books Shall always be Sent yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: as Soon as possible, and the reason they have been Sent by the Shipping from hence has been (tho yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: are pleased to misconstrue it [is] because we Esteem'd it the most Safe conveyance and to Save charges and not out of any Design to keep yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: in the dark and for the future you Shall have them as Soon as finished and the coppers of our books P Shall be forthwith Sent you.

Should wee have put of the goods for Sale to our merchants we Should have only enlarg'd their arrears and at last possibly occasion'd it to have been a bad debt, they having in realty notwithstanding yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: mistrust of our fidelity and management of affairs wth: them Suffer'd considerably in their Estates Since they became the companys merchants.

Wee must with Submission advise yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: wee never gave you any hopes of recovering the Doubtfull Debts in our books as our entries therein will Specify where wee mention we have so little hopes of 'em that we Should have writ 'em quite of, had not the auditor Gen<sup>l</sup>: order'd theire remaining twas the debt of our pres<sup>t</sup>: merch<sup>ts</sup>: wee advised of, and which had the factory been then withdrawn would great part have been irrecoverable.

The Sail cloth is not upon acco<sup>t</sup>: of the present Contracts but the merchants old debt and there Shall be no more rec<sup>d</sup>: thereof then its proportion.

M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombe will relinquish the towns when his lease is expired tho with Submission we must affirm the renting of 'em has been of little advantage to our business as will appear when quitted by y<sup>e</sup>: many impedim<sup>ts</sup>: our cloth will meet with from those little petty avaldars they will then come under to clear wth: it will likewise alsoe cost Some Small matter of Pishcashes as has been frequent formerly. According to your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: order on the 18th: Ins<sup>t</sup>: we mett and treated with Meida Cawn, our new Nabob who rec<sup>d</sup>: us kindly and promised us our Affairs Should goe on in all respects to our content as in his predecessors time adviseing us he had heard of our fidelity to the King, the Respect Huckera Saib Show'd us and wth: he would rather exceed in then diminish and Soe giveing us Tasheriffs dismissed us, and as yet our affairs past as formerly, the amount and charge of our present to himselfe, two Sons &c<sup>a</sup>: may be in circa Pagodas 400: wth: wee hope your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will approve of.

Upon opening the chest of flint ware on that occasion wee found the looking glasses missing w<sup>ch</sup>: wee Desire yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to inquire into wth: you, wee enclose our last months account Cash and Remain.

P.S.—Wee cant carry on y<sup>e</sup>: R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>s</sup>: business for want of factors provisions having neither Quills, Ink or paper therefore Desire yo<sup>r</sup>: honour &c<sup>a</sup>: to Supply us wth first opportunity:

Our last to your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: was by a french conveyance, Since then after all Possible means to be used have Saved about 100 bales out of the East India Merchants Wreck, with Some of her guns and Rigging all the rest is lost, past hopes of recovery the S<sup>o</sup>: west winds Setting in, and the wreck Sunck into the Sand.

On the 26th: Ultimo the Josiah Sayl'd from Pipeley road with a Gale at W. S. W<sup>t</sup>: which continued about 8 or 9 days, Soe that we doubt not her passage, Pray God Send her Safely home being a rich Ship, her cargoe on board cost above 8 Laack of Rup<sup>s</sup>:

This is the 7th: of the month and the Antilope is design'd to be dispatch'd, within 7 or 8 days from Rungah fullah, Soe that twill be the latter end of this month before She gett clear of y<sup>e</sup>: Sand.

S<sup>r</sup>: E[d]ward Littleton hath not yett procured a Nishaan after the Expence of a Laack of Rupees in all Durbars, he hath gott a dустuck for y<sup>e</sup>: years trade; copy of which we Send you, and think it is ill Pennd, believe the Prince will not give his Nishaan untill the Phirmaund comes from the king in case that doth not arrive Shortly, and there be a change in this Government by a new Subahs arrive all the new people will have all their work to do over again.

By the Enclosed copy of S<sup>r</sup>: Edward's Letter unto us and our answer yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will know the reason why we Send copy's of our Masters Phirmaund, Nishaan's Phirwannaes rec<sup>d</sup>: from the Mogull his Princes and Subahs.

Having dispatcht all the Europe Shipping and there being a Ship and 2 Vessells here, we have Loaden the Ship with Provisions for Fort St: George as wth Captain Stillgoes bill of Lading and Invoice Enclosed amounting to Rup<sup>s</sup>: 3104: 3<sup>r</sup>: 5<sup>p</sup>: which we hope will Safely arrive yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: She is a new Teak Ship well fitted, and Stored but shall have no occasion for her again being very crank, and will not shift well wth: is an unpardonable fault in a Vessell for our use, but may be proper for other Voyages, and being Disappointed from Surratt, we are building a Buoyer at Balasore about 70 (or) 80 Tonns.

We would have Sent Some wheat but tis not procureable; We call not more to mind but remaine.

P.S.—Enclosed comes a List of w<sup>t</sup>: goods freighted on the Ruby, also an acco<sup>t</sup>: of Stores belonging to her with mens wages rec<sup>d</sup>: here.

Enclosed with Second Bill of Lading. Since then wee have dispatch'd the Sidney Read: 24th wth a Cargoe on board amounting to near 9 laack of Rupees, Pray God Send her a April 1700.
Safe arrivall to our masters.

Herewith comes Captain Erles Bill of Lading and Invoice of what Goods Shipt on board the East India Merchant amounting to rupees 348784: 9: 11: alsoe a List of what freight goods are on board; Wee beleive She will not be able to receive above 3 or 400 Bales at Madarass wth: y<sup>e</sup>: Governour advised the Agent he Doubted not to have ready for her.

Inclosed comes copy of a paragraph of the auditor Gen<sup>ls</sup>. Letter to us wherein he advises too little freight was Receiv'd at Madarass for the Armenians Goods which came out on y<sup>e</sup>: Charle[s] the Second and Seems to blame this agency, but wee Say those goods although they came out on a Ship bound for the Bay, were obliged to bee put on Shoar at Madarass to Ameer Jaun, and therefore S<sup>r</sup>: John Goldsborough ordered them to bee Sent up for Madarass on the Berkley Castle and if delivered to the Armenians without receiveing the full freight, the fault was not in the Agency, and must Still be recovered from Amer Jaun, who we are advised is an Inhabitant of Madarass.

Wee are now going forward to Lade Ship Josiah, and have near five hundred bales in the house, to be prized, 200 wee Expect from Cassimbussar Soe that wee have but 7 or 800 bales to Seek for, those we hope may be procured by the Latter End of this month to give the Ship her dispatch from Pipleby by the 20th: of February, and wee expect goods of the finest Sort, Soe that we account the Josiah may be worth near 8 Laack, if Soe wee Shall bee Indebted to the country above 3 Laack, and wee find the new comers who talk of great matters, may have Some of that Small Stock they brought out rest on their hands, wee are their Superiours in court and country, our Interest is protected notwithstanding their boasts, and we will continue it, tho wth: Some Expence, Mutradass hath once mett with his match Some unkind persons or other continually placeing Obstacles in his way, his Designs blasted, his reputation Sunk, and the Redicule of the whole Province, as yet no news of the Expected ord<sup>r</sup>, from the Prince, to have a free trade altho: 35000 rup<sup>s</sup>: hath been offered the Prince 15000 a Nuzaranah to y<sup>e</sup>: Emperor and 26000 rup<sup>s</sup>: Amongst the Muttsudies, 'tis M<sup>r</sup>. Halsey & C<sup>A</sup>: their opinion that 15000 rup<sup>s</sup>: more then what have been offered may procure it by the latter end of this month; they have bought Severall bale Goods which are ready packed in Merchants houses to be Shipt off when the order of or trade arrives by the best Account wee can learn they have not above 400, which they design on the Degrave for Metchlepatam expecting enough there provided by Consull Pitt to fill the Ship, and So Dispatch her from thence for England, In case they put all the Bales they have bought, and may provide of Buzzaree Goods, on board the Antelope, 'tis not unlikely but She may Sayle by the latter end of february but in case they designe the Bales they have ready on the Degrave from hence the latter end of this month, they will not be able to gett a cargoe for the Antelope untill the latter end of March, Soe that they both will be winter Ships.

The Redwood formerly Sent us is Shipt for England, and was fore't to buy Some here please to Send us So much, as will make charterparty proportion for So many Ships as wee Shall have orders to dispatch next yeare.

Menick chund an Eminent Shroff and our good friend desireing us to Pmitt Allah Coolie Serv<sup>t</sup> : to Summunder Cawn Phousdar of Raychoor, with his necessaries to take passage on the East India Merchant for Madrass, we have assented thereto, and for his 6 Tucktas of Goods Rec<sup>d</sup> : 50 rup<sup>s</sup> : into cash here for freight they being fine mulmulls &c<sup>a</sup> : for great men at court and Sealed with their Vacqueels Seal wee did not insist on their opening of them.

We would have Sent yo<sup>r</sup> hon<sup>r</sup> &c<sup>a</sup> Some wheat by this conveyance, but tis not procureable wee can't gett 14 Seer for a rupee to make bread with.

M<sup>r</sup> : Winder notwithstanding his promise to goe for England on the Sidney, and voluntary oaths, and Imprecations to Some of ourselves and others in the Factory is Slipt away and Entertained by S<sup>r</sup> : Edward one of that councill as wee are Inform'd.

We call no more to mind but rest.

P : S:—Just now is come to hand yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>rs</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup>. of y<sup>e</sup> 23<sup>d</sup> : of November which mentions not the receipt of ours of the 26th : August sent to Vizagapatam by Ship Humphrey and Charles and past Metchlepatam about the 23<sup>d</sup> : of September, wee hope the pacquett Arrived before the Dispatch of the Neptune Notwithstanding Notice is not taken of its Receipt.

Wee are glad you have Such a large quantity of Bales for the East India Merchant but She will not want much above half of them, had your advices arrived 4 or 5 days Sooner wee could have taken out 200 bales for the Josiah which would have quick[e]ned her departure the East India Merchant being dispatcht before the receipt of yours, would make no alteration however wee hope to lade the Josiah by the middle of next month.

Tis discoursed by them that come from Hugly that the D'grave will be coming down the river for Metchlepatam about ten days hence, they haveing 4 or 500 Bales ready for her, 70000 rup<sup>s</sup> : expence with the Prince will procure his Dustuck for the new company's trade this year giving Mutradass and other Security for paying custome in case they get not the Mogulls Phirmaund, aft<sup>r</sup> : which the Prince promises his Nishaan, Soe that about 12 or 15 days hence after their money is paid, and the Dustuck firm'd by the Prince, the new Company's trade will goe currantly on, this our Vacqueel advises from the camp. February will be Sett in before their Dustuck will pass at y<sup>e</sup> aurung's to bring in their Dadney Goods, Soe that it appears Improbable to us, the Antilope can Sayle before the middle of March, we call not more to mind but rest.

His Excellency S<sup>r</sup>: W<sup>m</sup>: Norriçe Lord E[m]bassador from the crown of England to the Emperor of Industan, being Safely arrived at Metchlepatam, and thence designing to y<sup>e</sup> court of said Prince at Visapoor, hath Signified the absolute necessity of his being possessed of all Such Phirmaunds Grants Priviledges freedome from customes and immunities the English nation ever Enjoy'd either in Bengall or elsewhere and that he may be furnished hence as far as our own Knowledge and ability reaches and what may bee procured from others that Soe he may endeavour the confirming and Securing the Same, as also to be acquainted with what priviledges and advantages may be requisite (and yet wanting) for y<sup>e</sup>: better carrying on the trade and amity in these parts, in order to have'em procured alsoe, thereupon the Phirmaunds, Nishaans, Phirwanna's Grants &c<sup>a</sup>. which the English Nation have been possessed of being all (that remains) as I understand in yo<sup>r</sup>: hands, M<sup>r</sup>: Rob<sup>t</sup>. Nightingale is Sent to you to receive such of them from you as you shall Deliver him with w<sup>t</sup>. Account also you Shall please to give him of the Immunities, Rights, Priviledges freedoms, which either from Grants or Customary prescripture use have belonged to, been exercised claimed, or enjoyed by the English Nation particularly as to Grants, Phirmaunds Nishaans Phirwanna's &c<sup>a</sup>: according to my own memory (if no failure be therein) there are two Phirwannas for free Trade to the English obtain'd about the year 1633, by M<sup>r</sup>: Cartwright who first Settled in these parts Account the English, alsoe a Neshaan from Shah Sujah procured by M<sup>r</sup>. Bowden a private Englishman for freedome of Trade to his countrymen, in all parts under the Jurisdiction of S<sup>a</sup>: Prince and besides many others that preceeded the Same, there is a Phirwanna from Shastah Cawne or Emeer umbrah granted in the time of M<sup>r</sup>: Walter Clavell as I take it, 1672; esteemed the best penn'd for our purpose of any till then, alsoe a Neshaan from Sultan Auzum the now Second Sonn of the present King obtained by S<sup>r</sup>: Mathias Vincent Anno 1678 which was Soe full and well penn'd as all Since, it's Said have made it the Standard without alteration or addition as to matter of trade, a Phirmaund from the King was likewise granted about the year 1679-80 in time of Said S<sup>r</sup>: Mathias Vincent who thereupon gott y<sup>e</sup>: 3000 rup<sup>t</sup>: p<sup>a</sup> annum released, tho in truth the Said Phirmaund was Soe illpenn'd in favour of the English that Some, if not most were then of opinion it had been better Stiffled then produced and made use of, and perhaps its being pry'd into by the Officers, was occasion of much trouble afterwards many other there were, to the year 1682 of all wth: a fair List was drawne out under M<sup>r</sup>: Sowdens hands, and were in the office, when S<sup>r</sup>. W<sup>m</sup>. Hedges came, and all of 'em delivered to him according to Said List, what grants may have been Since I pretend not to much knowledge of, but diverse there are of which you are doubtless well acquainted, and have 'em in yo<sup>r</sup>: possession, those before Specified I judge the most usefull of others, possibly it may be enough to have a List wth: y<sup>e</sup>: Names of the Graunts and time as may best bee knowne to you being in your hands, and you having been in the place long and under various circumstances may have knowledge of Some matters needfull to bee advised him, and insisted on, for the advantage of our nation and Trade, which may either not have come to our knowledge, or be in our thoughts at present, therefore if you Shall think fitt to acquaint us wth: any thing you think materiall in that pointe y<sup>e</sup>: Bearer will receive or take notice thereof from you and the Same Shall be transmitted to his Lordship in our memoriall M<sup>r</sup>: Nightingale hath alsoe full powers and orders to acquaint offer and discourse you of any and every thing more that may present to bee needfull on this account.

His Excellency alsoe further requires that notice be given to the Cheifs and Factors of the old Comp<sup>a</sup>: that as he has the hon<sup>r</sup>: to bear the publick Character of the King of Englands Embassador, Soe all Englishmen whatever in India or under

Your hon<sup>rs</sup>: of the P<sup>m</sup><sup>o</sup>: Ins<sup>t</sup>: wee rec<sup>d</sup>: by M<sup>r</sup>: Nightingale, and observe that his Excellency S<sup>r</sup>: W<sup>m</sup>: Norrice is not of Yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>rs</sup>: opinion w<sup>ch</sup>: you mention'd in a former Letter Viz<sup>t</sup>. That 'tis enough for you to come on the old footing, the antient Amity and Friendship, the Originall contract between y<sup>e</sup>: two Crowns, but now wants Some of those Phirmaunds Nishaans, Phirwana's &c<sup>a</sup>: w<sup>ch</sup>: our masters have obtain'd wth: great fatigue and large expence, part you Knew in the time you had y<sup>e</sup>: happyness to raise a fortune by their Service, and may guess at the cost of the other by what you have expended of your new Masters Stock, in getting a Dustuck under Security for this years business, We think it no more reasonable to deliver you our Masters Phirmaund, Nishaan &c<sup>a</sup>: then to deliver you their cash, or bales, they are Priviledges bought with their money, and what they value themselves on as much as their goods, or Bullion for if they had not them now 'twould cost Phaps a great deal more to procure them then yet it hath done, & wee Suppose your Masters will value their Stock on the foot of your account for gaining a Dustuck, or think their money ill bestowed. But Since all that is necessary to be done is at p<sup>re</sup>sent with you Esteemed Lawfull to be acted, Pray why did not y<sup>e</sup>: Ambassador bring our Masters orders, to deliver them to him, or why hath he not Signified his want thereof unto us, what Satisfaction have wee that tis the Embassadors Orders that wee Should deliver our Masters unto the new companys President, whatsoever our opinion is in this matter whither 'tis reasonable the Ambassador hath them or not, wee have no power to deliver them without the advice and order of the Govern<sup>r</sup>: of Fort S<sup>t</sup>: George to whom in these Affairs we are Subordinate and Therefore Shall Send copy of Yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>rs</sup>: Letter to them for their Approbation and Assent before wee deliver anything moreover 'tis our present Intention to Send Authentic Copys of all the aforesaid Grants to the Governour and Councill of Madrass, by a Ship that we Shall Send Shortly thither Soe that if the Governour & Councill thinks Convenient on the Embassadors Demand they may deliver them to his Excellency in which they may be better Satisfyed 'tis his desire to have 'em, then as yet is made plain unto us, and if he hath them, the Import is not much whither delivered by the right hand or left.

Our Masters have advised of the Embassadors comeing out, if he Signifies any thing unto us how we Should deport our Selves under his Power, we Shall Thereon endeavour to give him all Immaginable Satisfaction.

As for what Dirt you fling in our faces little wee beleive will Stick and are.

Our last to you was y<sup>e</sup>: the 10th: 8<sup>ber</sup>: y<sup>e</sup>: next day wee rec<sup>d</sup>: yo<sup>r</sup>: originall lett<sup>r</sup>: of y<sup>e</sup>: 3<sup>d</sup>: & 5th: of June to whose copy wee replied in our Last.

M<sup>r</sup>: Harbin being on this Island we have fully Examined into the business in controversy between him and the owners of Ship Diamond that you recommend to our consideration & find y<sup>e</sup>: true State of that business to be as followeth.

The Comander, and Supra Cargo of Said Ship not being able to exchange their Mamodies for Gold with any private Merchants in Gombroon, did impose upon M<sup>r</sup>: Harbins weakness So farr as to gett him to lett them have chequeens 13744 of the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys which lay ready at Gombroon to be Transported to us by the first Ship that Should arrive there this to Say no worse was not a good action and if the Gentlemen for their presumption, and to prevent the like evill for the future Should have Some fine Lay'd upon them, they would but have their desert, the madmoodies Mr: Harbin received of them when Charles the 2<sup>d</sup>: arrived, on which Ship the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Companys gold was to be Laden, he exchanged into Chequeens, but lost in the Exchange one Shahee on each Chequeen which loss the owners of the Diamond ought to bear and not the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Company for that it was the extraordinary importunity of the comm<sup>dr</sup>: and Supra Cargoe, that M<sup>r</sup>: Harbin lett them have their Gold, and this was alsoe a great benefit to the owners for that the Ship by this means Sailed Several months Sooner then else She could, another thing in which the forementioned M<sup>r</sup>: & Supra Cargo was guilty as M<sup>r</sup>: Harbin Affirms, was their imposeing on him to take off a quantity of their cargo of Sugar, for w<sup>ch</sup>: hee lett them have wine, and for w<sup>ch</sup>: wine he p<sup>d</sup>: about 224000 Shahees out of the Companys Cash, and by the Sale of Said Sugar Lost about 20000 Shahees, w<sup>ch</sup>: wth: the former Sume and charges that was incerted in M<sup>r</sup>: Bruces Account Sale near ballances the account of y<sup>e</sup>: 8 bales of Goods for which reasons we can't determine anything in Said Affair, till we have wrote to M<sup>r</sup>: Owen to know the truth of what M<sup>r</sup>: Harbin Alledges.

The benefit that private Shipping receive at Gombroone of being excused from paying Custom Sufficiently compensates for their paying consulage.

The 15th: of Xber the Frederick arrived here with a Cargoe from our Masters amounting to £42,351: 6<sup>s</sup>: 5<sup>d</sup> and wee hear of an Europe Ship at Gombroon which wee hope will prove the Rubie.

The 19th: of Jan<sup>y</sup>: S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas Waite Consull Generall for his Majesty and President for the new Company as he writes us arrived at Surratt barr's foot on y<sup>e</sup>: Mountague, one of the new Companys Ships the Norris another of their Ships being arrived there about Six weeks before what their Cargoe amounts to wee cant yett Learn S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas acts much after the Same manner M<sup>r</sup>: John Pitt doth on your Side, breathing out nothing but Severe Threats against his old Masters Servants, and at his arrivall at Swalley barr Sent 40 Men with Captain Calliere, and Captain Allison on Shoare at Swalley and Struck our Masters: fflag of S<sup>r</sup>: George that fieth there by Vertue of the Mogulls Phirmaund, but the Governour of Surat Officers & Peons Presently took it from them and hoisted it again threatning them that if they attempted again to Strike it, that they would Severely Punish the Actors, this hath put S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas into Such a frenzy that he Threatneth President Colt & Council with y<sup>e</sup>: utmost Severity for contempt done to his Commission which requireth him as wee have heard to maintain all his Maj<sup>ties</sup>: Subjects in the free enjoyment of all the just rights, and Priviledges they have or Shall obtaine; he further Saith that he will have our Masters fflag of S<sup>r</sup>: George that fieth on Surat Factory by Virtue of the fore mention'd Phirm'd Struck thô it cost him 20,000 rup<sup>s</sup>: Such is his Vanity, and pride, Disregard to his commission, and mallice to his old Masters, but phaps after all his fury he will not be able to accomplish what he Designes, he is gone up to Surat where it's Said the Governour will p<sup>r</sup>mitt him to hoist the Kings fflag but others Said ere he will be p<sup>r</sup>mitted Soe to doe the Governour will demand Such a Security paper of him for the Security of the South Sea Navigation as our Masters President gave last year.

We dont conceive how S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas can lade either of his Masters Ships home this year without he will fill her up with cotton, Pepper and other gruff Goods of Small vallue, and less Proffitt at home.

The men of Warr are all at Suratt rivers mouth, were its thought they will remaine about one month, and then proceed to Madagascar and from thence home without (wee fear) effecting much of what they cheifly came out for.

The 10th: of Jan<sup>ry</sup>: the Northumberland Galley Sailed hence for England; the 5th: of the Past Month the Hampsheir followed, & the 17th: Ditto the Bedford, all three richly Laden their cargoes amounting to rup<sup>s</sup>: 13,15,439. The Frederick we hope to dispatch by the Last of this month, wth: a cargoe not inferiour to theirs that are gone before her, God Sending those & y<sup>e</sup>: Ships from your Side Safe to arrive our Masters, their Creditte phaps will be raised to that degree, as to cause the huffs of the Servants of their competitors Soone to vanish.

Inclosed we Send copy of our Account current wth: you as adjusted in our books, which we desire may be compared wth: yo<sup>r</sup>: books, and that you will advise whither you agree wth: us.

24th: Ditto.

We Send the List of Goods Sent us proportioning the quantity's of y<sup>e</sup>: Several Sorts you would have us contract for, is not y<sup>e</sup>: Same in all Particulars with y<sup>e</sup>: Prices affixt to y<sup>e</sup>: Several Musters wee rec<sup>d</sup>: w<sup>ch</sup>: ought to agree as two Tallys joyn'd, w<sup>ch</sup>: we humbly conceive may have been an Error in the Secretary; for w<sup>ch</sup>: reason we Send yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Coppys of Both So that for the more certainty wee have guided ourSelves by the Prices fixt to Soe many of y<sup>e</sup>: Several musters, as our merchants can be perswaded to contract upon, as by the List we herewth: Send in w<sup>ch</sup>: yo<sup>r</sup>: honour &c<sup>a</sup>: may please to observe Y<sup>e</sup> the Betteela's of 50 cov<sup>ds</sup>: on the Same muster of the 40 Cov<sup>ds</sup>: our Merchants cannot be prevailed with to undertake and their reason is that pag<sup>s</sup>: 43 the corge of 50 Coveds is not a price in proportion to pag<sup>s</sup>: 36 the Corge of 40 Coved Betteela's of the Same fineness and goodness nor Can we induce them to undertake to provide the fine Sallampores N<sup>o</sup>: 20 at pag<sup>s</sup>: 29 the Corge, nor Longcloth blue at pag<sup>s</sup>: 33  $\frac{1}{2}$  Corge, which is the price Sett by the last Sent us, w<sup>ch</sup>: wee apprehend may be a mistake because the Same list gives the like price of pag<sup>s</sup>: 33  $\frac{1}{2}$  Corge for Longcloth ordinary white Soe y<sup>t</sup>: wee have agreed upon the Longcloth muster N<sup>o</sup>: 2 at pages 31  $\frac{1}{2}$   $\frac{1}{2}$  Corge brown & must either agree wth: the Dyers or our Merchants for their dying of the appointed quantity into a deep blue, as you are pleased to order, and the like wee say for Salampours wee cannot prevaile with our Merchants to bring them to abate anything lower then the prices we have Sett down, which is one with another 2  $\frac{1}{4}$   $\frac{1}{2}$  Cent lower than the muster prices, besides the 2  $\frac{1}{4}$   $\frac{1}{2}$  Cent Land Custom and 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  Cent Dustore, upon the whole Investment and all this upon the former terms wee advis'd yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: In the meantime wee request your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: may please to hasten yo<sup>r</sup>: answer to us, to the end that if it meets with yo<sup>r</sup>: approbation we may goe on to deliver out the Broadcloth to y<sup>e</sup>: Merchants and to concurr with them by all the endeavours we can on our part, to enable them to the fulfilling and finishing this Intended Investment by the 15th: or 30th: of August next, w<sup>ch</sup>: limited time necessitates us to be Soe urgent wth: your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: for a Speedy answer, because the Merchants Say if one day is lost now it can't be retriev'd, the Season being Soe late they are also very importunate wth: us, for what remains due to them (as they Say) upon their Last contract, w<sup>ch</sup>: wee Shall know and Send your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: So Soon as the Accomptant hath adjusted and made up their Accounts which he is now with the Merchants busy about, which money when they have rec<sup>d</sup>: they promise to add of their own money, as much as may be Sufficient to engage the weavours and employ the loomes to y<sup>e</sup>: makeing all the Sorts of cloth which they oblige themselves to provide at the Severall rates & Prices wee now Send, if approv'd and confirm'd by yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: if not wee can do no more.

Againe the Said Merchants upon the Supposition y<sup>t</sup>: they and wee do contract on the Terms aforesaid doe request that one Peice, or one half peice of each Sort of y<sup>e</sup>: musters, that have been Sorted to the head musters may be Sent as for their view and y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President would be Pleased to write to Jemser Cawn that there may be no stops or hindrance in bringing in the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>, Companys Cloth from Woorian and the other Countrys to the S<sup>o</sup>:ward where they are made And Lastly that yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: would please Strictly to prohibit your Madrass Merchants or other Native Inhabitants of Madrass, not to Send here to these parts any Europe Cloth to be Sold, or any other ways to be disposed of in barter for other goods; w<sup>ch</sup>: wee pray yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: may be done, because wee have promised the Same to our Merchants as being no more then what is past and reasonable.

Wee have this day drawn upon yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: two bills of Exchange one bill for Pag<sup>s</sup>: 89 payable in 3 days after Sight, to the Worsp<sup>l</sup>: Thom<sup>s</sup>: Marshall Esq<sup>r</sup>: Judge Advocate, the other bill for pag<sup>s</sup>: 554: 26: 20 payable in Six days to M<sup>r</sup>: John Affleck Merchant for the like amount of two Sums paid into the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Comp<sup>a</sup>: Cash here, by the Deputy Governour.

Wee Serid your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Coppys of the Deputy Governours Letters to Surup Sing Governour of Chingee and to the Waccanaviss and Ramagee Gunny's relateing to the Renters that have been our Inhabitants ever Since this place was purchased by the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Comp<sup>a</sup>: of whom we Shall write more large in our next, as we have promised w<sup>ch</sup>: is all that offers on this present occasion but y<sup>t</sup>: we are always,

Our last was of the 31st : Ultimo Since w<sup>ch</sup> : haveing been hon<sup>d</sup> : wth : none from you This Serves cheifly to accompany the Bengall packquett just now rec<sup>d</sup>. and to advise yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : &<sup>ca</sup> : of the revolutions of this Country which are considerable, most or all the Sardars, and Rajahs, refusing to pay obedience to our new Nabob, and are up in Arms against him, and have Impeeded all traveling, by keeping Mettees all along the country, Soe that trade and all correspondence is at a Stand, but by our cheifs good understanding wth : the Rajahs &<sup>ca</sup> : as well as Moor's our Peons pass freely on all occasions and our cloth comes in as formerly, but neither the Dutch or any of the natives or others enjoy the priviledge or can upon the most urgent occasion Send a peon or letter a league into part of the country.

On the 18th : here happen'd a more dreadful Storme from the N<sup>o</sup> : East which lasted 3 days and did much damage to the country and the Sea was so boystrous and came in at the rate that most of the rivers overflowed, and Struck a great terror in the Inhabitants that the country would be drown'd, all vessells in the Sea along this coast were lost and many in the rivers by the force of the current and tides, and M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombes Ship Fleetwood bound for Bengall, with a large grab that was in our road, was drove a Shoar and Stav'd but thro' Gods mercy most or all the goods Saved wth: the greatest part of the wreck.

Our last to your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: was y<sup>e</sup> 25th: Xber Since which have rec<sup>d</sup>: no further advices from you therefore for the present have not much to insist on more then in brief to advise you the most materiall occurrences that have Since happen'd in relation to our huffing public minister and consull Generall S<sup>t</sup>: Nicholas Waite President for the new comp<sup>a</sup>: who arrived us the 19th: January whereupon, he begun like the rest of his fraternity on your coast thinking thro' his vanity and unbounded pride to have either by fair means or foul crusht us at once by the precipitate rash measures he took as in part confirm'd by the two enclosed relations, wherein finding himself disapointed he to this day has not been wanting in his indefatigable endeavours in doeing us all the mischeif he can possibly invent, either by means of the Government or callumnieateing our Masters and us at pleasure all which thro' our repeated good fortune has rather redounded to his own Shame then ours insomuch that wee know nott as yett wherein he has much reason to boast, but Such is his vanity that notwithstanding he Still breaths ou[t] great t[h]reats against us and that more particularly in takeing out of all Ships that any of his may meet with all English and Such more immediately as belong to us that have not his pass or protection, but by what power, or warrent unless by that of N<sup>o</sup>: 53. Recd: y<sup>e</sup>: 21st May 1700.

cousull we know not, but Such in his hautiness that therein he Seems resolute in doeing us what mischeif he can thô we are of opinion he dare not in a hostile manner attempt it however, we are makinge the necessary provision in defence of ourselves and Estates wherein we hope in Some measure at least to frust[r]ate his premeditated malice, and honourably to maintain our ground to the honour and interest of our masters if in the interim we have not the desired and wisht for news of a happy Union between the two companys, as at present by late advices arrived in y<sup>e</sup> Rook Galley, belonging to the new company, there Seems something a prospect of, by the differences on both Sides being brought in the kings absence in Holland, before the Lords Justices that at times have both Joyntly, and Separately Sent for the two companys perswadeing them to a Speedy Union So that 'twas Generally conjectured in August last when She came out that a Speedy Coalition would ensue ere the next Sessions of parliament which by overland advices wee may reasonably expect Something of a better confirmation of, which [God] Grant to the lasting honour and interest of our nation that otherwise must inevitably Suffer and be of pernicious consequences to both, in company of the aforesaid Galley, came out belonging to our Masters the Loyall Merchant that as yet with the long expected Ruby to Persia we have no advice of the Bedford and Hampshair were both rich laden and dispatch'd from Bombay time enough wee hope to Save [their] passage about the Cape, the latter the last January and former the 17th: February the Frederick is also on her dispatch hence and Should any other of our expected Shipping Speedily arrive we may very probably a little more or less be able to accomplish near one Ships lading more, whilst our adversaries for want of goods cant hardly this Season dispatch one unless it be with meer rubbish which S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas Seems resolved in rather then fail by his designing home the Norris, the Montague on freight to Persia, and Rook Galley to China, and by his working Seems almost to be in a frenzy, Sticking at nothing, whereby any ways to promote his unlimited pride and ambition, The Kings union fflagg althô on any occasion wee are well assured he cant protect it, was hoisted on his house the 22<sup>d</sup> past Commodore Littleton in the Anglesey with the Hastings & Lizzard Set Sail hence the 18th past for S<sup>r</sup>: Lawrence in quest of the pirates and the Harwich Cap<sup>t</sup>: Cock he left here in order to proceed to the South Seas So farr as Malacca, and thence to meet the others at their rendezvous aforesaid, w<sup>ch</sup>: is w<sup>t</sup>: at present can call to mind worthy Your notice wee are.

P.S.—The Northumberland Galley was also dispatch'd towards our Masters in Dec<sup>r</sup>: last richly laden as indeed all our Shipping have been this year to y<sup>e</sup> comp<sup>s</sup>: great hon<sup>r</sup>: & mortification of y<sup>r</sup>: competitors.

The 24th: of January 1699/700. Wee the Subscribers being yesterday appointed by the President and Councill of Surat for affairs of the Governour and Company of merchants of London tradeing to the East Indies to deliver a letter to S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas Waite on board the Montague, we went on board the Said Ship this day and delivered it to him, as Soon as he had rec<sup>d</sup>: it and read the Superscription, he Objected against it, because his due titles as he S<sup>d</sup>: were not given him & S<sup>d</sup>: he would not read it however broke it open & find<sup>e</sup>: y<sup>t</sup>: wth in his titles were not expressed he laid it down in a passion after he had read the first Short paragraph and declared he would never read it till his due titles were given him the above Said Letter was from S<sup>r</sup> John Gayer and councill.

Then he caused the copy of a Lfe from him to the President and councill at Suratt, which he wrote them yesterday to be read w<sup>ch</sup>: was an answer to one they wrote him the day before, & an order to them to Strike S<sup>t</sup>: George's fflagg which is flying from the English choultry within the compound att Swalley.

Hee told us also that he intended to come into the hole in Ship Montague the next day and when he did come in he was resolved to Strike the abovemention'd flagg Thomas Somaster expostulated the matter with him and endeavoured to Shew him how many inconveniencies would accrue thereby not only to us the old East India Comp<sup>a</sup>: but to the Nation and to themselves, but nothing workeing to alter his resolution Thomas Somaster desired him to defer bringing in the Ship till the 26th: which request he refusing to grant, Thomas Somaster told him we must then repair to Suratt and acquaint the President and Councill with what had past, and accordingly would return with our answer.

Thomas Somaster prest S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas to Shew him his Commission of Consull Generall which he at first refused to do but at last took it out of a box that Stood by him and Shewed it us at a distance and afterwards Spread it on the table and permitted Thomas Somaster to read it the middle part of it onely excepted which requires him to aid and assist the Kings Subjects and to procure protect and maintaine all the rights and priviledges which they have or Shall require from time to time without violation or infringments upon which part he laid his two hands and covered it, but at last after much pressure permitted him to read the whole commission throughout.

THOMAS SOMASTER.
FRANCIS TERNE.

Wee whose names are underwritten being appointed by the President and council to waite on S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas Waite with a letter from them in answ<sup>r</sup>: to his and the message brought from on board the Montague by us the Mountague being just come into Swalley hole we went on board and being introduced to S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas delivered Said letter w<sup>ch</sup>: he receiveing and looking on the Superscription he Objecting Said that he was not titled according to his commission he being publick minister as well as his Majestys Consull Generall and for y<sup>t</sup>: reason would not read it, but persisted in his resolution of Striking the flagg at the English choultry at Swalley, upon which Thomas Somaster replied that if there was any defect in the Superscribing Said letter that it was his fault and not the President and Councils for that when the commission was read to him yesterday that part of publick minister did slip his observation and insisted upon Seeing the commission againe which being agreed to and S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas found Soe intitled Thomas Somaster overli[n]ed it, upon w<sup>ch</sup>: the letter was broke open and order'd to be read by M<sup>r</sup>: Lock Secretary in the presence of S<sup>d</sup>: S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas, M<sup>r</sup>: Benjamin Thewse, M<sup>r</sup>: Brooke, M<sup>r</sup>: Thomas Lucas, Thomas Somaster and Francis Terne which when done S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas was angry and called Captain Culier and told him that he Should Send for Captaine James Allison and they together with forty men to repair forthwith to the choultry and pull down immedi[ately] S<sup>t</sup>: Georges Flagg Thomas Somaster interposeing Said that it was a matter of great consequence and required mature deliberation and that for these reasons first it was the Mogulls ground and the flagg hoisted by vertue of phirmaunds from the Severall Mogulls to this time as likewise that it was contrary to the present act of parliam<sup>t</sup>: which had Setled the new and continued the old Comp<sup>a</sup>: to trade as formerly without impediment and also contrary to his commission as his Majestys publick minister and Consull Generall for Surat, which required him as such to aid and assist protect, procure, and maintaine all his Majestys subjects in the Mogulls Dominions in their rights and priviledges and that of weareing a flagg was none of the least, and againe whether it was not necessary for him to consider whether this might not be resented by the Mogull that he Should presume to Strike a flagg (which by his order was flying) without his Licence so to do, and thereby not onely bring detriment and disgrace upon the old comp<sup>a</sup>: but also upon the nation in Generall whose hon<sup>r</sup>: he came or it was intended hee Should come, to retrieve and instead of makeing his way plainer and more facile he would make it more rugged and difficult to y<sup>r</sup>: great injury of the Gentlemen of the new Comp<sup>a</sup>: who reposed a trust in him Thomas Somaster desired againe S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas not to be too hasty, but that the letter might be read againe, for as much as when it was read before the noise of Guns firing from the Montagne had hindred in Some measure the well heareing S<sup>d</sup>: letter and consequently the understanding thereof which at last he Said Should be done, but he would Shew the company how candidly he had treated us, and orderd all had passed in writing to be read which was done.

S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas was much offended that S<sup>r</sup>: John Gayer had not lodged his Lres att Suratt acknowledg[ing] him at his arrivall, it was answerd it could not be expected, Since we had no certaine advice thereof from England.

About three in the afternoon M<sup>r</sup>: George Bowcher brought a letter or Lres from Surat to S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas and further told him that we had been at the Gov<sup>rs</sup>: last night acquainting him that there was a design to take down the fflagg and that we had sent down locks barrs &c<sup>t</sup>: to the choultry in order to make opposition all which was peremptorily denyed, nevertheless S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas beleiveing it told us that if any Such thing was it being detrimentall to Kings authority and his commission and he would Send us home in irons to answer the Same.

He noted down our insignificant table expressions altho he nor those present could tell what to make of the Same, and when writ and desired to be read were denyed by the persons charged, which caused him to call the whole company for witnesses thereto.

S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas declared Severall times that he would not trifle as the Gentlemen in England concern'd in the proceedings of the two comp<sup>ss</sup>: had done, and that he was come to do business and would goe through, wth: it.

He also declared that he was commissioned by King and parliament to enquire into the debts of the old company, which power he had not resolved to have used had we given compliance with candid requests (as he called them) but Since we had not he was resolved to have us Summoned before the Governor of Surat and thereto have the true State of our accounts brought in and would require of the Governour whether any more demands were on us from any of the Subjects of the Mogull.

Captain Allison being come he repeated to him and Captain Culier, what before Said to Captain Culier alone and threatned them if they durst to refuse it, but they, requireing an order from under his hand for there So doeing, he instantly retired into his own lodging Soon, and there went about it, M<sup>r</sup>: Thomas Lucas goeing in unto him Severall times.

When the Said orders were finished S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas desired Captain Hudson and us the Subscribers to go upon the quarter deck for Sometime and he would call for us againe in less then a quarter of an hour, in which time he held a consultation, with Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Lucas, Thewse Brookes Bowcher and the two captains, we were called down and being Sea[t]ed S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas Said M<sup>r</sup>: Thomas Somaster I make you my prisoner here and you M<sup>r</sup>: Terne as being deputed in this Message, and Captaine Hudson you are likewise my prisoner for I Suppose you are here on the Same account at the Same time calling Captaine Culier Said I command you not to let these goe, or Stir out of the Ship.

Upon which was urged the right of persons in treaty, and as Such we ought to be lookt on to be, haveing at first been Sent down from Suratt, with a letter to him by order of the Generall S<sup>r</sup>: John Gayer and after haveing had conference with him were returned to Suratt, and according to his desire return'd with ans<sup>w</sup>: to his Commands and as in times of the cruellest and most bloody warres persons with power to treat have liberty on both Sides to pass and repass without Stop or hindrance but all Signified nothing we were detained.

The Commander haveing been Sometime gone & gott a Shoar att Swalley, one came into the Cabbin and told him that the fflagg was Struck at which he Seem'd extremly pleased, & wee being ready to take leave of him, were standing, but immediately came in another message the Flagg was hoisted again, at w<sup>ch</sup> he seem'd to be in a consternation, yet forced himself to Say he wo'd Send a Shoar again and have it down notwithstanding.

He was angry that the people of y<sup>e</sup>: old ffactory had not waited on M<sup>r</sup>: Thewse the day before to y<sup>e</sup>: Government, Thomas Somaster answerd that So farr as we were given to understand that y<sup>e</sup>: business of goeing there was to acknowledge him to be kings publick minister & Consull Gen<sup>l</sup>: in Suratt, & we never nor none of our people having Seen his commission thought it would have rendred us little in the Eyes of the world to have gone and in So publick manner have attested y<sup>t</sup>: of which we were not thoroughly assured.

Presented
y: 22<sup>d</sup>:
May 1700.

I do not remember to have Exchang'd any mamoodies into chekeens with M<sup>r</sup>: Harbin, or if we did 'twas an inconsiderable number, neither did all y<sup>e</sup>: dealing we ever had with him amount to half y<sup>e</sup> Summe mentioned in the Generall letter from Bombay, As for what Goods we Sold him we contracted to be paid in Gold; upon the receipt of which we made no Enquiry whose it was, or where he had it, that not being our business, and the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: money is not different from any other.

The Sugar we Sold M<sup>r</sup>: Harbin we were So farr from pressing him to take that wee had agreed to leave it behind to be Sent up to Ispahaun on account of the owners, but that he offer'd to take it, wee abateing him 10 Shahees on each bale of y<sup>e</sup>: price that we had Sold to the merchants at w<sup>ch</sup>: wee agreed to, and what he Says to his letting us have wine for Said Sugar is as false as the rest of his weak excuses for Embezelling his masters cash, for the wine is not the companys but the linguisters and I can Produce the account Stated & ballanced with him for all the wine we had in the Ship without any relation either to the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Comp<sup>a</sup>: or M<sup>r</sup>: Harbin.

On the 15th: Inst we rec<sup>d</sup>: into the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: Cash of Captain Thomas South, pagodas 550 for which we gave two bills of Exchange both of one and the Same ten<sup>r</sup>: and Date, drawn upon yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: payable in ten days after Sight to the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President. The Chamber Frigott Sailed hence the 16th: Inst: in the morning for Beng<sup>l</sup>: to which port (by his orders), he was directly bound, without touching at yo<sup>rs</sup>: as formerly advised yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: by the Deputy Governour. No: 57.

We have with all patience thus long awaited yo<sup>r</sup>: answer to ours of the 7th: currant relateing to y<sup>e</sup>: Investment which at last is come and we received yesternight but least it Should be inverted to us, as having two of yours of the 28th: March & 27th of Aprill to which we have been thus long Silent, both of them are now before us, & Shall endeavour to answer, as followeth:

To the 2<sup>d</sup>: Paragraph of that of the 28th: of March M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes on the 23<sup>d</sup>: Instant produced to us in councill, his answer to the Severall Journall entries in the Bengall books which charges or alleadges him indebted to the R<sup>t</sup> : Hon<sup>ble</sup> : Company Rupees 1992 : 12 : 3 and with his ans<sup>w</sup> : his Account Currant which makes the hon<sup>ble</sup> : comp<sup>a</sup> : indebted to him Rupees 1396 : 3 : 4 : which if right, the case is much altered & M<sup>r</sup> : Haynes as much wrong'd ; his Said answer wth : the Account Currant comes herewith.

As to the pile of papers relating to both padrees we are not very Solicitous whether they are or are not read, Since with Submission we apprehend our Selves to be prejudged, notwithstanding any matters contain'd in Said papers but this we are free to Say, as if we were to take the Sacrament, y<sup>t</sup> : far be it from us to be any waies byassed or misled by prejudice in matters of Justice and right Judgm<sup>t</sup> : which Shall alwaies be the mark of our aim according to the best of our understandings. But we must Say and tell it as a truth y<sup>t</sup> : padre Gulielmus committed a great trespass upon the laws and rules of hospitality to one as entertaind him Soe freely as Padre Paulo de Saa did at his first coming and then a meer Stranger to the place and people here but to gett out of this Argument which has held pro & con So long between yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : & c<sup>a</sup> : and us, we have on the 23<sup>d</sup> : Instant placed Padre Gulielmus as we found him before he was changed, for a better ; and is now possessed of both churches, Cuddalore and Tevanapatam ; mean time we Send yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : copy of his commission, Anno 1695 to be compared with a certificate of his, Sent to Manilla, copy of which wee likewise Send.

The preamble to our Generall Lfe to the R<sup>t</sup> : Hon<sup>ble</sup> : Company was more adapt to have been Sent by the Neptune then the Benjamin ; yet we must come to your Gate before we enter the hall thô we must confess it is no news at noonday to Say y<sup>e</sup> : Sun is rizen, which we Shall mend in our next.

Wee have not in all the Garrison a Soldier that writes So much as a tolerable hand, to assist our Secretary, for which reason we renew our request to yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : & c<sup>a</sup> : that we may be Supply'd timeously wth : Some hands to bring up the writeing work which is so much behind-hand, and prevent any failure in Sending home coppys of our consultations by the next Shipp.

The Godowns mention'd to belong to y<sup>e</sup> Dutch merchants proves to be true, as formerly advised but to Such of them as Seems to be much in arrear to the Dutch Company for which reason they have been a long time, and Still are detained at Negapatam ; and we hope to accommodate the matter in a fair and easier manner wth : Sen<sup>r</sup> : Brunt who resides at Tevenapatam for affairs of the Dutch company the Account of which we Shall advise yo<sup>r</sup> : honour & c<sup>a</sup> : by our next.

Wee have Supplied our Selves out of the Chamber Frigott, with about 40 rheam of Genoa Small paper, which is pretty good of its Sort, but Somewhat narrow at pagodas 1½ p<sup>er</sup> rheam, but we Shall want book paper Quills, Tape & c<sup>a</sup> : therefore pray we may be remembered So Soon as you are Supplied from England mean time if any of our Small paper may be usefull to you, please to advise us and we Shall Spare what conveniently wee can.

The Deputy Governour acknowledges to have receiv'd a Letter from the Honourable President dated the 9th : February last, by the hands of Captain Hugonin, reciteing the perquisites promised to be allowed Said captain and his pay to be y<sup>e</sup> : Same, equall with Captain Seaton : and a tub of punch with Some roast beef to be given the Souldiers for y<sup>r</sup> : good Service in the time of Selimon Cawns troubles concerning all which he would write me more at large after the departure of the Benjamin, which are the words that concludes that paragraph in the Sence of the latter part the Deputy Governour thought it prudent in him to Stand Still, where the honourable president Stopt, in expectation of [yo<sup>r</sup> : ] hon<sup>rs</sup> : fa[r]ther orders after the departure of the Benjamin as promised till when the paymaster was desired to keep an acco<sup>tt</sup> : of the runaway's pay till farther orders from the honourable President and it was then promised by the Deputy Governour to Captain Hugonin, that he Should have the runaways pay, from that time forward that the paymaster took an account of the Same He was likewise promised to have the like pay as Cap<sup>t</sup> : Seaton has, So Soon as the Deputy Governour was certyfyd by the Honourable President what the Same was, which his hon<sup>rs</sup> : particular letter did not mention till now that we have it in the Generall of the 28th: March to which we Shall humbly answere in its proper place & to the end that Captain Hugonin might have patience, the Deputy Governour did at the Cap<sup>l</sup>: request Speak to the paymaster and allow him the pay of an other Servant besides the one Servant that he always had allowed him So that Captain Hugonins neat pay to himself is pag<sup>r</sup>: 14 and pag<sup>r</sup>: 2 & 26: Mad<sup>rs</sup>: fanams for both his Servants, w<sup>ch</sup>: is pagodas 16: 26 ꝑ mensem, besides his perquisites which Shall now be paid him, and dead men's pay was never detained, though he Said that all was taken and thô: Cap<sup>t</sup>: Lesley that Served the Honourable Company Sev<sup>l</sup>: years here in the like post as Captain Hugonin Dos, had no more then pagodas 13: 6 fanams and one Pagoda allowed him for a Servant ꝑ mensem Tho he endeavoured for more as Captain Hugonin dos, but could never obtaine it, Notwithstanding all that has been Said Captain Hugonin could not be contented, unless he had likewise allow'd him the pay of all those that had run away hence in August and September last, thô it was agreed & ordered in Consultation that y<sup>r</sup>: pay Should be appropriated (Soe far as it could goe) to the makeing of Six silver Spoons and one Sma<sup>l</sup>: Salt, which Some whom we know had Stole out of the Buttery in July last, as we found by its being broke open in the night upon the whole and with Submission the Deputy Governour, humbly conceives for the reasons aforesaid, he hath not misregarded the Honourable Presidents Letter, and now that the Generall Letter is Soe plaine in this point, it Shall perfectly be complied with and we hope it may not [be] accounted a fault in those that are weak if they doubt in Some matt<sup>rs</sup>: not within the Horizon of their understanding, mean time we request to know whether Captain Seaton's 16 pagodas ꝑ mon: includes Servants wages or not and what yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: are pleas'd to Say that the officers are to look upon it as a favour from the Governour & not their undoubted right, yet by the continuance of it to them they expect it, as much as if the Same were their due right, with or without the Governours favour, else why Should they insist So much upon it. The Deputy Gov<sup>r</sup>: remembers that when the Generall table was taken away, and reduced to dyett money, Captain Hugonin was very earnest to perswade Captain Davis to Sign wth: him in a joint letter to the hon<sup>ble</sup>: President to have their dyett money allowed them; but Captain Davis wo<sup>d</sup>: not agree to it which thô: he was the younger man, yet Shewed himself wiser then the other and it will be found a hard matter to reduce our Souldiers to the Same pay of Yours at the Fort, which is 91 fanams and ours 100.

We Shall not Say anything in derogation to Captain Hugonin where he is praiseworthy in the time of Selimon Cawn's trouble, in w<sup>ch</sup>: he acted his part as others did, and all did very well, in w<sup>ch</sup>: time of troubles the honourable Comp<sup>a</sup>: covenant Serv<sup>ts</sup>: did by night and by day, on foot on horseback equally expose themselves to the Same danger & hazard of y<sup>r</sup>: lives as any of the [mi]llitary officers did, thô no mention has been made of them lett Captain Hugonin deny this, or prove the contrary if he can.

Herewith comes the counccills paper relateing to the [s]ortment So much complained of, to which the Deputy Governour hath little more to Say then what he hath already Said in a Gen<sup>l</sup>: Letter dated y<sup>e</sup>: 8th: of September last, to w<sup>ch</sup>: he humbly refers but observes that the contract made in Aprill 1699 with the 2 Setts of merchants to the amount of pag<sup>s</sup>: 63,000 hath not been drawn up to that exactness as to have made the prices and abatements upon the Sev<sup>l</sup>: Sorts of goods in Such proportion as they come nearer, or fall more under their respective musters, as it ought to have been done, besides in the contract their is no long Cloth under N<sup>o</sup>: 2 X below w<sup>ch</sup>: at Madrass you have N<sup>o</sup>: 1 & N<sup>o</sup>: I + & your N<sup>o</sup>: 1 is often better then 2 + here. Again the Betteelas of 40 & 50 coveds w<sup>ch</sup>: has always been both the Same price, yet in S<sup>d</sup>: contract it is not Soe as yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: may perceive by a copy Sent in our last packett.

We humbly thank yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: for the acceptance and payment of all our Bills you mention we have drawn upon you.

What yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Say as to the Ticketts of our bales being Sign'd by two or 3 hands to one and the Same bale, Shall be no more Soe for the future, which is all that is needfull for our answer to yours of the 28th: March.

To your honours &c<sup>a</sup>: of the 27th: Aprill wee doe now according to order return you the Necauds with their accounts of what paid them here as wages &c<sup>a</sup>: charges coming and goeing, w<sup>ch</sup>: we humbly conceive this place ought not to be charged with Seeing the failure was not in us, but ought to revert to Bengall.

Wee have hitherto deferr'd (not to Say Disobeyed) y<sup>r</sup>: execution of your orders upon the 3 dutch runaways; our reasons are that we believe they will never return back again to the Dutch from whom they run at first; but rather goe to Chingee, to which place one Gratian Menta a Serjant of this Garrison was run about 14 months agoe and from whence he with 12 Europeans more, we hear are lately gone away, & Enter'd themselves in the Service of Abdall Labby, the former at 50 rupees and the rest at rupees 30  $\text{p}$  mensum each or these three men may be Sent to the West Coast by the very first Ship that Shall touch here in their way thither but if these reasons does not prevaile with yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Your former orders Shall be duly obeyed, So Soon as we Shall Know yo<sup>r</sup>: mind in this matter.

It was necessity (not our choise) that made Serjeant Willson Gentlemen of the Arms, tho he is but provisionally So wherefore we request yo<sup>r</sup>: honour &c<sup>a</sup>: may be pleas'd to Send us Some person fittly qualify'd for Such a trust, that can write at least Some tollerable hand for which place we hear one Dixon wth: you, makes close application.

The business of the cheif Renters that have been our Inhabitants for Soe many years, is that they have thrown up all the countrys that they rented, upon Surup Sings hands, who has used all the ways he could (not by menacies) but by Cowls full of alluring promises of great favour and kindness to them to, to take the countrys again on the former termes; all w<sup>ch</sup>: y<sup>r</sup>: Renters could not be perswaded to beleive, nor anyways to rely on his cowls, w<sup>ch</sup>: he hath So often violated and broken So that Surup Sing was obleiged to give the Renters Good Security for the faithfull performance of his Cowl So that all matters are now fairly and fri[e]ndly accommodated and Settled between them, These renters are in Joynt Stock wth: our Companys Merchants they have houses and buildings at Pullicherry, where they may easily retire to and be welcome.

We shall write you Suddainly again an answer to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: of the 24th: Instant meantime we are now and allways.

As to the long cloth and Sallampours that have been embaled here they have been Sorted to y<sup>e</sup>: best of each of our Judgements, and wee presume Equall to y<sup>e</sup>.
 musters of this place, and tho possibly Some peices in a bale may have been lower Then y<sup>e</sup>: musters yet others have been much better as for these markt + we have no muster to Sort 'em by, but are Such as doe not come up to muster and so are [taken] in with abatement as I y<sup>e</sup>: Severall Invoices The Beteelas and Neckcloths of this place have allways been ordinary, and few of them that come up to muster and therefore the most are made + and Sometimes O and thô the Invoices mention abatement of no more then pag<sup>a</sup>: 1½ I Corge on the + as usuall, yet the Merchants are to be abated pag<sup>r</sup>: 1½ more upon the Same as I consultation of the 6th: of Aprill 1699 when the contract was made, the which will be brought to credit of account Curr<sup>t</sup>: in our Bookes The Shady Betteelas were brought to be Sorted without a Muster and we made three Sorts of them they were all taken in, because yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: were pressing for that kind of Goods, and the Worsp<sup>l</sup>: Deputy

Wee have had Severall Investments Since y<sup>e</sup>: Settling this place, but never heard That there was fault found with our cloth in England, & wee are assured, that of the last investment is as good as what formerly Sent The Worsp<sup>l</sup>: Deputy Govern<sup>r</sup>: here has been often present at our Sorting and never found fault with it, as comparing it with the musters, tho he has Said that y<sup>e</sup>: musters were not in quality, So good as those of Madras.

Winds are Set in Soe Strong that 'twill be very difficult if possible for her to proceed There was notice given of the Antilopes condition to S<sup>r</sup>: Edward Littleton the beginning of the month on which we were apprehensive that S<sup>r</sup>: Edward would have unladen the Antilope and Shipt her cargoe on the London, which might have been done early enough, to have Sent her out of the river by the 20th: Instant but Cap<sup>t</sup>: Hammond Lulld him into an opinion of the Ships Capacity to proceed, altho most of the Officers and Ships Company were fearful thereof.

In case any Ship comes up the River this Season to Rungah fullah about 400 tons Burthen, we shall bee able to lade and dispatch her by the latter end of Augst: So that our Masters may have another Bengall Ship So early as any of the new companys.

M<sup>r</sup>: Hedges hath been at Hugly with S<sup>r</sup>: Edward to consult about the Nishaan and returned again, but wee believe nothing can be done untill the Kings Phirmaund arrives, which is not likely to do them Service this Season, So that there must be a Second expence for a dustuck to doe the business for their expected shipping.

It's reported S<sup>r</sup>: Edward hath many Chests of Treasure by him, but his age fateague, and indisposition hath hitherto prevented the thoughts of giveing out Dadney, this Seasonable time of the year nor is it Discoursed of Soe that if it Pleaseth God any of our Masters Ships arrives this next month we shall be as early with our Investment as the new Comp<sup>a</sup>: we are

Our last was of the 28th: Ultimo: accompanying a Bengall packett this comes now to forward a Second and to advise the Revolutions of the country are much encreased the Nabobs & Rajahs forces haveing had many Skirmishes in which the latter has allways been victorious and have burnt and plundered almost the whole country and the Nabob now confines himselfe to the Durbar not caring to adventure himselfe in an open Engagement lest the kings forces should prove treacherous and betray him as they have done many of his predecessors, we Still continue that good correspondence with all parties mentioned in our last and have Sufferd nothing yet amid[st] all these revolutions either in our towns or trade and our Peons pass free and unmolested and all our cloth of this side Chicacull comes in as formerly but the Dutch are wholly exempted from y<sup>a</sup>: liberty, for a peon, of theirs thrusting himself among Some of ours y<sup>t</sup>: were comeing from Chicacull being discovered by the Met[taes] was taken up and carried before, Bandee jugga where he received 100 Stripes with a Chawbuck, his letters tore, and had not our people much interceeded had lost his head, the Dutch Merchants are come to our town for protection of their persons Some of y<sup>r</sup>: Rajahs forces being gone to plunder their houses & Pitts of Grain and 'tis thought in a little time they will make an attempt on the Dutch factory.

Brittaine, copy whereof accompanied our Gen<sup>l</sup>: of y<sup>e</sup>: 7th: Feb<sup>r</sup>: last, wherein I humbly begged yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: would be pleased to lay your commands on me noe further, then what I could give compliance to without plunging my Selfe into those difficulties that would infallibly prove my ruine; Yett yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: is Still pleased to continue yo<sup>r</sup>: former orders, which I can by noe means (with Safety put in execution imputed itt to bee noe other then downe right opposing the Kings authority, and besides noe man of reason can imagine that my Lord Embassadore, would Sumons any one but that Sufficent power, to chastise, the party offending according as His Excellency Shall think convenient and tho I were Soe hottly bent to give his Excellency occasion to expose me according to the deserts of any one that should Soe offend, I would faine know who would relieve me out of those troubles, or what I have to Show from yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to bear me harmless, or againe what strength can yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: imagine I have to withstand his Excellency, in Such case I should make the attempt to disobey his orders, which plainely Say againe I can by noe means doe. And as yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: is pleased to tell me that having lived abroad I should better understand the Power of a Consull; I must confess I've Resided in Countrys where there has been Gentleman of that Post, whoever was respected by English men, as his Maj<sup>ties</sup>: Minister, and one that repre[sen]ts his Royall person, his orders always meeting with due observance as farr as his Com<sup>en</sup>: reacht: & I understand the Consulls Com<sup>en</sup>: here to be of much more force then any that I ever knew before; & if either his Excellency or y<sup>e</sup>: Consull have exceeded their Power, I Suppose they will be answerable for their Actions, yett neither that nor any thing else that I could ever yett see, will bear me out in opposing either of Them.

The Goods Stopt att Maddapollam as advised in my last, are cleared upon the whole Score of faire words, and beleive Shall have noe further occasion of making use of the Rashwarr except it be on account of another Contract.

When I was Sorting the goods att Maddapollam I writt yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: of the 25th: X<sup>ber</sup>: last that I could not bee exact in Sorting by being Soe much behind, in our payments, M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell haveing paid considerable Summes to these Merchants here, on account of new Contracts, besides Pag<sup>s</sup>: 1000 to Quolloe Narsoe for provission of Golcondah Betteelaes & 900 Pag<sup>s</sup>: for Chints, all which kept me back from complying with my merchants there & as the breach of the Contract was on my Side, I must either put up Such Goods as I did, or not Send any, which I suppose would have been more disadvantage to our Masters; Yett as bad as the Long cloth is, I know the worst Ps there cost the merhc<sup>ts</sup>: 4½ Pag<sup>s</sup>: and the rest from 95 too 100 Pagodas P<sup>r</sup>Corge: however I Esteem itt an Extraordinary favour that yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: Councill will allow there was one Ps of Good cloth in the whole Pcell, not being y<sup>e</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Covenanted Servant, and a noted Gamster as they are pleased to term me.

I know not what occasion I have given yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: in my former letters, to Suspect me, Soe much inclinable to the new Comp<sup>as</sup>: Interest; except itt bee for writinge the reall truth, which I must either doe or be Silent, for I was never thought to [m]ince matters in the way of busyness, yett as long as my utmost endeavours are looked upon as bad Service, and the onely encouradgm<sup>t</sup>: nothing but complaints; I hope it may be granted me the usuall liberty of Servants, that when they cannot please one master to look out for an<sup>o</sup>: where their Service may be more acceptable; therefore humbly beg yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will be pleased to Send Some other person hither that may bee more capable of givinge consent then I am; in the Interim doe assure Yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: that I shall doe nothing but what consists wth: Hon<sup>r</sup>: and honesty both to King and Country.

According to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: orders I have acquainted the merchants that Suddainely yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will Send Supply for a large Investment, at wth: they

Seeme indifferently Satisfyed; tho not to understand that you will take noe more Gulcondah Betteelaes haveing great quantities comeing downe, and plainly tells me that if yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will not take Betteelaes according to agreement made with M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell, they doe not designe to give any Allejaes and I'm apt to beleive they will bee as good as their word, they have brought in good store of cloth which I shall not medle with till further orders I am

The foregoing is copy of what I writt returned (after 41 days absence) without any answer to our Gen<sup>l</sup>: of y<sup>e</sup>: 26th: March Soe that I am att a losse how to answer our Merchants in regard to what I then advised yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: which gives them just cause to imagine, tis onely a designe to divert them from being Employed in y<sup>e</sup>: new Comp<sup>as</sup>: Service about which they have not been a little clamorous, and to Stop their goeing to make complaints, I was forced to goe to Maddapollam using all y<sup>e</sup>: faire promisses imaginable and pack up 7 or 8 bales of Cloth much att the Same rate as before, which I very well know does not come up to y<sup>e</sup>: old muster, & I with yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: would be pleased to Send one of yo<sup>r</sup>: Councill that yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: may be Satisfyed how impossible 'tis to procure long Cloth to Come up to muster which if one goes to y<sup>e</sup>: nicety of y<sup>e</sup>: thing I am Sure a Corge cannot be purchased now for 120 Pag<sup>t</sup>: however tryall is better then report; I had noe other way then what I have acquainted Yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: to keep the merch<sup>ts</sup>: att Maddapollam from leaving us which if they had done these here would consequently have followed, they have not wanted large promises w<sup>ch</sup>: yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: is Sensible I have not been capable of Serving them in any thing else which is noe Satisfaction for Banians when they have their money lying Dormant Soe long, & See their inferiors briskly employ'd in the other Service, Soe that if they Should, or have left us & privately gone to the consull (w<sup>ch</sup>: I am jealous of) I hope that will not be layd to my charge haveing given yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: due & frequent advices wth: out receiveing any orders how to proceed, & our Merchants are Soe accustomed to promises that They will noe more regard them & have not brought in a P<sup>s</sup> of Cloth almost this month, they have provided upwards of 20 Thousand Pag<sup>a</sup>: in Cloth of w<sup>ch</sup>: about 4 Thousand is in y<sup>e</sup>: factory & y<sup>e</sup>: rest in their owne Godownes.

We have packt up ten rheam of y<sup>e</sup>: Small paper, bought of captain South in May last, which we Send that by this ship, beleveeing you may have occasion for it; & Captain Rouse hath of his own about 45 rheam of Severall Sorts, to dispose of; but promises yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Shall have the first refusall for which reason we have not bought any of him here.

Yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: of y<sup>e</sup>: 24th: May to this place hath not much in it for us to answer, it being yo<sup>r</sup>: to us for y<sup>e</sup>: clearing & explaineing Some mistakes as to y<sup>e</sup>: price of the Severall musters &c<sup>a</sup>., we advised yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: in our Gen<sup>l</sup>: letter of y<sup>e</sup>: 7th: that month, touching y<sup>e</sup>: present Investment agreed & concluded on y<sup>e</sup>: 14th: past by w<sup>ch</sup>: our Merch<sup>ts</sup>: are obliged to bring in & deliver to y<sup>e</sup>: warehousekeeper by the 15th: September next  $\frac{3}{4}$  of y<sup>e</sup>: whole contracted for & y<sup>e</sup>: whole Investment to be brought in and finished, at or before y<sup>e</sup>: 15th: October next, & wee could not prevaile with our Merchants to promise y<sup>e</sup>: compleating y<sup>e</sup>: Same in a Shorter time (as wee formerly advised) by reason yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: answer to ours of y<sup>e</sup>: 7th: May last for yo<sup>r</sup>: approbation, was to long delayed, as that it was y<sup>e</sup>: 28th: of that month, before we rec<sup>d</sup>: y<sup>e</sup>: Same.

We have gott ready at Boomepollam, upwards of 60000 billet wood, which Shall encrease to as great a quantity more, as wee can.

On all occasions I have not been backward in giving yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: the needfull advise as to occurrence in these parts, without being favoured with any from yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Since y<sup>e</sup>: 26th: March by which I plainly See y<sup>e</sup>: Im'e not Esteemed worthy of y<sup>e</sup>: Service, and is but a Small help to this unsavory way of liveing where I am destitute of all manner of necessarys tho never Soe indisposed, without daring to make use of my Countrymen here, for my healths Sake, least I should be counted treacherous, & now Gentlemen I must make bould to tell you that I am ready to give a just account of what was left under my charge to whatever you may think fitt to order, expecting to be considered for my losse of time Since the 1st february last (that the Benjamin sayled hence) as allsoe to bee reimbursd of what I have layd out on y<sup>e</sup>: charges of both ffactoryes & to bee noe longer under Soe Severe a confinement, for as Supposeing my Selfe to bee a free borne English Subject I hope I may take the liberty to Look after my wellfare as I Shall think convenient for my most advantage, which I beleive may be done without y<sup>e</sup>: breach of either Honour or honesty of which I will never be guilty of as hard as yo<sup>r</sup>: honour &c<sup>a</sup>: is pleased to Judge me which I can boldly Say has been without y<sup>e</sup>: least reason, & is y<sup>e</sup>: oonly thing I have gained in these two yeares Service Excepting a litle Experience which will not neare ballance the trouble that has all along tended this business without giving yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: the least content; and my old distemper the Gout growing upon me in Such a manner in y<sup>e</sup>: Country that I am not capable of acting in any affaire therefore am designed to goe home wth the Tankerville Captaine Newnam command<sup>r</sup>: my old acquaintance where my passage will cost me nothing & y<sup>e</sup>: fittest for one in my poor Condition; he arrived here about 14 days agoe he Sayled from Cowes on y<sup>e</sup>: 27th: Jan<sup>ry</sup>: in Comp<sup>te</sup>: of the Howland these 20 I Suppose is wth: you before this, here is allsoe arrived y<sup>e</sup>: Soomers who parted from Plim<sup>o</sup>: y<sup>e</sup>: 25th: February he tells me the Colechester lost her mainmast 100 leagues west of Seilly & put into Plim<sup>o</sup>: to refitt and the Thornton homeward bound run a Shoar in Penwrin Bay but knows not what loss she sustain'd, an Embargoe was laid on Ship Anna on the downes for Captaine Bridges Sayleing the last Voyage contrary to the act of navigation, and allsoe that the King William had lost her foremast in this chanell & was put into Plim<sup>o</sup>: this is the account I have from these Gentlemen which I heartily wish may not prove true, both these Ships are come very rich and betwixt them have already landed here 114 Chests of Silver & one of Gold.

I have of late been twice att Maddapollam being sent for both times in great hast to M<sup>r</sup>: Rowland who was more likely for death then anything else and is often taken with convulsions is here now very Sickly and is very desirous to be remov'd.

I have not else to add but my often repeated request that I may be favoured wth: an answer and kept noe longer in Suspence which will not a litle oblige.

We shall in as much as is possible for us, conform ourselves to y<sup>e</sup> : actuall obedience of what required by our R<sup>t</sup> : Hon<sup>ble</sup> : Masters, in their Generall Letter to this place, which we Shall mention more large, in our next addresses to their Hon<sup>r</sup> : intended by the first returning Ship from the Port, Soe farr as the Same relates to frugallity & retrenching of charges, y<sup>e</sup> : consideration of which long Since was y<sup>e</sup> : main motive & cheife reason that prevailed with us, to reduce the excessive charge of our Gen<sup>l</sup> : table to the more moderate expence of Dyett money that we are now at, which at first seemed displeasing to yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : beleaving it a derogation to y<sup>e</sup> : Hon<sup>ble</sup> : Comp<sup>a</sup> : as not being represented by a Gen<sup>l</sup> : table ; & yett we See y<sup>e</sup> : Auditor-Generall complains of haveing bought a new Garden, tho the late Deputy Governour upon Such like former complaint, Sold that Garden w<sup>ch</sup> : was the Companys we haveing then two & now no more than one, which we humbly conceive we cannot well be without, and that because it is a convenient place for the Deputy Governour to receive the visitts & complements of the Severall officers and Country Governours petty Subidars, Avaldars &c<sup>a</sup> : that frequently (upon their occasions) pass through our bounds, and in their way Send their Servants to offer their visitt to the Deputy Gov<sup>r</sup> : in the Fort ; which in point of Government wee think neither to be convenient or prudent too often or easily to admitt Such Straingers (under pretence of friendship) to view & Survey our Strength fewness of soldiers especially our Europeans, & to see our nakedness and weakness of our hands besides it's scituation in a fair open plaine, makes it very convenient for any of the hon<sup>ble</sup> : companyes Servants to remove to, for change of air at any time when they are Sick or ill, which may greatly conduce to the recovery of their health : Wee give this present answer to the end yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : may be pleased not to determine this matter against us, in your Generall letter home to the R<sup>t</sup> : hon<sup>ble</sup> : Comp<sup>a</sup> :

The failure of broadcloth from England, contrary to what we expected, hath been a great disapointment to us, because according to our agreement with our Merchants we were to give them the contracted quantitys first of all for them to have disposed off in time, by which means we would have filled their hands and stopt their mouths, untill your Hon<sup>r</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : had leasure and the monsoon changed, to have Sent us the money payment either in pag<sup>s</sup> : or Dollers at the price currant However our Merchants are not sorry for the disapointment of the Broad cloth, but onely that they had sold what they had in their hands before this news came.

We have about the beginning of this month in persuance to yo<sup>r</sup> : Hon<sup>r</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : orders given to both comp<sup>as</sup> : here & at Cuddalore, to each a whole cow, to be either roasted or boyled as themselves pleased best, with a proportionable quantity of Biskett to all the Severall Soldiers with a Sufficient quantity of Punch of Coylon Arrack to each Company being given them on their Severall freegaurd days, all which was performed with great moderation & good order, & all well Satisfied.

The Councill who were the Sorters of y<sup>e</sup>: Cloth of y<sup>e</sup>: former Investment Say they have noe further to offer at present untill yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Affairs gives leasure to answer what they have already wrote on the Subject matter of y<sup>e</sup>: Sortiment which yo<sup>r</sup>: Generall Letter Seems to promise.

We have formerly advised your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: that we have not any fitting person to make Gentlemen of the arms.

The report we had from Chingie and Arcott, which still continues and is daily confirm'd is that Dow'd Cawn is coming into these parts, with whom Some Say his brother Seliman Cawn comes allsoe, the certainty of which we Shall better know in a few days more, being in dayly expectation of hearing further in this matter from our Spyes abroad meantime Jemser cawn with his son Ibram cawn are gone in the head of 200 horse to assist Mangomah (a tributary Princess to the Mogull) against Eccoge.

We sent your hon<sup>r</sup>: the list given unto us by Captain Hugonin and Captain Davis of what arms and flints are required as necessary to supply our Garrison with.

We shall give Mollem due credit here for the pagodas 472: 33 fanams paid by y<sup>e</sup>: Honourable President into the R<sup>t</sup>: Honourable Companies Cash, and debt your account for the same.

We have on the 16th: Instant entertain'd to assist our Secretary and other usefull writeing work, one Nicholas Audney, a young man well versed in the Theory of Navigation, as well as the practick part, which he hath attained to by the improvement he hath made in two Voyages from England to India, he writes a good hand; we have not made any conditions with him any more then to allow him dyett money, lodgeing and washing, unless his constant and ready assistance in writeing work should make us think him worthy of a small gratuity at the time he goes away, which may be in December or January next, when Shipping will be coming in, and going out, his mind being wholly bent to the sea he came on the Colchester, and obtained the Captains leave to Stay, and was accordingly cleared from the ship you will see his hand writeing by the coppys of our present contracts, made with both Setts of Merchants which should have been sent sooner but for the reasons formerly advised your hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>:

The Auditor-Generall charges Gunn<sup>r</sup>: Emmed with a debt of pag<sup>a</sup>: 9: 6 which seems to have followed him from the west coast hither; we request the extract of that entry may be Sent us, as it stands in the west coast books, Coppys of which are with you at the Fort, the better to know the reason on which the said debt is grounded Gunner Emmed desiring the same.

What long cloth the Merchants have brought in, which is yet but upwards of 300p<sup>a</sup>: & is now at washing, proves to be a good substantiall close wove cloth, better then any they formerly brought in, they have quantitys a coming on the roads, and therefore we shall want all manuer of good packing Stuff, especially fine twine and waxcloth; we are allsoe in great want of Bees wax, of which now we have none, and likewise good paper for our Consultations, and Gen<sup>n</sup>: Books of Accounts with all which we hope you are now supplied sufficiently & to spare.

We have the better to encourage our Merchants given them two bills of Exchange drawn on yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: both of them dated the 29th: Instant Viz<sup>t</sup>: To Viabo Chittee &c<sup>a</sup>: Merchants one bill of pag<sup>a</sup>: 6666: 24 payable to their order at eight days sight; the other Bill for Pag<sup>a</sup>: 3333: 12 payable at six days sight to Eram Rauze &c<sup>a</sup>: or their order M<sup>r</sup>: Ingrams indisposition and illness, whose recovery hath been doubted, and now we can but hope the best, is the cause he does not sign this Letter, as he hath not to any of the Bills of Exch<sup>a</sup>: aforementioned. It is now the last day of this month and the ballance of our Cash remaining when the Garrison is paid off, will be Pag<sup>s</sup>: 568 : 13 : 3 which is needfull at present, but that we are with all due respect.

August 2<sup>d</sup> m<sup>o</sup>:

This morning past by a large shipp with French Colours bound for Pollicherry what news she brings we shall advise thereof Soe Soone as we receive it.

Our last to this was of y<sup>e</sup>: 31st: past, Since which on the 4th: Instant we rec<sup>d</sup>: yours of y<sup>e</sup>: 1st: of y<sup>e</sup>: Same, acknowledgeing ours of y<sup>e</sup>: 17th: past, Sent by the Colchester, in which your hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: were not pleased to take any notice of y<sup>e</sup>: main point of Amer Johns Embassie to y<sup>e</sup>: camp y<sup>e</sup>: extravagant expence of which & C<sup>a</sup>: in y<sup>e</sup>: bulk (to our great amazement of So great a Load) is charged to this place, and therefore we continue our former request, as mentioned in Said Letter of y<sup>e</sup>: 17th: past.

The good news yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: were pleased to advize, was very welcome and acceptable to us; yet the King Williams treasure falls much Short of what Cap<sup>t</sup>: South reported it to be, which was 100 Chests.

We have on the 10th: Instant rec<sup>d</sup>: into y<sup>e</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Cash, of y<sup>e</sup>: Deputy Governour pag<sup>a</sup>: 219: 24 for which we have drawn on your honour & C<sup>a</sup>: a Bill of Exchange at five days Sight, payable to Mr. Roger Braddyll at Fort S<sup>t</sup>: George.

Here have past by on the 11th: Ins<sup>t</sup>: to Pullicherry Road, three French ships, the two largest being men of Warr, and the other their comp<sup>ss</sup>: Ship they have brought out cloth, Corral and Silver, but to what amount we doe not yett well know: & on the 13th: following Mons<sup>r</sup>: Champmorot come here, & brought a Letter to the Deputy Governour from the Directore Generall Martine, who is now advanced to the Honour and Title of being made the Kings Governour of Pullicherry, which he was not before: by the translate of whose Letter and the narrative of the five men that came along with Mons<sup>r</sup>: Champmorot your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will underst<sup>d</sup>: the unhappy loss of our Hon<sup>ble</sup> Masters Ship the Rubie, on the Island of Mayotta; and yesterday the other 7 men of them came here from Pullicherry and the Deputy Governour hath taken their narrative apart by themselves, before they came in company with y<sup>e</sup>: five men that came along with Mons<sup>r</sup>: Champmorot as aforesaid, to which papers we referr your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>:

The news of Dowd Cawns comeing into these parts, is confirmed to us: He Setts us his Staff at Arcott, as the place of his Residence, but Surup Sing Governour of Chingie, stands fixt as he is: We think to withdraw our Spyes from Arcott it being much nearer to your parts to have advices thence, than to us, which charge we would refrench; meantime we have ordered them to send your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: all needful advices, during their Stay there.

A Peon belonging to our Joynt stock Merchants of Cuddalore, is arrived this afternoon from Wooriarpollam, and brings the ill news of y<sup>e</sup>: towns being surprized, burnt down and quite destroyed by one Narsapa, a Cheife Minister to Mangama, and the Wooriar himselfe with his family narrowly escapeing, are fled and hid themselves somewhere in the Woods if this proves true as related, we fear our Merchants that provide Cloth there may be loosers, the certainty of which we shall better know in a little time more, and probably before we shall seal this letter.

We shall give an answer to your letter of the 10th: Instant rec<sup>d</sup>: this day, soe soon as we shall have discoursed our Merchants concerning what quantity of bales we may depend upon for, to the time you require.

We pray you to send us a copy of Gunner Emmeds debt as entered in the West coast books may be sent us; we have desired the same in our last of the 31st: past.

We request your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: to lett us know what you think fitt to order concerning any to be sent to Pullicherry, to complement that Governour upon the occasion of his new title of honour to whom their King hath sent a new Coat of Arms, and whether your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: intend they shall goe hence, or to be sent directly and immediately from Fort S<sup>t</sup> George which last, we humbly conceive to be best the like we say concerning the Heer Comens when he comes to Porto Novo, at which place he is to stay above some 8 or 10 days, and thence proceeds to Pullicate, where he is to stay till Christmass next as we hear; which is needful at present untill we write to you again, which may be soon after this We are with all respect.

The cheife mate orders y<sup>e</sup>: men to work, the Capt: comes nigh, sent his yaul on board for treasure to be sent which is accordingly done.

The men goe on shore Some of y<sup>e</sup>: men land. The land is found to be Mayotta. All y<sup>e</sup>: men come on shore the treasure all so & is divided.

72 men goe for Johanna they send y<sup>e</sup>: boat back for y<sup>e</sup>: capt. and y<sup>e</sup>: rest but he

Having left England about 4 months we made land on the 14th: of September about 5 in the morning supposing it to be the Island of Johanna and sailed all day along shore for attaining the place having a very fair and easie gale of wind and to gett ourselves in readiness for to come to an anchor we hoisted out our boats about 4 in the afternoon, and sent y<sup>e</sup>: yaul out a sounding with the fourth mate in it but before she could come to us we struck upon a rock that lay to the westward of the Island being about five in the afternoon upon this the Cap<sup>t</sup>: ordered a stream anchor to be carried out a stearn thinking to heave her of again but before they could gett ready the tide fell soe low that there was not water enough for the boat to goe about 7 a clock the Captaine seeing there could be no good done began to look about for his own Safety and soe took the pinna[ce] and Yaul and left the Ship Carrying with him only 3 mates and a few men to row not soe much as the cheife mate knew of his going but still he ordered us to work and to endeavour to gett the ship off next flood about 10 a clock at night the cap<sup>t</sup>: comes nigh the ship ordering the Yaul to goe aboard to fetch the best of his Things & Sends Commands to the Cheife mate and Purser to break open the Treasure in y<sup>e</sup>: bread room they obeyed his orders and Sent him it by the boat what y<sup>e</sup>: quantity was noe one can tell it. being done privately the captain having received it goes and keeps at a greater distance the men workt all this while till the water came as high as the main, hatchway saw the ship could not be sav'd and seeing the long boat was not sufficient to carry the men, the gunner made a shift to call to the cap<sup>t</sup>, being jest in sight desireing him to lend the yaul to save some of the men, expecting the Ship every minute to Split but denyed her and went out of sight bidding us to make the best we could of the long boat then the cheife mate ordered the men to take arms and gett as many as could in the long boat he himselfe going along with them (leaveing the Purser and 72 men on board made the best of our way towards the shoar and when we were nigh it we saw the captain who perceiving us to be weary (it being very hott) towd us with his pinnace as soon as we landed the boat was sent on board for the rest but inquiring what land it was we were told that twas the Island of Mayotta at last the boat came on shoar and after severall times going off brought to our knowledge 24 baggs of Dollers and some peices of Cloath but was all damnified the cap<sup>t</sup>: took 8 of the baggs and the purser 3 and y<sup>e</sup>: rest was divided amongst the men every-ones Share came to 125 dollers.

After 12 days stay the ship being broke (twas by the Captains [order] given to y<sup>e</sup>: King of y<sup>e</sup>: Islands) 72 men went for Johanna and arrived there in 24 hours and sent the boat back for the Capitaines, and the rest who embark't, but he and severall more dyed in y<sup>e</sup>: passage but the boats arrived safe (having been 10 days at sea onely the long boat was staved going in,

When the boats came on shore the Purser took charge of all the captains money and goods and after he had stayed about 7 months he with two [s]cooners one woman and three more went for Muskat in a French Sloop about 14 tons that was taken by the men being a pirate about 2 mon<sup>o</sup>: after the doctor and some more bought a country Junck and went for the same place too at last two French men of war coming in the beginning of July we gott our passages upon them to Pullicherry we finding our own provisions all y<sup>e</sup>: way the boatswaine and eight more remains there supposing an English Ship may come the rest of the men being dead.

and several died by y<sup>e</sup>: way at last the boat arrived. The purser goes for Muskat.

This is the fullest account we can give of the ship Ruby to the best of our knowledge to which we set our hands.

We further call to mind and say that we stay'd about 12 hours in the ship after she struck but after the soldiers were once came on shore they were not permitted to goe on board againe but the sailers went daily as they pleased.

We received yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: of the 7th: Currant by the King William the 16th: with packett and treasure according to List & Invoice likewise took out 150 piggs of lead and shall as soon as we have conveniences of weighing the same give you Credit for it at 6 $\frac{1}{4}$  P Candy tho it is at present sold for 5 $\frac{1}{4}$  She sailed from Vizagapatam the 17th: in the morning.

M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston having informed us that he beleived the Generall Letters diaries &c<sup>a</sup>: were in the Madapollam Cash Chest wee sent for the Chest and broke it open before his face but found nothing in it which he seemed to admire at and told us he had likewise a desk and a Trunk of M<sup>r</sup>: Lowells wee desired him to send them to us he promis'd he would in two or 3 days he comes to us and told us he had found the papers in Lovells Desk but could not deliver them to us pretending they were the only things must justifie him at Madrass he alledges the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company are indebted to him for his dyett and M<sup>r</sup>: Rowlands and other expences since the time his Commission ceased wee told him if he would give us an account wee would remitt it yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: but wee hear he has taken a better security having removed one of the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: bales out of Madapollam Factory and put it in possession of the new Comp<sup>a</sup>: wee demanded of him the reason of his Incloseing the Nabobs Letter to M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell his answer was that having sent the Generall Books to him he thought it convenient to send the Nabobs Letter likewise he has so often prevaricated with us that wee have little belef in what he says and beleive wee shall meet with trouble in getting him to Madrass tho at present he seems to be willing for wee are informed both he and Noden are in the new Company service.

Wee have used our best endeavours with the merchants to bring them to reason they alledge that M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell alwayes sorted to muster that they are the same goods now as then and tho they could not denie but that there was difference in the finess of the cloth yet the goodness of the Chay made amends for that, wee have Embaled about eight or nine thousand Pagodas and doe daily Embale more or less but find none come to muster and therefore have put them under Number 2 and 3 at which they continually make a Clamour saying M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell took the same Goods to the first Number wee have not as yet agreed upon the abatement but the hope to bring it proportionable to the want of goodness wee likewise found severall peices of cloth wanting in length some one coved some two which we turn'd out at which the Merchants were very angry telling us M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell took such in M<sup>r</sup>: Noden being in the factory wee inquired of him who told us that M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell had turned out severall Goods for want of length but did afterwards take them in on what consideration he cannot tell wee have examin'd the Bookes and cannot find any abatement on such acco<sup>t</sup>.

In our last wee forgett to acquaint your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: that on our first arrivall wee demanded of the Factory bramins acco<sup>t</sup>: remains who told us that M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell had taken it from him and cut it to peices and Woolston hearing he had preserved a Copy took that from him too.

On the 15th instant wee went to visit the Governour Hage Mamud Shake and the Wackaenesse who all received us very kindly the Governour gave us his cowle promised us his assistance and dismiss us wth: a small Tasheref to each.

On the 15th Instant the Embassador went on board ship Summers thô mightily importuned by the Government and Munsubdard from the Camp to take his Journey from hence to which hee would by no means agree to, being possest with an Opinion as wee are informed that your Honour had feed all the petty Govern-ments he was to pass through to hinder and impede his journey; he sailed for Surrat the 23.

Wee found the factory in a miserable Condition and not a place hardly to keep ourselves dry in the upper rooms, the lower rooms not only godowns but lodgings fill'd with grain that in some places it had burst the Walls, by the Moderatest Computation a hundred pagodas will not make good the damage if your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: designs its reparation with submission wee think it would be the cheapest and best way to send six Carpenters and as many bricklayers from the fort, for tis very dear here 3 fan<sup>a</sup>: each a day and noe constancy in their work but hurried away sometimes two or 3 times a day by the Government.

On the 24th Instant M<sup>r</sup>: Frewen and Narrain went for Madapollam and carried ten thousand Pag<sup>a</sup>: with them and six soldiers to guard it, wee have not else to Inform yo<sup>r</sup>: Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: at present but to subscribe ourselves.

TRADEING TO THE EAST INDIES ON THE COAST OF CHORMANDELL WEST COAST OF SUMATRA &C<sup>a</sup>:

Gentlemen

Wee received yours to us dated the 27th Feb<sup>ry</sup>: last & have also by us a Copy No: 78.
of what you wrote the Generall and Councill the day before. Recd: 11th
Sep<sup>r</sup> 1700.

Wee are in expectation of our Acco<sup>t</sup>: with your presidency from the year 1682 which you are pleased to promise.

Wee will send you seeds of all sorts by the first fitt Conveyance.

The Ambassador & Consull Pitts proceedings seem unaccountable to us, we find they are all of [a] peice & will stick at nothing to prejudice our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters, but your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: and the Gentlemen at Bengall can better deal with them then we because you are your owne masters at large, are not under the scandal of pyracry nor indebted to the natives; whereas wee are subject to those evils, we inclose a Copy of a protest which we sent our worthy Consul the sixth by which you will see how he has acted with us, wee are resolved to oppose him to our utmost & we may Phaps be hard enough for him: he is reduced to great streights for money to Carry on his Employers affaires & offers to borrow it of the Shroffs but they care not to trust him; he sent home the Norris laden with such trash as wee beleive never went from Suratt before, the Mountague for want of a cargo he was forced to send to Persia on freight & the Rook Galley to be out of the way he sent to China upon a sleeveless errand to cruise for pirates, that Galley wee are informed brought out no more than two Chests of money & no goods so that it seems his masters at home are under a great necessity as he is, wee have great hopes that if a Union between the two Companys doth not happen before the arrivall of our Masters Ships in England from your Coast and ours that were dispatcht last season the new Company will receive a great blow and our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Employers interest will be much advanced.

Wee inclose a Pacquett from the Generall &c<sup>a</sup>: wee doubt not but they have wrote you what news they had by the Loyall Merch<sup>t</sup>:
Wee shall not add at present but remaine.

Rec<sup>d</sup> 11th
Sep<sup>r</sup> 1700.

Our last to you was by the Greyhound sloop, dated the 5th: of March, yo<sup>rs</sup>: on the 26th: Feb<sup>r</sup>: wee received the 17th Instant with all papers mention'd to be inclosed, for which wee give you thanks.

By M<sup>r</sup>: Jn<sup>o</sup>: Pitts paper to you wee p<sup>er</sup>ceive that he acts, as proud, & Vainly as S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas Waite doth at Suratt: Coppy of his Letter to us, as he Past by this port, & our answer to him is inclosed, since he hath not wrote us any Gen<sup>l</sup>: Letter, but gives President Colt all the trouble that his mallice can invent, tho<sup>o</sup> he hath not been able yet to effect any obstruction in our M<sup>rs</sup>: affairs, but hath endustriously endeavoured it, by repeated Callumnies, and false suggestions, the which producing not the effect, he expected, hath throwne him into a frenzy.

Wee are glad that the means used to stop your Goods at Metchlepatam, proved so ineffectuall.

Wee are heartily concern'd for the loss of the East India Merchant.

From Agent Beard &c<sup>a</sup>: wee received a letter dated y<sup>e</sup>: 30th: of Xber, wherein he wrote us that twas probable the Antelope might saile for England in March but they advised us nothing relateing to the Degrave.

Wee heartily wish the Benjamin a prosperous Voyage, and safe arrivall with our Masters. Strict search shall be made for the Atcheen Contract, here & att Suratt: but our Registry is very imperfect, vast quantitys of papers being destroy'd in the Warr.

Wee are much concern'd for your losses at Atcheen, and Burneo &c<sup>a</sup>: and for the bad news that you have from Mallacca, & the Portugeze Ship, if it proves true wee must expect to be again involved, in a labrinth of trouble.

Your letter arrived too late for us to send you any wheate this year, but wee supposed you would be sufficiently supplied by a ship that is freighted by Armenians att Suratt, & is gone from thence to your Port, almost laden with that grain.

Your Pacquet for the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Comp<sup>a</sup> arrived too late to goe by the Frederick, or by way of Persia, but wee will forward it by the first conveyance that offers.

Wee did about 3 months before receipt of your letter write M<sup>r</sup>: Owen to remitt all his worship Barwell's effects to his Administrators Attourney, as soone as he received his orders, and we will repeat our orders by the next conveyance.

Comodore Littleton in the Anglesey with the Hastings and Lizard sailed hence the 25th March bound to S<sup>t</sup>: Lawrence, & Cap<sup>t</sup>: Cock in the Harwich sail'd hence the 2<sup>d</sup> instant: bound as reported to China, or some other part in the South Seas.

The Frederick sailed hence for England the 11th instant, her cargo amounts to rup<sup>s</sup>: 559179: 42<sup>pice</sup>: so that wee have sent home by four Ships this year to the amount of rup<sup>s</sup>: 1874618: 42 pice.

The 21st of March here arrived before this Port the Rook Galley in the Service of the new Comp<sup>a</sup>: her Commander told us, that the 18th of August, he sailed out of the Downes in Comp<sup>a</sup>: of the Loyall Merchant a Rich Ship in our Masters Service, bound to this Port, but as yet wee hear nothing further of her, nor the Ruby: we had no new News from our M<sup>rs</sup>: by the Frederick, concerning the likelihood of a Union between the two Companys neither have wee received any fresh advices from them, overland, nor by the Rook Galley, but Jn<sup>o</sup>: Gayer received a letter from a Private Gentlemen by that Ship, wherein it's wrote that all men did conclude that the two Companys would be united, ere the Parliament mett, and S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas Waite gives out, that he beleives, they are united.

The Cargoes of the new Comp<sup>a</sup>: 3 Ships to this side India hath been magnified to a vast height, but at last according to the best estimation that can be made of them, they dont exceed rup<sup>s</sup> 1100000, the Norris full laden with a very ordinary Cargo, & that dear bought, sailed from Suratt Rivers mouth for England about the 6th or 8th instant & wee beleive, wee saw her off this Island the 12th: the Mountague is gone on freight to Persia, & the Rook Galley to China, but whether on a Publick or private Acco<sup>t</sup>: wee dont yet hear.

Wee have no Account yet of the arrivall of S<sup>r</sup>: William Norrice at Court: S<sup>r</sup>: Nicholas Waite hath hoisted the Kings Flagg on the new Comp<sup>t</sup>: Factory at Suratt, which none before him, would ever venture to doe, for that they could not secure it from the rage, and fury of the Moore's; he hath not been able yet, to get our M<sup>rs</sup>: of S<sup>t</sup>: George Struck, tho his utmost efforts have been used to effect it, concerning w<sup>ch</sup>: wee presume he hath wrote S<sup>r</sup>: William Norris & is, as we hear in hopes to accomplish it, by means of his interest at Court, being resolved as he said to humble us, he sent Cap<sup>t</sup>: Allison Comander of the Norrice with his Long boat full of armed men, to take a small Vessell that President Colt & Councill was sending to the Gulph of Mocho, whereon was an Embassador that came hither from the King of Abbasseigne, & he had certainly taken her, had not Comodore Littleton, who was at the rivers mouth, at the same time interposed his authority: he hath alsoe given orders to Cap<sup>t</sup>: Simons Comander of the Rook Galley, to take a Ship called the Success that President Colt, and his Councill wth: some others have sent to China but wee beleive the Cap<sup>t</sup>: will be wiser then to obey such ord<sup>rs</sup>: he threatneth also to take all our private Shipping that trade without his Pass; he calls President Colt & Councill traitors threatneth to deliver them up to the Moores, to satisfie their rage, on News of any of the South Seas Fleet, being taken by the Pirates, and Confined one of his Councill, with Cap<sup>t</sup>: Hudson, and another Gentlemen when they were sent with a Message to him, on board the Mountague, threatning to Carry them home in Irons, by which he appears more like a Madman than a publick minister.

Wee can now expect no fresh advices from our Masters till the Raines are past, except wee receive them from you, which wee shall earnestly expect in July.

Wee hope your Honour & c<sup>a</sup>: will Pardon the Trouble of this because wee wo<sup>d</sup>: No: 80
be gladly resolved in a thing w<sup>ch</sup>: seems to us of Importance to our R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters affaires here, knowing not how soon there may be occasion to make use of the military of this place to defend it, & Therefore Think it necessary, that wee know in whom that Power does lye, whether in the Worsp<sup>n</sup>: Deputy Governour alone to dispose (w<sup>ch</sup>: by his words and actions he has challenged to himself) or if not in him joyn'd with his Councill. Wee know the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President Reed: 12th:
Do:

Hattsell issued all orders to y<sup>e</sup>: soldiery from himself & Councill and such has been the use here, and y<sup>e</sup>: Comissions that wee have seen doe direct soe. Wee had a mind to be satisfy'd wheth<sup>r</sup>: Leiv<sup>t</sup>: Davis was of y<sup>e</sup>: like Tenor, but the Worsp<sup>n</sup>: Deputy Gov<sup>r</sup>: Refused us the satisfaction, aserting as aforesaid that it belonged to himselfe onely.

Wee think wee have Reason to desire to be Directed by your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: in y<sup>e</sup>: Case & that which has made us to hasten our address about it, at this time is because Leiv<sup>t</sup>: Davis did by Direction of the Worsp<sup>n</sup>: Deputy Governour on Friday the 30th: August attempt to arrest and Confine M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu, Comanding y<sup>e</sup>: Soldiers to stop and lay hold on him, wth: they did but he gott<sup>t</sup> away from them and on the 2<sup>d</sup> Instant a Councill being called, M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu complained of Liev<sup>t</sup>: Daviss offering to confine him, whereon it was desired that Liev<sup>t</sup>: Davis might be called and askt why he did soe, but the Worsp<sup>n</sup>: Dep<sup>ty</sup>: Governour was pleased to deny that Request, saying he had ordered him soe to doe, with all alledging his Reason for soe doing was, because M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu had bin Troublesome to him in his lodgings, by a haughty and Disrespectfull Carriage, (which if true, none of us offer in the least to excuse him for), but he wholly deny'd the allegation & no proof was offer'd of the same.

Thus much wee can say, that such manner of Proceeding against any of the Councill has never been offer'd by the late Presid<sup>t</sup>: M<sup>r</sup>: Hattsell, and what makes it seem to us the more odd, is, that severall days agoe a question was Prest by Leiv<sup>t</sup>: Davis to M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu in Presence of some other Company, whether if it sho<sup>d</sup>: soe fall out that the Worsp<sup>n</sup> Deputy Governour sho<sup>d</sup>: singly of himself order the Officer of the Gaurd to arrest or seize one of y<sup>e</sup>: Councill, if such officer must not obey? and it was answered in the negative by M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu, who likewise said he might be quickly resolved if he won'd but looke into his own Commission, and y<sup>t</sup>: sho<sup>d</sup>: it happen that upon such a bare order the Officer of the Guard sho<sup>d</sup>: attempt to arrest or confine him he thought he was not oblig'd to submit to it soon after this, the Worsp<sup>n</sup>: Deputy Governour Threatned M<sup>r</sup>: Cranwell with Confinement telling him likewise that the Millitary was soly at his Comm<sup>d</sup> and disposeall.

On some Reports not long since of Surrop Sings being likely to Trouble us: what came to knowledg was advertised to the Worshipfull Deputy Governour when it came to his hands, their were of the Councill near him in the Fort and Thereabouts, but he was not pleased to send to them but Dispatcht Leiv<sup>t</sup>: Davis away wth: a Party of men to the extent of the bounds, nor had Leiv<sup>t</sup>: Davis as he has own'd since, soe much as a Tittle of a written order for his venturing soe many men, tis true there hapned to be no worke for them, & soe they returned home.

If your Honour & c<sup>a</sup>: doe thinke that the Issueing out orders and the other Points Relateing to the Soldiers before exprest, does lye in, and ought to Proceed from the Worsp<sup>n</sup>: Dep<sup>ty</sup>: Governour onely, wee begg wee may be advised that wee may Conforme ourselves accordingly well knowing theres nothing more improper then Mistakes in Those kind of Affaires, when time to, may Require. that all that can be, sho<sup>d</sup>: have bin knowne before, & tis not Improbable but wee may be soon<sup>r</sup>: disturbed from abroad, Then some thinke off, therefore hope yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: will Pardon the Trouble of this from two hogshhead Arrack for which shall give due Credit M<sup>r</sup>: John Foquet does acknow- Rec<sup>d</sup>: 21st:

Wee received your Honours &c<sup>a</sup>: of the 27th: ultimo the 6th: instant with the N<sup>o</sup>: 82.
ledge that M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell before he came away did desire him to take care that his Sep<sup>r</sup>: 1700.
things might be delivered his Servant Vincaty but he had given other Injunctions to Woolston and his servant both or elce he need not to have been so cautious in the delivery of the Letter sent by him to Woolston for wee demanded of his servant severall times whether or noe he brought any letter for Woolston who utterly denied it and offered to give his Oath but when he heard that Woolston had Acknowledged the Letter his excuse was that M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell was his old Master and had laid a great charge upon him to deliver it Very privately, now how could Lovell be reall in his Intentions of M<sup>r</sup>: John Foquett taking care of his things when he had given order sometime before our arrivall for Woolston to remove them to the truth of which he offered to give his oath but the things wee suppose he meant was his Cott and old shoes w<sup>ch</sup>: was all wee found of his in the factory att our arrivall:

On the 7th: Instant wee sent Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Faucet and Rowland with M<sup>r</sup>: Lovells
Letter to M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston, inclosed comes M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston's answer with his Acco<sup>t</sup>:
Currant the last Article of the Credit side yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: may see what is become of the Maddapollam bale of Long Cloth, wee have already embaled [61]bales w<sup>ch</sup>:
may amo<sup>t</sup>: to about 18 or twenty Thousand Pag<sup>s</sup>: and wee expect 35 Bales from
about Seven thousand Pagodas.

Wee shall take due observance of what yo<sup>r</sup>: Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: write about the chay Goods and shall provide very few or none for the January Shiping.

In the Bookes last made up by M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell Quollo Narso has credit for Pag<sup>s</sup>:
258: 30: 4 which money he is very earnest for he saying he owes it to the Gunny
Merchants for ropes &c<sup>a</sup>: for the Comp<sup>a</sup>: use wee have lett him have one hundred

June 17th since which he has rec<sup>d</sup>: not one cash from Woolston yet in his Honest acco<sup>t</sup>: Currant he charges both factorys with dyett & Servants wages to the p<sup>mo</sup>:
August neither has he rec<sup>d</sup>: any Sallary since March 1699:

The Howland and King William are both arrived in Vizagapatam the latter the 20th: Ultimo and wee expect the former every hour.

Wee have this day rec<sup>d</sup>: advice that Cawn Bux has gott the Government of Gulcondah & that Rustan Delil Cawn is under him unto whome the present Seer lasker is nearly related and therefore very likely to continue in his Government.

Wee herewith return M<sup>r</sup>: Lovells key of his desk. Wee have not elce to Wee being appointed to deliver a letter to M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston the 7th: Instant with M<sup>r</sup>: Lovells key, desir'd to have his Desk & Trunk open'd w<sup>ch</sup>: he consented to, but absolutely refused the delivering anything to us, the Desk and Trunk he said he kept because M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell ought him money, that he had severall times writt to him about it, yet he took no notice of it, so he was resolved to secure himselfe, besides he had passed his word for a sum of money that M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell owes the Consull, which in Honour he was bound to pay, what related to the Company he said was Generall Letters, and those he would keep to justifie himself; it being dark it (& he not calling for a light & he not seeming willing at first to have the Desk open'd) wee could only look superficially over, the Desk was full of Papers tyed together, the middle drawer wee could not open, in the trunk wee saw no Papers, Cloths & Linnen &c<sup>a</sup>: he said M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell sent a Letter by Ship Howland, to secure his Desk & Chest Wee inquir'd if he writ to have'em taken out of the Factory, he answer'd he writt to have'em secured & his Dubash would assist in getting'em on board ship to send e'm to him, Wee then desir'd he would please to shew us y<sup>t</sup>: Letter but he refused saying it would be no advantage to us, he deliver'd us his Acco<sup>t</sup>: Curr<sup>t</sup>: & S<sup>a</sup>: he would waite on M<sup>r</sup>: Foquett on Munday morning w<sup>ch</sup>: he would have done before but his Lameness had prevented.

On the 25th past the Cheif arrived here with Narran and six Topaz soldiers as a guard for the better security of 10000 Pag<sup>a</sup>: belonging to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company which he brought along with him, haveing been advised by Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Bugden and Harrison of a quarrell between the Rashwar and Governour of Narsa Poor wherein the latter had his son and severall others kill'd, but at present they are all quiett, and we have return'd the soldiers to Metchlepatam.

That night the cheif arrived, Rango Raaz the Rashwaar sent us word he intended next day to visitt us in the Factory whereupon his coming wee with the advice of Narrain, presented him with a Gold chaine, Fine broad cloth, and some Flint Ware to the value of about seaventy-Pag<sup>a</sup>: with which he went away very well satisfy'd, making large promises that the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys business should goe on as formerly and invited us to his House in the Evening where he presented us with a Horse of abo<sup>t</sup>: Sixty Pagodas value which wee were very unwilling to accept of, being sencible it wo<sup>d</sup>: increase our Charges, and that another Present would be Expected from us in return but could not prevaill tho we told him wee could not make him any returns without orders from yo<sup>r</sup>: Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: but he answer'd that haveing Presented the new Company with a horse, it would not look well if he did not present us with the like, being his old friends & that he would be content with what yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: should order him in return; but the next day he sent for Narran, and desired him to acquaint us that he was going up the Country to his Master Mirza Cawne the Cheif Renter of all these parts, and if he should hear of the Present we had made him would expect part therefore desir'd we would take it all again, except the Gold chaine value 33 Pag<sup>a</sup>: and three Flint Rosewater bottles and give him 67 Pag<sup>a</sup>: in money which would doe him a greater kindness, to which with the advice of Narran wee consented, for the following reasons Viz<sup>t</sup>:

1 Now wee have made Ranga Raaz our friend there will be no occasion to send the Letter yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: Wrote to Mirza Cawne which must have been accompanied with a handsome present, tho he seldom comes to this place, but leaves the whole management of the Country hereabout where all our Cloth is made to Ranga Raaz in whose power it is to stop our business when he pleases, and it would be a great charge and hindrance to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys affairs to send to his Master for redress on all occasions, which now we hope there will be no occasion for, he having given his Cowle Copy whereof comes inclosed that our business shall go on as formerly with all our antient Priviledges.

2<sup>y</sup> Hee has promis'd us that he will not expect any more Presents for himself or any of his people upon any Acco<sup>tt</sup>: till this time twelve moneth which if he keeps, wee hope your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will not think us extravagant, considering t<sup>is</sup> att our first coming.

We have sorted and Embaled all the Cloth the Merchants had brought in on M<sup>r</sup>: Woolstons Contract amounting to Pag<sup>a</sup>: 4267: 18 which comes by this conveyance being Bales 22 with 13 Bales made up by Mr: Woolston, but the Godown Conocopy acquaints us that M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston did pack up 14 Bales and sometime after did unpack one Long Cloth fine N<sup>o</sup>: 1 and put it into his Chest which he removed out of the factory to Sanco Narsos house, which Sanco Narso does acknowledge that it was there sometime but afterwards removed by M<sup>r</sup>: Woolstons order to the New Companys Factory where wee suppose it does Remain of which wee have advised the cheif and Councill of Metchlepatam who return for answer that they beleive if Consull Pitt were acquainted with it he would order the delivery, but fear if M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston should come to hear of it that it might prevent his coming to their Factory, and they should Loose the oppertunity of securing him in order to send him to your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: by this conveyance if they doe not demand it of Consull Pitt at Metchlepatam, wee shall when he comes here being expected down in a few days.

The Merchants made great complaints of our sorting their fine long Cloth, and said they should be great loosers by it, being unwilling wee should sort any more, upon which wee sent for one of M<sup>r</sup>: Woolstons Bales, which wee found much inferior to the muster he had sorted them to, and doe suppose that to be the reason of the Merchants beleiving wee had dealt hardly by them wee haveing sorted all to N<sup>o</sup>: 2: 3: wherein wee have done them no wrong but enquireing of the Conocopy how M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston sorted to make all his Bales N<sup>o</sup>: 1 he declares that he putt all to No. 1 without turning out one peice which bales wee have marked wth: a Cross for distinction.

The Merchants had alsoe in the Factory Godownes one Bale of Book percollas which they had provided for the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: and was Chopt by M<sup>r</sup>: Rowland w<sup>ch</sup> wee at first refused to take in, M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston haveing already taken in more of that sort then was contracted for and the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company haveing order'd that no more of them should be sent home, but upon consideration that they had provided them with their own money for the Company, and that on our refusall they will Carry them to the new Company, wee agreed (it being but a small quantity), to take them in att Pag<sup>a</sup>: 17½ P<sup>g</sup> Corge, they are most of them as good as N<sup>o</sup>: 1 but wee have put them all to N<sup>o</sup>: 2. On the 31st: past wee adjusted the acco<sup>tt</sup>: of M<sup>r</sup>: Woolstons Contract with the Merchants upon which they brought in 1222 Pagodas more then contracted for, and paid them the Ballance of their acco<sup>tt</sup>: being Pag<sup>a</sup>: 43: 2 and at the same time they signed a new Contract (copy whereof comes inclosed) for 6000 Pag<sup>a</sup>: deliverable in December next and also made a proposall for the delivery of 24000 Pag<sup>a</sup>: of Goods in August next, which proposall comes Inclos'd for yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: approbation.

Inclosed is a List of Peons and servants wee have entertain'd for the Factory, which with submission we think is no more then what is absolutely necessary to keep up the credit of our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters which wee shall doe with as little charge as possible but are afraid that wee cannot bring it much under 70 Pag<sup>a</sup>: a month tho not to exceed it.

Wee did at our first arrivall discharge the country musick as an unnecessary charge to the Company but it caused such a jealousie among the Merchants that wee were only come to gett in the remaines of y<sup>e</sup>: old Contract and soe withdraw, that they were shie of coming to the Factory which Narran acquainting us with, wee thought it convenient to reEntertain them, till wee were a litte better settled, and then to discharge them if your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: did not think fitt to allow of them.

The House is not so much out of Repair as wee expected, and do design after the Raines to repair it, wherein wee shall be as frugall as possible, and shall doe nothing to it but what is absolutely necessary.

Narran has been very serviceable to us here, upon all Acco<sup>ts</sup>: and wee have no reason to think but that he had done his utmost Endeavours to serve the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: he went from hence the 1st: Instant for Metchlepatam. If your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: thinks fitt that wee shall keep the horse here that was presented the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company we desire you would send us some furniture for him, haveing none. By mistake at the Fort, the Chop of Fort St<sup>t</sup>: George was put up instead of that of Maddapollam which wee desire your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to send us and wee will return this.

We have this day dispatch'd a Boat to Metchlepatam with our Bales being 35 amounting to Pag<sup>a</sup>: 6904: 16: 3: in order to their being Laden on Ship Howland w<sup>ch</sup>: wee here is arrived there, wee are.

Ship Rubie importing here y<sup>e</sup>: 18th: brought us the Hon<sup>r</sup>: of yours of y<sup>e</sup>: 8th: with the severall inclosed & we shall give the necessary answer to the Paragraphs of the Comp<sup>as</sup>: & Auditors Letters on return of the Europe Ship.

The 10000 Pag<sup>a</sup>: we have rec<sup>d</sup>: & credited your account for the same and shall deliver it the Merchants, as soon as the Country is at quiet the Revolutions whereof since our last have been much increased but hope now will be soon at an end by a disunion among the Rajahs w<sup>ch</sup>: has given the Moores forces an opportunity of entering the Country & retakeing Cassamecoat but it wholly impeeds our business the flying P<sup>t</sup>ies both of the Moors & Natives raging too & fro & pillaging where they come causing all people to desert their habitations & fly to the woods with their goods &c<sup>a</sup>: for protection.

When we Contract with our Merchants we shall observe your directions in stateing the prices of all goods to their intrinsick vallue & not follow a proportion as formerly.

Wee still continue our good Correspondence with all parties and have suffer'd nothing by these Revolutions more then the obstructing our trade, which the Dutch and their Merchants have, both in their Purses and Reputations.

Wee must desire yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to send us as soon as possible 20 Candy of Powder and 30 Candy of Lead the Nabob being very instant with us for such a supply, what we had in the Factory we have spar'd him reserving onely a small matter for our defence which he has accepted kindly and allows its vallue in the town Rents.

Wee shall embrace the first convenient opportunity for obtaining the Roccas you desire and forward them to Metchlepatam as directed, and forbear corresponding any more with M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston since he has been so disingenious and base as to be tardy in his fidelity to his Employers.

Pag<sup>a</sup>: are now worth here 350 & when they lesson that esteem we shall be sure to give your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: the necessary and timely advice.

Wee shall return the Howland as you direct with the Benjamins Gunnies, Ropes &c<sup>a</sup>: and what you desire from hence & if we can get our goods from Byramporum we hope you will then find our Merchants arrears pretty well discharg'd thereby.

Ship Rubie was dispatcht according to your desire and we requested M<sup>r</sup>: Dolbens demands may be comply'd with. Wee entreat your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to give us a more particular account relateing to the Companys answer to our letter & the Madrass not apprehending what you mean thereby and then we shall give as particular and satisfactory an answer as possible.

Our Books Letter P will come & the Howland as also those ending last Aprill, if your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will send us either Jentue or Persian coppys of the Roccas you desire for Metchlepatam we will endeavour to get them pen'd accordingly and w<sup>ch</sup>: incloseing our last months Account Cash is the present needful from.

COMP<sup>a</sup>: OF THE COAST OF CHORMANDELL

Wee have little of Import to Advise except that the Chambers Frigat and Fame from England arrived in Ballasore Road ye 22th and 26th May. The Latter having the good Fortune to touch at your place and President Eyre the Honour of your good Companys on shore we shall not trouble you with the repetition of what news offered when he left England because you had it from himself when with you.

Wee are very impatient for the arrivall of the Anna and Colchester and begin to think it long ere they arrive they being ready to leave Gravesend when the Fame left the Downs, but we much more admire that the King William and Howland were not arriv'd with you the 12th of last month the former being ready to sayl in a day or two after the Chambers Frigat left Cales and the latter left the Downs with the Fame In consideration whereof we hope 'twill prove an advantage to our Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Employers the Fame and Chambers Frigat touching on your Coast in regard you have had some timely Intimations of their designs, whereas on the Contrary your thoughts w<sup>d</sup>: have been perplext for want of news from [the] Fatherland.

Wee have not followed S<sup>r</sup> Edwards method at his first comeing in spending 2 months time without doing any business, but have Contracted with our Merchants for Goods to the Amount of 1500000 Rupees and have delivered them the greatest part of our Treasure that came by these Shipps rather then hinder our Investment by staying for money from the mint and have a prospect at present of procureing Bales enough for at least 3 Shipps one to be dispatch'd in Sep<sup>r</sup>:

another in Xber and the other in February and if your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: think you shall have more bales on your hands then you can lade on the King William and Howland we say then we may be able to dispatch all 4 Shipp home this Season, for wee presume we shall have enough to half lade the 4th: Shipp which we shall send up to you in January if you give us any encouragement that you can fill her up with you, 400 Bales we presume will doe, but if you shall not have more bales then tonnage upon your hands, upon your advices we shall look out for a Persia Freight for one of the Shipp.

The Disputes and Contests that happen'd formerly between the Agent and Councill and S<sup>r</sup>: Edward Littleton &c<sup>a</sup>: you have been fully advis'd of, they have been very quiet ever since having not rec<sup>d</sup>: either Line or Message from them their haughty tempers being much abated since the arrivall of our Shipp. S<sup>r</sup>: Edward is soe far Cast down and dejected that he keeps House, and the Merchants are under as great concern for their Money seeing they have no ships arriv'd, and which is worse they have deny'd to lend him money for their Generall Expences putting him off with Excuses that they have no money, so that notwithstanding the great noise and stirr they have made of their approaching greatness and the Vast Treasure they had coming on divers ships the Natives have but a very mean opinion of them beleiving their Circumstances not to be Such as has been represented; Neither will the 2 Ships when they arrive gain them much reputation for one Ships Treasure will hardly pay their debts which are considerable at least Rs. 300000: and the other Ships Treasure will load home but one Ship and they can expect but little Credit from the Merchants who having been once Impos'd upon will be very Cautious and shy how they run into the same Error againe.

S<sup>r</sup>: Edward has at last wth: great Expence procured the Prince his Nishaan for their trade Conformable to that of our Masters, but wee are Inform'd they have given security that if within such a limit of time they doe not procure the Mogull's Phirmaund they will pay Rs. 3000 for every ship which will be a great inconvenience and charge to them before they have done. Their Ship the Antelope is refitted and now fallen down towards Rungafullah about half loaden from whence they design to fill her up with her old Cargoe and Dispatch her for England in August, she has touchd the ground twice or thrice coming from Hugly to this place but they say has gott no hurt.

Wee shall now reply to what needful in yours of the 3rd Aprill and 6th May your acknowledging the receipt of ours of the 26th August induces us to beleive you have received that of the 28th August by the same Conveyance wth: Account Currant Fort S<sup>t</sup>: George as it stands in our Books R R Commencing Aprill 30th: 1699.

Inclosed wee send you the Warehouse keepers reasons and answers why this place is not chargeable for what came short in the packing stuff by the Benjamin to your place and think what he says in that Case is very Equitable.

Our Employers have been pleas'd to send over this year a sufficient Number of Factors and Writers so that we hope we shall have no occasion to trouble your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: any further on that score.

Wee think as your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: say that S<sup>r</sup>: Edwards time had been better taken up in minding the Main chance then in contending for power and Authority which we don't understand they have a right to till our Masters time is Expired as the Act of Parliament seems to intimate.

The Pacquet which you mention you did not receive Causes us to send you Abstract of the Invoice by the East India Merchant that you may give us Credit for the Amount thereof.

Wee shall send you some Silk Worms in December (when we beleive they may live to your place) in case you doe not returne the Necauds to us in the meantime as you seem to Intimate, Also shall endeavour to persuade two or three Ruffagurs to come to you who being Mohometans may be the sooner prevailed with tho none of these people care much to leave their Native Country.

Wee humbly thank your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: for your promise of Redwood for we have not a stick in the house and want some now for the Chambers Frigate.

Enclosed comes an Account to what time M<sup>r</sup>: Ravenhill was paid his salary as also an Account sallary due to M<sup>r</sup>: George Crook deceased Payable in England.

The Money due from M<sup>r</sup>: Samuell Meverell Deceas'd to M<sup>r</sup>: John Pownsett Deceas'd is paid according to the Warrant to the order of Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Wright and Frewin Attourneys to Nathaniell Higginson Esq<sup>r</sup>:

Reasons why this place is not Chargeable for the Gunnies, ropes, Twine and Rice w<sup>ch</sup>: the Warehouse keeper at the Fort advises was short of the Invoice and Bill of Lading  $\mathfrak{P}$  ship Benjamin.

The Weighable Goods was inspected by the Purser of the said ship as Usual, with some allowance of over-weight Therefore the ship should be Charged with it Except allowance for the co[ar]se Rice wasting the Voyage And it's probable the Difference of the Ropes, and twine, was occasion'd by the Unlading part thereof at Vizagapatam to make roome for their Bales. But that 400 p<sup>s</sup>: Gunnies fine and 8 Baggs of fine Rice was Rec<sup>d</sup>: short Can no ways Concern this place there being no exception in the Cap<sup>t</sup>: Bill of Lading which agrees with the sloopes and Purkaes Receipt as well as his Boat Swaines, for so many Bundles each q<sup>t</sup>: 25 peices Gunnies fine as well as the Baggs of fine Rice.

to credit us for, & your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will also receive by us the Gunnies Ropes &c<sup>a</sup>: rec<sup>d</sup>: from the Benjamin whose Contents are specified in Bill of Lading, had we rec<sup>d</sup>: our Goods from Byramporum & for w<sup>ch</sup>: M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombe on purpose sent one of his ships our Merchants arrears had been now pretty nigh if not all clear'd but you may expect full satisfaction ꝑ the King William. The Moors still continue victorious & severall of the Rajahs have made their peace & waited on the Nabob & rec<sup>d</sup>: tasheriffs from him so that the Country begins to be now again settled for the people begin to return from the woods to their habitations so that after the dispatch of this ship wee shall treat with our Merchants of a new Investment of w<sup>ch</sup>: wee shall be sure to give your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: the timely and necessary advice.

Wee now return our answer to the paragraphs of the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: and Auditors Letters as promis'd in our last & herewith remit the Coppies of our Books lre P your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: had also had our last years Books but that M<sup>r</sup>: Owen has of late been much afflicted with his old distemper but you may rely on them God willing by the King William.

M<sup>r</sup>: Owen being here often indispos'd desires your Honour &c<sup>as</sup>: ꝑmission for his coming to the Fort to seek some means for the recovery of his Health.

Wee gladly received the advice of our Masters success against their new opposers & wish a Constant series thereof may attend all their undertakings.

We observe the Settlement of Metchlepatam & Maddapollam Fact<sup>rys</sup>: & shall correspond with Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Foquett Frewin &c<sup>a</sup>: as occasion requires and and obtain the Rocca's you desired when opportunity ꝑsents we have order'd this ship to call on them in her way they requesting it of us, advising us they were able to effect nothing on their first arrivall.

On the 28th Ultimo we rec<sup>d</sup>: a large Pacquet from the Agent & Council of Bengall for your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: w<sup>ch</sup>: wee have remitted you ꝑ this Ship.

Wee have sent you what Broad Cloth Aurora &c<sup>a</sup>: we can spare as ꝑ Invoice Inclosed & have took care of its passage as you recommended.

We have rec<sup>d</sup>: from Cap<sup>t</sup>: Braddyll 10 Barrells of Powder to be repaid by your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: on his return to Madrass.

We have ꝑmitted some Goods to be laded on this ship on frt: as ꝑ List inclosed the terms whereof to be adjusted by your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: Council.

Wee inclose our acco<sup>t</sup>: cash for the month of July & Remaine

Yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: Information of the State of Vizaga[patam] ffactory with submission has been imperfect noe part of the Country haveing been more subject to revolutions than this place haveing been for these many years past oppressed with Warr, ffamine, and Scarcity of Cotten as the Registered Dyaries and Consultations (Coppyes of which we suppose has been sent your Hon<sup>rs</sup>;) will manifest however wee neither have or shall to the best of our abilitys be deficient in affording a proportionable Supply to your Hon<sup>rs</sup>: Shipping.

We Observe your Hon<sup>rs</sup>: adjustment of Acco<sup>ts</sup>: with M<sup>r</sup>: Dubois but must 11th, presume to infer your Hon<sup>rs</sup>: have been misinformed therein, as to M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombes Voluntary receipt of Sanketna's and Coriga Lingona's Obligations as good and Substantiall Bonds & that esteeming them as Soe he entered them in your Hon<sup>rs</sup>: Bookes as good Debts, for the Occasion of y<sup>r</sup>: coming under that Character comes from Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Holcombes and Barwells proceeding to state the Acco<sup>ts</sup>: of the ffactory on their Arrivall in Order to your Hon<sup>rs</sup>: haveing a true account of your estate under their charge, when being wholly strangers to the Place and people they required of M<sup>r</sup>: Dubois for the exact framing and carrying on their account w<sup>ch</sup>: of those many Debts in the R<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>ts</sup>: Books would come under the heads and distinctions of good Debts w<sup>ch</sup>: of Doubtfull, & w<sup>ch</sup>: desperate, w<sup>ch</sup>: List he having delivered in and averred to have done it to the best of his Knowledge, 'twas ordered to be entered accordingly in yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: bookes, and this is y<sup>e</sup>: sole and true Acco<sup>t</sup>: & reason of their being enter'd as good debts in the Books of Acco<sup>ts</sup>: but time & Experience made them as irrecoverable & improper to be enter'd under that Character as Melick Saybs, Backerapunda's, francisco de Silvas, &c<sup>a</sup> of which M<sup>r</sup>: Dubois knew as well as of these not anything would ever bee recovered, but yet further M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombes Comission extended onely to the Examination of Perticulars and making Report thereof to the President and Council at the ffort, and not to the decision of any matter, and therefore he could onely represent things as they were made to appear to him and not Oblidge M<sup>r</sup>: Dubois to have answered the money till there was a heareing & determination before the President and Councill, and as to the Methods yo<sup>r</sup>: honours mention we never yet knew it Practicable in India because a new Cheif would be lyable thereby to many inconveniences for being a stranger to the place his Predecessor (if Knavishly inclined) has the Opportunity of imposeing and ffathering many falsities upon him, however had any of this money been recoverable yo<sup>r</sup>: Hono<sup>r</sup>: Expectations should have been fully answered in M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombe who has even recovered some of the debts accounted and stated by M<sup>r</sup>: Dubois as desperate.

so that yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: & c<sup>r</sup>: are to demand the amount of M<sup>r</sup>: Dubois [bond:] of him and the Trustees no wayes concern'd in that Account.

Whither M<sup>r</sup>: Dubois was acquainted with his servants receipt of the 100 13th Pag<sup>es</sup>: before M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombes arrivall or not wee cannot determine but beleive the contrary because servants are generally shy in making their Masters acquainted with affairs of that Nature.

The Business of Cattamura Paddon Abuda was transacted by M<sup>r</sup>: Barwel in 14th M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombes absence at the ffort, and his reasons for the same entered in folio 13: of Journall K: to w<sup>ch</sup>: referr soe doubt not your Hon<sup>rs</sup>: Justice of acquitting M<sup>r</sup>: Holcom[b]e thereof.

ffor Buddy Narran & Comp<sup>ts</sup>: standing indebted such a sume, as also for its 18th delivery of the Nine thousand Pagodas more for goods, wee must refer yo<sup>r</sup> hon<sup>rs</sup>:

to our Diarys and Consultations where we have never Omitted to enter all things dayly and where we hope our reasons will prove sufficiently satisfactory & would M<sup>r</sup>: Auditor upon any such surprising entryes in yo<sup>r</sup>: Generall Bookes give himself the trouble of overlooking the Diaryes for y<sup>e</sup>: reasons of said Peticulers they would not appear possibly such matters of admiration to him. The Occasion of Buddy Narrans &c<sup>a</sup>: Debt being encreased to that Bulk has been by a constant succession of warr, and ffamine, Seconded with a Scarcity of Cotton w<sup>ch</sup>: has made them unhappily loosers by severall contracts notwithstanding w<sup>ch</sup>: they will by this present Shipping clear most if not all their arrears & yo<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>rs</sup>: will in the conclusion be noe further sufferers thereby then by a detention of your money in their hands longer then the limited time of contract specified, which for the reasons aforesaid could not possibly be avoided & notwithstanding how they may have been represented to your hon<sup>rs</sup>: you may rest assured we will (God willing) see your hon<sup>rs</sup>: reimburs'd as you expect. The report and Character of Buddy Narran to yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: has proceeded from a P<sup>erson</sup> either Ignorant or prejudiced for he was not dismissed the Dutch service for any Misdeameanour or disreputation but upon the Comissaryes coming to Bimlepatam where he was Cheif Merchant not answering his Expectation or his Dubasshes wth: suitable Pishcasses & in w<sup>ch</sup>: one of y<sup>e</sup>: Punda Merchants: was more Liberal he was ordered to resigne this place to him and if hee pleased to accept of the station of 2<sup>d</sup>: Merch<sup>ts</sup>: but w<sup>ch</sup>: he refused cleareing his acco<sup>t</sup>: and had a fair discharge & his reputation is as good as any Merch<sup>ts</sup>: on this Coast and he is as capable of serveing yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: otherwise we should not entertaine him, and the report of his being a Creature & Toole of M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombes is altogether false further then it consists with your Hon<sup>rs</sup>: Interest.

19th: As to the Retrenching the annuall Expences of the ffactory to 700 Pag<sup>rs</sup>: 'tis impossible and soe we have formerly writ y<sup>e</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Presid<sup>t</sup>: & Council yo<sup>r</sup>: cheif Dubashes, Braminyes, Egybs, and Persia Writers annuall salary amo<sup>ts</sup>: to 1/3 of that sum, we are and shall be as frugall in our Expences as possible and the cheif has obliged himself to allow upon yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: P<sup>ro</sup>useing and examining his acco<sup>ts</sup>: w<sup>t</sup>: disburse<sup>ts</sup>: shall appear to yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: to be Extravagant and unnecessary or that he cannot give you satisfactory reasons for the same, and as to the Townes of Bimlepatam &c<sup>a</sup>: the renting thereof (let prejudiced persons informe your Hon<sup>r</sup>: what they will) has been of great benefit to yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: in furthering yo<sup>r</sup>: Investments by preventing those impediment<sup>s</sup>: the Cloth formerly met wth: from the petty Aveldars of those places &c<sup>a</sup>: and to whome yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: were yearly forced to make presents. The expiration of their lease is now nigh at Hand when shall relinquish them according to orders of y<sup>e</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President & Council and then the advantage will soon plainly appeare to yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>:; but was onely Paddy and Rice secured thereby we presume to affirme tis beneficiall to yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: all being sent to the ffort where it payes custome besides giving some matter of supply to the Garrison and now since our Actions have been thus misrepresented to yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: we presume to infer in our own behalves that we have made alwayes yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: Interest y<sup>e</sup>: Basis of them, without any sinister or unlawfull advantage to ourselves and we hope our maintaining and preserving yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: ffactory & Goods (when the Dutch at Bimlep<sup>m</sup>: have been twice plunder'd) our obtaininge the Nabobs Rocca's prohibiting trade to all interloping ships & for y<sup>e</sup>: Currant passing of yo<sup>r</sup>: Rupees w<sup>ch</sup>: formerly allowed 2½ P<sup>er</sup>Cent as also for y<sup>e</sup>: resetting of the ffactories of Metchlep<sup>m</sup>: Maddapollam &c<sup>a</sup>: may be esteemed acceptable services to yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: & induce you to a more candid opinion of.

This comes by ship Howland who arrived here the 20th: Instant. wee have shipped on board her 61 Bales of Callicoes and Chay goods Invoice and Bill [of] Lading is inclosed wee should not have had occasion to have kept her so long had the Maddap<sup>m</sup>: Bales been arrived wee rec<sup>d</sup> Letters yesterday that the boat was at the bars mouth however think them not of Such importance as to tarry her any longer at this time [of] year.

Wee have likewise contracted wth: the Merch<sup>ts</sup>: for 19741 Pag<sup>s</sup> to be brought in by the 10th: Jan<sup>ry</sup>: in which there is not much Chay Goods and for the future shall strictly observe our masters orders as to those Goods wee have in this Contract obliged our selfs to pay the Merch<sup>ts</sup>: five thousand Pag<sup>s</sup>: in two months therefore desire yo<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: would please to think of Some way of Supplying us.

Wee hope yo<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will approve of our keeping nine Soldiers whilst the Country Government is in such continuall troubles and broils all round us the Ensign serjeant and Topasses wee return by this ship who have rec<sup>d</sup>: their pay to the ultimo of this month.

Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Faucet and Rowland upon the ships arrivall we sent to M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston to require him to be as good as his word in proceeding to Madrass who refused to see or speak wth: them wee have not been able with all our Endeavours to get him into the ffactory since M<sup>r</sup>: Frewen went to Maddapollam and upon the ships arrivall he removed himself into the Consulls house he declared to some persons he could not proceed to Madrass with any safety yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: has so threatned him as he is informed from whence he has his intelligence wee cannot tell to have seized on him any where but in the ffactory would not have been safe either with respect to our selfs or the Governm<sup>t</sup>: and wee thought there was the less necessity when he seemed to be soe willing and gave us his promise to goe to Madrass.

Upon this ship comes Narran who has been very assiduous in his Endeavour of serving us both with his advice and person.

Our Diaries and Consultations are not as yet coppied out fair but shall proceed to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: in two or three days Overland.

Here is come on the Ship from Vizagapatam 380 Elephants teeth and 71 Baggs Round Pepper belonging to Consull Pitt but noe agreement made by M<sup>r</sup>: Holcombe for the freight neither doe wee know what to demand the Goods are in the Consulls Godown but not weighed of as yett wee desire your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: order herein.

However M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell may deny the Nabobs Letter and taksing in short Cloth M<sup>r</sup>: Noden is ready to justifye the former and both Noden and M<sup>r</sup>: Rowland the Latter.

Wee desire your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: by the first oppertunity to send us ten tarpaulins for securing of y<sup>e</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Bales in sending them aboard ship wee are

I've allsoe deliver'd to M<sup>r</sup> : Jn<sup>o</sup> : Foquett an<sup>t</sup> Acco<sup>t</sup> : Currant Fort S<sup>t</sup> : George since the 1st : ffeb<sup>r</sup> : last that the Benjamin Sayled from this place till M<sup>r</sup> : Foquetts arrivall here, Coppy whereof accompanyes this, & as severall times I have writt to your Hon<sup>r</sup> : & c<sup>A</sup> : desiring to be dismissed your Service w<sup>ch</sup> : you would never take any notice of, I hope 't will be thought reasonable that I may be allowed Salary for the aforementioned time, since you have thought it not fitt to continue us upon Comission any longer, therefore as being a free Trader and under no obligation to y<sup>e</sup> Comp<sup>s</sup> : I have charged said Account with noe more then what I have in the new Comp<sup>s</sup> service where I am now entertained, therefore hope you will be pleased to order the Ballance of said Acco<sup>t</sup> : to be p<sup>d</sup> : me, & what Objections soeever you can make against any article in our Acco<sup>t</sup> : I can as well give you an answer thereto from hence, as if I were in your ffort, not that I am afraid in the least of goeing, neither have I acted any thing that I need be ashamed to appear before you, but it does not at all stand with reason that I should throw away my time and make myself a prey in Complying wth : passionate humors, besides my circumstances will not allow of being Idle where I can meet with an Employ.

You are still pleased to charge me of that mighty Crime of not applying myself to the Country Government, concerning w<sup>ch</sup> : I thought I had given you satisfactory reasons in my former Letters ; and to be plaine your orders in that respect does still seem to me soe irregular & unreasonable that none but what seeks his own ruine, would ever comply with the same, after haveing been summoned by his Majesties Embassador to the Contrary, and I shall ever be of opinion that the Kings Embassadors summons in this respect ought to be much more regarded then any private mans orders, let your Masters circumstances be what it will ; & if I did make application to the Embassador, it was not on the Comp<sup>s</sup> : Acco<sup>t</sup> : for I never had any other occasion to apply myselfe to his Excellency then for the cleareing your Hon<sup>r</sup> : Goods, which I must either doe or they must have laid at the water side ; & I cannot p<sup>ce</sup>ive where the Obligation lyes that I should ruine myselfe on the acco<sup>t</sup> : of any mans private trade or otherwise, without I had sufficient security to indemnify me of what ever might happen in disobeying the Kings Embassador's orders and now Gentlemen I must needs tell you that if the Companies affairs has not been managed to their advantage in these parts Since M<sup>r</sup> : Lovell Embarkt 'tis your own fault, for I have not been Backward in giving due advise of all occurrences, when you have kept the Pattamars for above two months wth out takinge the least notice, as if the Company had no manner of concerns here, and againe pray what assistance have you sent for carrying on the Comp<sup>a</sup>: business or maintaining their Rights and privileges in any respect whatever, though I have signified my Condition to you so often, Especially to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: without having the least redress, soe that I was compelled to sell two Corge of y<sup>e</sup> Companys Long Cloth to defray the charges of both ffactorys or else must have shut up the Gates, yet notwth: standing all this, your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: is still pleased to charge me in all your Lres, with treachery & betraying my masters, which I abominate and scorne, yet that shall never provoke me to bee disrespectfull to any Gentlemen that is Honrd: wth the Kings [Comission] but on the Contrary shall allwayes give due Obedience to the same, as 'tis every Englishman's Duty, I shall not trouble you any more then to assure you, I have done nothing but what I can answer before any Justice in England, and what has consisted with Hon<sup>r</sup>: and Honesty both to my King and Country, soe that I hope after a more serious consideration your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will be pleased to desist from casting those Scandalous reflections upon me, which I have not in the least deserved, and will be a great satisfaction.

Rec<sup>d</sup>: 30th:
do: 1700.

Wee wrote to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: the 10th: July by an overland Conveyance, Copy whereof comes herewith: since we have rec<sup>d</sup>: yo<sup>rs</sup>: of the 8th: and 28th: by the Ruby and Europe ships.

With submission your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: had done better to have return'd the Ruby to us upon her first arrivall with you then to have kept her upon Charges so long in Madrass Road, for what with wages wear and tear &c<sup>a</sup>: wee find by your account amounts to near as much as we shall be able to sell her for here, so that if you had sold her in Maderass upon her first arrivall for 700 Pag<sup>a</sup>: It would have been so much gain to y<sup>e</sup> Company whereas your sending her down to us after 2 Months lying in your road is as much a loss to them, and makes the charge of our ffactory swell bigg when really it ought to be Charg'd to your place.

Wee wish your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: had kept the Cables and not sent any to us for they will lye and rott here before a Market offers for them, haveing one of the two Cables lying upon our hands that was sent us in President Higginsons time.

As for sending you Silk worm's we are Inform'd that none will live but what are of the growth of the Month December, for then they are at their full bigness and strength (as a man is at 30:) and are sent to all parts and live, so that if a Vessell had lain ready purposely for these Worm's at the time they ought to be sent away, It's more then probable they might have been Convey'd to you safe, It was no neglect in any p<sup>er</sup>son that you had them not but the tenderness of the Animal.

The Cholchester & Anna arrived in Ballasore Road the 12th: Ult<sup>a</sup>: from whence we have rec<sup>d</sup>: most of the Treasure which we are Converting into Goods as fast as we can, and hope to dispatch the Chambers Frigat the latter end of this month and the rest as formerly mention'd, but we should be glad notwithstanding to know if you can spare any Bales in case we should want to Compleat the Tonnage of four Shippes.

Wee are glad to hear the Howland is arrivd with you, and tho you make no mention of the King William's Arrivall, we understand from the Comander of the Cholchester and others that she arriv'd in your Road just before the Colchester Sail'd from thence.

The Petre will be much better futuramente Since Wee have taken a course to refine What wee have by us, besides the Badness of the Peter of late years being generally Exclaimed against by all Nations, has put the Petre men upon making that w<sup>ch</sup>: is Indifferent good fearing that otherwise it should lye on their hands and so beggar them.

Wee have Rec<sup>d</sup>: the two Letters from our Masters that came by the Howland and have rec<sup>d</sup>: Duplicates by these Ships.

Wee have Rec<sup>d</sup>: likewise the Happy news from our Masters of their being Incorporated by act of Parliament and have Celebrated the same with all Acclamations of Joy as Discharging of the Ordnance from Fort William, Bonfires, Fireworks &c<sup>a</sup>: to the great satisfaction of the Natives in Generall and greater astonishment to the disaffected P<sup>ty</sup> whose Interest seems very much to decline notwithstanding the Tankervails arrivall, the Treasure whereof being hár[d]ly Sufficient to pay their Debts and lade her home. Wee are advised the Merchants and Shroffs will not trust them this year, seeing they have so little Treasure Arrived, but the chief reason is their deceiving them last year by telling them they had silver in the House to pay for what they bought and when the Merchants demanded their money they told them they had none w<sup>ch</sup>: has very much Impair'd their Credit. Their ship Antelope will hardly sail before the beginning of next month and is a very sickly ship having lost most of her men, we hope the Chambers Frigat will be home before her.

When the New Comp<sup>a</sup>: hear their Ambassador has spent so much money to so little purpose not having p<sup>er</sup>form'd his Ambassage nor is in any hopes of doing it in time, then they will call to mind the words of the Wiser and Condemn their own Judgement when 'tis too late; Our Experience tells us he will never be able to Effect anything that's worth taking notice of, but will spend a vast sume of money to little or no purpose.

Wee doe not hear as yet whither M<sup>r</sup>: Ravenhill be come on these ships or not, his Hon<sup>r</sup>: knows he might have come down hither when President Eyre did but that he shew'd a great deal of Indifference as if he lik'd the lazy life at Maderass better we have no more to say at present but y<sup>t</sup> we are

Yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>rs</sup>: & C<sup>A</sup>: of the 13th: Instant we rec<sup>d</sup>: on the 18th following, at night; & have delayed our answer thereto till now, because we intended our acco<sup>ts</sup>: with acco<sup>t</sup>: Currant Fort St: George in Journall Parcells, as also the Ledger acco<sup>ts</sup>: with D<sup>o</sup> which was sent the Deputy Govern<sup>r</sup>: yesterday noon should accompany this.

Yo<sup>rs</sup>: of the 10th: of August hath not much in it for us to answer, but that you may certainly believe we shall use all possible endeavours with the Merchants to hasten them to the finishing this present Investment which by their Contract they are oblig'd to bring in, & compleat the whole by the 15th of the next month; wth: we have no cause now to beleive they can effect so soon, tho<sup>n</sup> on the other hand we beleive they can doe it much sooner than Xmas w<sup>ch</sup>: is the time you depend upon us for so much as you expect of us to compleat the King William's Cargo w<sup>ch</sup>: is the needfull in answer to yours of the 10th: past, because we shall have occasion to write more of this matter, before we conclude this Letter.

To yo<sup>rs</sup>: of the 13th: past by the Queda ship named y<sup>e</sup> Mamoody, We have rec<sup>d</sup>: what Stores sent upon her, consigned to us, as y<sup>e</sup> Invoice and Bill of Lading, Your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>A</sup>: observes very well that we have not made any agreement for Commeeta's in our present Investment because their was no mention made of them in the List of the severall sorts of Goods sent, and order'd us to contract for w<sup>ch</sup> may be somewhat hard for us to do now, in regard the Warehousekeeper hath not any of their Musters, on which the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: formerly contracted for, they having with sev<sup>l</sup>: other old musters out of use, been sold off in Govern<sup>r</sup>: Hattsell's time to clear our Books of so much remains, but the Dep<sup>ty</sup>: Governour hath bespoken the Cheif Weavours of this place to make two p<sup>s</sup> as good as they can of y<sup>e</sup> lengths and breadths of y<sup>e</sup> Comp<sup>a</sup>: old Musters w<sup>ch</sup>: was 36 coveds long & 2 1/2 coveds broad, wth: due regard to y<sup>e</sup> equality of Punjums, one of w<sup>ch</sup>: p<sup>s</sup>: he hath already rec<sup>d</sup>: and the other is promised; wth: when it comes, shall both be sent to washing, & afterwards shall be produced in consultation, for y<sup>e</sup> Councils view & their Judgem<sup>t</sup>: & value of them, before we shall contract for any quantity of them but shall first advise your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>A</sup>: the same, w<sup>ch</sup>: is the needfull answer to that Letter.

We come now to answer yours of the 13th Ins<sup>t</sup>: to the first of w<sup>ch</sup> wee say that we cannot by all the reasonable argum<sup>ts</sup>: we can think of prevail wth: the joyn<sup>t</sup> stock Merch<sup>ts</sup>: of Cuddalore for doubling their present Contract, & that for the same reasons before advised in ours of y<sup>e</sup> 15th past but the Dep<sup>ty</sup> Govern<sup>r</sup>: hath some weeks agoe produced in consult<sup>a</sup>: a paper of sev<sup>l</sup>: sorts of Cloth & their prices from Eram Rauze & C<sup>A</sup>: Pa[r]tners for an Investm<sup>t</sup>: of fifty Thousand

Pag<sup>s</sup>: to be bro<sup>t</sup>: in & finished in a twelve months time from y<sup>e</sup> date of the contract, if wee Should agree, w<sup>ch</sup>: the Deputy Govern<sup>r</sup> sent to the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President in his particular Letter. Hee hath also lately produced another List of Goods wth: their prices, amounting to pag<sup>s</sup>: 30000 w<sup>ch</sup>: accompanys this letter varying from the former, to be as good as the musters sent us from the Fort excepting the Betteelas, which they will not agree for on any other but the old musters of 40 & 50 cov<sup>ds</sup>: w<sup>ch</sup>: are N<sup>o</sup>: 26 & 29 y<sup>e</sup>: head sorts, w<sup>ch</sup>: are very good cloth, & they promise to bring in none under y<sup>e</sup> head musters, w<sup>ch</sup>: had they done in the former Investm<sup>t</sup>: there had been no cause of complaining so much as there was, there being a much greater difference in y<sup>e</sup> musters than in y<sup>e</sup> prices If this be liked of, they promise to finish the same in 7 months time after signing the agreement, and therefore they desire our speedy answer because they have their Factors in the Countrys about us to engage all the looms they havetaken so much pains in, to frame them to make all Cloth Equall to the new musters sent us from the Fort & wee think there is a difference as much between the looms that make fine Cloth & those that make but ord<sup>y</sup>: Cloth, we mean as to the Sleas, as there is between a fine Ivory toothed Comb, & any other wide toothed one.

The List of all and what Goods the Merchants have bro<sup>t</sup>: in, you will know by the inclosed List, but the great and frequent Rains we have here, detards the coming in of their cloth, so fast as otherwise it would be.

The Dep<sup>y</sup>: Gov<sup>r</sup>: is sorry he should be pitch'd upon to attest y<sup>e</sup> transactions of those matters relating to Amer John's going to y<sup>e</sup> Camp, at a time, when he was no ways concern'd in any thing of the Comp<sup>a</sup>: affairs as may appear by y<sup>e</sup> Registers & Consultations of those times, to w<sup>ch</sup>: he refers; by w<sup>ch</sup>: it will appear that Amer John went to the Camp in October 1697 & carried with him (on y<sup>e</sup> Comp<sup>a</sup>: acco<sup>ts</sup>:) a present to y<sup>e</sup>: amount of Pag<sup>s</sup>: 1155: 34 w<sup>ch</sup> he humbly conceives hath no reference to this place, Whatever y<sup>e</sup> rest may be, & y<sup>e</sup> for these reasons; That Fort St<sup>t</sup>: George then labour'd under great difficultys of haveing any thing pass out or come into the town, by reason of the troubles given them by the then Juncaneer of Pullamullee who stop'd the Merchants Goods and seiz'd them as well y<sup>e</sup> Comp<sup>a</sup>: as other particuler Merch<sup>ts</sup>: & all manner of provisions for y<sup>e</sup> Comp<sup>a</sup>: Gen<sup>l</sup>: table in so much that no Body could goe to St<sup>t</sup>: Thomas's Mount haveing two or three bottles of Wine or Beer, but what his people would stop to pay them Juncan; & all persons strictly forbid to resist or rescue their own from them w<sup>ch</sup>: made them grow the more insolent, as to beat & Chabuck our serv<sup>ts</sup>: sent before to accompany those things; & indeed y<sup>e</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: affairs then looked with no good aspect, as to their privilegedges & libertys, w<sup>ch</sup>: begun to decline ever since the great storm in April 1696 w<sup>ch</sup>: drove so many ships & Wrecks ashoar w<sup>ch</sup>: we tamely suffer'd the Moors to carry away, soe that Amer John was sent to procure as good conditions as he could of y<sup>e</sup> Nabob, in favour to Fort St<sup>t</sup>: George, while this place then enjoy'd free intercourse of all things going out & coming into the bounds. Chingie was taken on the 30th: of December next after Amer John's going to y<sup>e</sup> Camp & Selimon Cawn did not assalt Cuddalore till y<sup>e</sup> 18th of February 1698 w<sup>ch</sup> was by order of the Nabob tho Amer John never advised that matter to this place, or Fort St<sup>t</sup>: George: but Govern<sup>r</sup>: Hattsell & y<sup>e</sup> Council here were very importunate & solicitous, as appears by all their Letters sent hence in December and January to Fort St<sup>t</sup>: George to have the Tavestock sent up here to joyn that ships Comp<sup>a</sup>: to assist Cuddalore but all to noe purpose, tho that ship stayed in sight wind bound, till a good part of February was past.

We advised in ours of the 15th: past, that the Heer Comens was expected at Porto Novo, and desired to know what you would please to order us to doe, w<sup>ch</sup>: wee awaited, but before your orders arrived, y<sup>e</sup> Heer Comens was gone & past by on the 3<sup>d</sup>: Instant for Pullicatt.

Our Merchants have not sustained any loss by the troubles lately at Wooriarpollam tho it may have some what hindred their business for a time, w<sup>ch</sup>: place is now in quiet again, as may appear by y<sup>e</sup> Wooriars letter to the Dep<sup>y</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: translate of w<sup>ch</sup>: wee herewith send yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>:

The Timbers we mostly want are those which come from Pegu, commonly from 18 foot to 20 & 21 foot long.

We are in great want of Salla's or the red sort of Betteelas that usually come from Surat, to make Flags for this Fort.

Wee have thus far wrote from the date w<sup>h</sup>: begins this letter, till we were diverted by the news we had of Aloof Cawns' being appointed Phousdar of Chellumbrum & y<sup>e</sup> adjacent Country, hath caused us make this pause till now y<sup>t</sup> it is the 30th: Instant The Dep<sup>y</sup>: Gov<sup>r</sup>: haveing yesterday rec<sup>d</sup>: a Letter from the said Aloof Cawn, sent by the Braminy his Egib, saying he had a Letter from Doud Cawn his Master, w<sup>h</sup>: he was order'd to deliver with his own hands, concerning w<sup>h</sup>: the Council were called together this morning more early then usuall to consider of y<sup>e</sup> mann<sup>r</sup> of receiveing this same new Phousdar, who hath been formerly a servant to Selimon Cawn, & Avaldar of Porto Nova Hee protested great love & friendship in all his discourse, to the English; & said if he did not in all things doe as the Dep<sup>y</sup>: Governour would have him, in assisting us in our business, his Master would turn him out of his place, to all w<sup>h</sup>: we gave him the hearing, we shall nevertheless goe on in strengthening Cuddalore & other places. He hath likewise brought a Perwanna of the like tenour to y<sup>e</sup> French at Pulli-cherry, w<sup>h</sup>: he would have delivered to the Dep<sup>y</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: to be sent thither, w<sup>h</sup>: he excused as not thinking it convenient to meddle in other peoples matters we made him a present of some scarlett, Cloth rashes and some flintware &c<sup>a</sup> he took his leave & departed and to all appeareance very well satisfied.

The translates of both L<sup>res</sup> we herewith send your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>:

Wee request to know what rule you'l please to give us for our guidance in that point of amunition mentioned in Dow'd Cawns Letter which is the needfull at present but that wee are.

 PRESIDENT & GOVERNOUR OF THE

May it please your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>:

It is said that what criminals say in their own justification after sentence hath passed upon them, is altogether vain, & to noe purpose, tho in it's due and proper time they are allwayes allow'd to be heard in what they can say in their own behalf before any sentence passes against him or them, my present case (tho no criminal), is that I am prejudged, sentenced wth: Execution of the same to follow conditionally indeed if I change not my course, and all this before I am heard or recieved any copy of the information given against me, on which I am accused.

N<sup>o</sup>: 97.
 Read. 5th
 Octr. Do.

I crave leave to say without any offence, or reflection, which is not my intention that it was the manner formerly, and agreeable with the Comp<sup>as</sup>: own orders, when Fort S<sup>t</sup>: George was an Agency, and after that a Presidency in Govern<sup>r</sup>: Giffords time, that whatever informations were sent from any subordinate Factories to the Fort, against their respective Cheifs, the Governour allways wrote his own perticular letter on the matter which was sent to the cheif with copy of what was informed against the cheif, for him to give anwer to, which if [he] did not give satisfaction the matter was examined in presence of both parties face to face; but in my present case it is otherwise, it is somewhat hard for me to give answer so punctually to what accused of, as otherwise I would doe, had yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: been pleased to have descended into particulers instead of the method taken which is Generall.

Did I but know in what sence my odd deportm<sup>t</sup>: to the councill (as is said) or what is thereby meant, I could the better answer for myself, but if it is meant by the following words; In that I consult them not, it lyes on their part to make proof of any point or matter of moment in which I have not, It is said more particularly to the Military, I answer, all our Outguards have their standing orders in writinge calculated to all the circumstances or accidents I could think of as might happen upon the occasion of any sudden Enemy as should assault us on our Frontiers, read, approved, and signed by us all. The Dyett money by consent of Councill was taken of to be any more paid to the Military officers, to effect which it was thought convenient to take away the Gen<sup>l</sup> Table which till then was an extravagant & shamefull charge tho Tell tale fame made a false and groundless noise of the same soon after at Fort S<sup>t</sup>: George.

In the matter of the quarrell between Cap<sup>t</sup>: Davis and M<sup>r</sup>: Cranwell which (if I am right) was in Aprill last, being examined in consultation, I was mightily perswaded by him, whose standing is next to me, & all his endeavours used to prevaile with me to confine Cap<sup>t</sup>: Davis for one month to his chamber as his punishment, and then to restore him to his place again without ever advising the matter to yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: which I thought was no good advice & would have proved soe, had I taken it as it happened by my being prevailed upon by his earnest endeavour and perswation tho against my own inclination, which was to have referred the decision and determinations of the controversie of both Padres with our examinations on the same, to yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: which hath been the occasion of soe much reprehention to us, the Error of which I was precipitated into as aforesaid, tho I argued our being subordinate.

I deny not, because tis true but that I did on the 21st: past, between 9 and 10 at night send a party of sold<sup>rs</sup>: of about 40, to join and strengthen our outguards of Treepopolore, and Billeveroy nuttum 30, to the former, and 10 to the latter, which was when a Councill at that time of night could not be called together, 3 of the Councill allwayes resideing at Cuddalore, Viz<sup>t</sup>: Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Haynes, Mountague, and Games and of late for the last four months, M<sup>r</sup>: Farmer removed there to his new house, M<sup>r</sup>: Ingram but lately recovered of his illness, M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu seldome or never lying at his Chamber in the Fort, except when any English shipping are here, soe that I had none here to consult with, but M<sup>r</sup>: Cranwell, who neither is, was, and I am afraid never will be wise, tho he would seem soe, by the assistance of another, who penns his exceptions as in the late case of Cap<sup>t</sup>: Davis, and any other of his Letters of any business, now the cause of my soe doeing may appear by the accompanying Copy, which shews by its subscription whose mind and Image it bears, being marked N<sup>o</sup> 1 to which I answered in writing at the same time I received it, and said that I knew Gungaram, who is Surrop Sings adopted son, and Govern<sup>r</sup>: of Waldore had come down to wash in the sea, upon the occasion of the Moon being Eclipsed, and that he made his progress through the french bounds, and that he was then on his return to Waldore making but Short Journeys for his pleasure, and that I had Spye's to advise me his severall marches and stages but however by his paper to me as afores<sup>d</sup>, I thought it did not behove me to stand still, and not take any notice of the same, therefore I sent the said number of sold<sup>m</sup>: well provided with arms and arrack, but without any noise or beat of drum, that night, till next morning that they returned, and Cap<sup>t</sup>: Davis requested leave to goe and command said party; Treepopolore is a town, which by its scituation, and beareing with the Fort and Cuddalore forms the figure as  $\Psi$  paper N<sup>o</sup>: 2: and at our pagar or guard there, one may throw a hand stone which shall fall and light out of our bounds, and if it had happened, that a party of Gungarams people had entered the town, and plundered some houses, where could my excuse be found, haveing had notice given me, as aforehand if I had not sent out the said party, on the other hand if M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes Paper to me was a false alarum, the blame in all justice ought to revert to himself, as the first cause; I never did, nor shall while subordinate, assume the power of making, or giving Comissions to appoint military officers, it being as becomes us our part, to nominate and Recommend Men of worth, and merit for such imloys to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: (being our Head) to Comission such, so recommended concerning the Executive power singly in the Chief alone, when extraordinary occasion so requires, I agree to and shall offer my Hum<sup>ble</sup>: sentiments thereon in its proper place. When I shall relate what I said in Consultation on the 2<sup>d</sup>: Inst<sup>t</sup>: as it relates to M<sup>r</sup>: Berlus houghing carriage to me on Friday the 30th: past in my lodgings at half an hour past eight at night the acco<sup>t</sup>: of w<sup>ch</sup>: I have given the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President in my particular letter to himself of the 18th: Instant which part of it, I request may be produced and read to the Councill, which will save me giving your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: the trouble of repetition without which this answer will be neither perfect nor compleat.

On the 2<sup>d</sup>: Instant in Consultation M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu begun with his protesting against Cap<sup>t</sup>: Davis for offering to confine him, which was onely expressed in words, I told him, he was noe proloquator here, but he should be heard in what he could say, [in its] proper time, beleving he had sufficiently informed the Councill at Cuddalore, already with whom he kept Comp<sup>a</sup>: for 2½ dayes together, ever since the 30th: past till then, and y<sup>t</sup>: it was but right, that I who should have been heard first, should at least be heard now next him, I did then recite to the Councill M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu's houghing and swaggering carriage w<sup>ch</sup>: in it's self was not so Offensive to me, as it was to God Almighty by whose great name, he had soe often swore that night; after Acco<sup>ts</sup>: were read, and money paid in, received and made entered, in our Consultation Book, I begun, and asked the Councill first of all, if I had wronged any of them, in their respective perquisites of their severall Employes (tho all of them have not perquisites and they that have are the worst humoured) to which they said they were not, then I recited to them M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu's strange carriage and behaviour to me on the 30th: past at night, and that I was in my own mind well assured that he would not [have] presumed to have done soe, were he not confident of a good party to bear him out, because next day in the morning he went to Cuddalore to associate himself with them whom I judged so, and with whom till now, he hath ever since continued and withall told them the provocations I had, that prevailed with me, to send for the Cap<sup>t</sup>: of the Gaurd to order him to be confined on purpose to be rid of him, which had I a mind to have done effectually, I might easily have called a Serjeant, and 2 Files of men to have carried him away, whether he would or not but I thought I had chosen the better way, by sending for the Cap<sup>t</sup>: of the Gaurd, as I did, which was intimation and warning enough for him to depart and goe home to his chamber of whom I could not otherwise be rid by any manner of means, concerning the Legallity of which, I said that upon Extraordinary occasion and the necessity of it required some resolution to be taken at a time when the nature of a thing could not admitt the calling of a Councill together to consult with, that in Such case the executive power for that time must necessarily be in some One of us, and as so more properly in the person of the Head or Cheif of the place, than in any other which quadrates with your own sentiments on this point, because the power of the whole doth revert and center (for that time) in the Govern<sup>r</sup>: then again let us carry our thoughts further, and take a view of some of the orders and constitutions of other men, to give some instances in the Military most men know how ill it is for an Inferior officer to be insolent, and disrespectfull to his superiour officer, In the Kings ships of war, at sea the Cap<sup>t</sup>: may and can upon extraordinary occasion confine his Lievtenant to his Cabbin and may when a Mutiny or Rebellion in a ship comes to a head, and the Mutineers in arms and begun the Cap<sup>t</sup>: in such case to quell and break their force, & for the good of the whole hath pistoll'd or kil'd some of the cheif Ring Leaders, in such case the nature of the thing doth not only acquitt but justify him, according to the constitution of the sea laws and is the same in a Cap<sup>t</sup>: of a Merch<sup>ts</sup>: ship at Sea when the mutineers as is said, cannot be subdued otherwise, thô at another time, and upon any triviall fault the said Cap<sup>t</sup>: doth Consult his Officers in the punishment of any such lesser or trivial fault, a Constable in England is but a low office, yet hath great power in the night time; It is said of any the lowest subject in England, proverbially that his house is his castle, where no violence must be offered him, if an honest man, and not guilty of the breach of the lawes, and does it follow that the Cheife of a place, or the Deputy Governour of a Garrison'd Fort is without remedy as in the late case of M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu, or to what purpose is it, that the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: have wisely ordered and appointed a personall guard to any the chiefs of their Factories.

Now as to what is threatned, because the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: affairs must not suffer, I humbly answer and say, that thô it does not become one to be the Herauld of their own praise and commendation, yet let me bee beleived for the very work's and deed's sake, which are evident thus.

At my first coming here in May 99, I found a great Investm<sup>t</sup>: of Pag<sup>s</sup>: 63000 made to my hand on the 3<sup>d</sup>: of Aprill before, and no more then Pag<sup>s</sup>: 8000 paid before I came, the payment of the whole Investment to be made in money, and not soe much as one penny worth of Europe goods agreed to have been given the Merch<sup>ts</sup>: in part payment, thô there was enough of Broad cloth and Perpetuanoes, that had lain here by the walls for severall years indisposed of, I found but a very low Cash under pag<sup>s</sup>: 500 besides the pag<sup>s</sup>: 2000 brought with me, the place without any stores, not soe much as one Glass of wine, or beer to wellcome me, except what I had of my own, the Merchants very clamorous and importunate with me for money, and would not hear of any thing else, at my coming, but money or bills of Exchange, Notwithstanding I disposed & put off to them, all the Broad Cloth sent us from the Fort upon the Benjamin, and Scepter, w<sup>ch</sup>: M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes thought I could not doe, as he told me then in Councill and said the Merchants were not obliged by their Contract to doe soe, which was no more than what I knew, but desired, if he would not concur with me, yet not to hinder, he said he would not, then I told him that I had actually agreed with the Merchants at the price of pag<sup>s</sup>: 17½ single peice, if they approved of it, which was done, and the Bales delivered them, and have allso disposed of all the broad Cloth which had lain so long by the walls as Aforesaid.

I paid off the Dollars, sent us from the Fort at dearer Rates than the price Currant with you at the Fort then.

In October or November last I sent your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: Proposals for a large, and very advantageous Investment for the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company such as was never made in this place, since it became their Hon<sup>rs</sup>: purchase, which you were pleased to like well off, thō you were not in any condition of stock to encourage so great an advantage to the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>:

I have not since my coming made any bad debt to the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company but have advanced some branches of their Revenues, and retrenched Charges, and [been] frugal in presents.

3. With the Country Government I hold a very fair and friendly Correspondence, and doe maintaine and keep up the Standard of the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: privileges as in Feb<sup>r</sup>: last when in that Storme a Madarass boat was drove ashoar to the S<sup>o</sup>: ward of our Bounds, and Surrop Sings people consisting of both horse and foot, making pretentions for the wreck in the name of their master, as did the Avaldar of Porto Novo for, and in behalf of his Master, Jemsure Cawn, with a party of horse and foot, yet I rescued the Wreck from both, and carried away what could be saved, and delivered to the Right Owners, and thō I had the shipp drove ashoar at Madrass in Aprill 96 twitted in my teeth, yet I convinced them by my letters in which they remained satisfied Surrop Sing, Govern<sup>r</sup>: of Chingie I have brought into a perfect agreement with the Cheife Renters of his Countrys who live within our bounds by accommodateing all matters of difference, between them, and Obliged Surrop Sing to give Perwana's, & good security to the said Renters, not to exact upon them, any more, than what agreed for in his Cows and obligations in writing past between them, I can reach, & fetch back any of our Soldiers that Run away into the Moor's service as I have lately done; With our Europe Neighbours, the Dutch, Danes, and French I likewise preserve, and keep up a good understanding, and have procured that of the Dutch, which my predecessour never all his time could obtain, namely the pulling down of their great Godownes, which run across the main street of Tevenapatam as formerly advised your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: with our Neighbours the French at Pullicherry; I can have and bring back again any of our Runaway sold<sup>rs</sup>: as of late two who had shipped themselves on board the King's shipp at that Port, where they had been some days till I came to know of it, thō I was told by Mons<sup>r</sup>: Martine that two of their Runaway Sold<sup>rs</sup>: were shipped on board one of our Companys shipp at Madrass: In the pardon we gave those two sold<sup>rs</sup>: M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes did not approve off the parenthesis, saying we had given severall pardons formerly without any such words, I said those words Implied our being subordinate without which, it would seem too absolute for us, and thereby give offence as in paper N<sup>o</sup>: 3.

What you Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: are pleased to say, as my temper will not admitt off, are couched more than is expressed, to which I humbly answer, and say, that dureing the severall years I lived at Fort S<sup>t</sup>: George, there is none living with whom I ever had any personall quarrell, this is a truth that cannot be Denied, and dureing my settling (instead of a better) as first on the bench of both Courts, there never was any appeal made to the President and Council from any Judgement I gave in either of the Courts, excepting M<sup>r</sup>: Cawley's case which was confirmed, and in the now Presid<sup>ts</sup>: own time M<sup>r</sup>: Charles Fleetwood's case which was mitigated as may be remembered but if it is meant as it relates to the late Govern<sup>r</sup>: Higginson and myself, I readily confess, I could not in my heart and conscience bring myself to consent with him in some strange things and manner of his proceedings, as in the case of Kitte Narran, whom having first imprisoned for a long time, and afterwards (as if a Criminall) endeavoured all he could to have exiled him to Manilha, and all this without any cause as ever yet was proved, since which, the same person in yo<sup>r</sup>: Judg[ment] hath been thought worthy to be entrusted with managing the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: affairs in their Northern Factories I am but one, and therefore cannot be all that number of 4, or 5 of the Councill, the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President by vertue of his Comission had power to suspend as himself thought fitt, and saw cause for it, besides that business was determined by the Comittee in England, long before the Neptune departed thence which was in December 98 and before the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Presid<sup>t</sup>: Examination of that matter sent by the Fame in October 98 could arrive which with submission, I Humbly conceive ought not to be hinted at, nor objected to me, now since my integrity (even to an eror) was vindicated by the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: Cap<sup>t</sup>: Hugonin hath all the perquisites of his Runaways, as well as those that dye in his Comp<sup>a</sup>:; of the former, there may be enough since in the punishing of his men, either by riding the wooden horse, or the whipping post he hath never yet advised with, nor consulted any of the other Commission officers of his Comp<sup>a</sup>: contrary to the practise here at the Fort. We have advised in our Gen<sup>l</sup>: Letter his Monthly pay to be pag<sup>t</sup>: 16½ including his servants wages, and we desired to know what Cap<sup>t</sup>: Seaton's monthly pay was & we were answered Pag<sup>t</sup>: 15 but whether the same included his servant's wages or not, is that doubt which is not yet cleared, which I request may be done, that there may be an actuall Compliance in us to your orders in this point, meantime I send your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: the reall and exact pay monthly given to the French Officers at Pullicherry, which Cap<sup>t</sup>: Hugonin cannot but very well know of, who hath hitherto remained satisfied till about the beginning of this month, being Put into his head by those, who are the Penmen of his letters; thus have I given your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: a full answer to your soe very severe Letter, soe hastily wrote, without recriminating any of those, who have aspersed me to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: thô: I have just cause to complain of some of them who take upon them, that which I singly of myself, think I cannot well doe, which may appear hereafter in its proper time and place, meantime your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: may doe with me, as may seem best in your Eyes, to which all ready compliance and conformity shall be given in all the wayes whereby I may approve myself.

WILLIAM FRASER.

COUNCILL.

We have now in severall heaps piled up along y<sup>e</sup>: sea side at Boomepollam, 160000 billets for firewood & we desire to know how you'll please to order their being sent to Madrass, there being much more than any ship (as we know of) at your Port can take in, because of the bulk. In such like case formerly, the Europe Ships sent for that purpose, used to stop at that place by a sign made on Shoar by our people there, to whom upon advice we sent all necessary assistance of boat Lascars, and boatmen, & what the ship left, that she could not then take aboard, was laden upon her at y<sup>e</sup>: place in her way, as she returned hence back to Fort St: George, but now the season of y<sup>e</sup>: year must be considered.

The account of y<sup>e</sup>: Ruby's men desired of us, but omitted in our last of y<sup>e</sup>: 30th: past to be sent, are disposed of thus, Viz<sup>t</sup>: nine of them bear [arms] in this Garrison of w<sup>ch</sup>: number six of them came out Sold<sup>rs</sup>: in y<sup>e</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: Service, y<sup>e</sup>: other three belong'd to the ships Comp<sup>a</sup>: & three more of them are in y<sup>e</sup>: Gunroom Crew, one here & y<sup>e</sup>: other two in y<sup>e</sup>: Gunroom at Cuddalore, make up twelve w<sup>ch</sup>: is all wee have here, one more, a young man who was the Cap<sup>ts</sup>: Servant, went to Fort St: George, pretending his relations to be well known to Doct<sup>r</sup>: Buckley.

On the 3<sup>d</sup>: Instant in the afternoon after Consultation was done, & broke up, both setts of Merch<sup>ts</sup>: came to y<sup>e</sup>: Dep<sup>ty</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: & declared their great want of money to carry on & finish their p<sup>re</sup>sent Investm<sup>t</sup>: certifieing him y<sup>t</sup>: if we w<sup>d</sup>: give them [Bills of Exchange on] yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: for pag<sup>t</sup>: 10000 amongst them payable to their respective Factors or order, y<sup>t</sup>: y<sup>e</sup>: whole Investm<sup>t</sup>: in the sev<sup>ll</sup>: species sho<sup>d</sup>: be brought in & deliver'd (Brown at least) before y<sup>e</sup>: expiration of this p<sup>re</sup>sent month, & told him of sev<sup>ll</sup>: Quantities of Cloth they had upon the Roads, nameing the places, but y<sup>t</sup>: the rivers are not passable, by reason of the late frequent Rains, w<sup>ch</sup>: we have cause partly to beleive, as knowing the truth of the same from others not concerned.

This is cheifly to accompany our generall letter to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company, w<sup>ch</sup>: we send under a flying Seal for your perusall, in which may be observed we have not mention'd any thing as to the present constitution and change of Government of the Countries about us leaving the same to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to advise of, because you may have much the better; and truer Intelligence from your Spies at Dowd Cawns Camp, than we can that keep none there.

We hear (how true we know not) that Silliman Cawn has some of the Inland Mountainous Countries assigned him for his Government namely Jaccadeu Trip-pature Vaniumbade, Kisanakiddee, Cavereputnam Parnabelle, Arur, Singurapettee, Cammamellure, and has for his Neighbours severall Rajaes, and great men of the Pullegars to plague him.

Jemsid Cawn we hear is comeing to reside at Trividie, about 20 miles distance from our bounds, his son is there already.

Dowd Cawn is said to come very suddenly into these parts, which if it proves true, we shall be in great want of what may be proper to make him a Present, which we fear cannot be avoided, and we have nothing by us, but Scarlet and Flint Glassware, but we think it were well (if there should be occasion) to send us some of that double distilled Rose water lately sent him from Fort St<sup>t</sup>: George, the meaneing of which the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President knows very well. We have no Brimstone here, but what is very coarse, and very dear which notwithstanding we would buy to supply yo<sup>r</sup>: urgent occasions, but the worst of it is, we cannot get Here was a proposall made before Narran the Dubash went on board ship, by two Merchants named Mauda Anka & Mogdula Mally that they would provide 5,000 pag<sup>a</sup>: of Goods for the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company without advanceing one pag<sup>a</sup>: before hand; we have Examin'd into the Credit and reputation of these merch<sup>ts</sup>: and find that they are employed by the new Companys Chief Merch<sup>t</sup>: who was to advance the money to them they being poore but are related to him and is only a trick to bring in goods for the new Company with our dusticks and to Impeade our Merch<sup>ts</sup>: in the provideing of goods which they have now contracted for to be delivered in January next, there is a report here that Mauda Anka and Mogdula mally have writ to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: about it and sent proposalls which we refer to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: consideration and order therein.

Yesterday Japa Chittee & c<sup>a</sup>: Companys Merchants came and declared that making the first Joint Stock amongst themselves they did propose to Mauda Anka & Mogdula Mally for to come in with them & bring their part of the Joynt Stock, and staid above two months for them to bring in their part which they were not able to raise but afterwards Japa Chittee & c<sup>a</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Merch<sup>ts</sup>: took them as their Factors to goe up and buy goods for them in the Country and Intrusted them with 6000 pag<sup>a</sup>: some part of which they invested for them, but the Cheapest of the goods they sent into the new Company and as yet have not cleared acco<sup>ts</sup>: with them for the 6,000 pag<sup>a</sup>:

In M<sup>r</sup>: Lovells time Japa Chittee & c<sup>a</sup>: did complain to him that their said factors had cheated them up in the Country in buying of these goods and they were sent for and detain'd in the factory for 3 hours but afterw<sup>ds</sup>: sett free Japa Chittee & c<sup>a</sup>: Merch<sup>ts</sup>: declare that in case leave be given for the aforementioned merch<sup>ts</sup>: to bring in the 5000 pag<sup>a</sup>: it will be certain a hindrance to their Investment, & In case we doe give Incouragement to them then they will no longer continue to be the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys Merch<sup>ts</sup>: which is left to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>:

The Companys Merchants have made a proposall to provide for the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company in Sundry sorts of Goods to the amo<sup>t</sup>: of Pag<sup>a</sup>: 44762:18 fan<sup>a</sup>: for which Goods are to be brought into the fiactory by August next, a list of the goods comes Inclosed, but doe desire to have an answer in a months time from your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: if you approve thereof, soe that they may begin to provide them and on signing of the contract to have 15000 pag<sup>a</sup>: paid them 6000 by bill of Exchange at Madrass and 9000 here & are willing to take the 150 piggs of Lead w<sup>ch</sup>: we received  $\mathbb{P}$  ship King William [po]iz 96<sup>ca</sup>: 4<sup>md</sup>: 20 $\frac{1}{2}$ <sup>lb</sup>. which we have given account Currant Fort St<sup>e</sup>: George Credit for at 6 $\frac{1}{4}$  Pagodas  $\mathbb{P}$  Candy according to your former orders  $\mathbb{P}$  said ship.

Herewith comes also a muster of the striped beteeleas which is entered in the list for your Honours approbation allsoe the diarys and consultations which we advised should be sent by next conveyance.

Consull Pitt has designed for Maddapollam above 10 days agoe but has put it off by reason of the troubles there between Ranga Rause, and the Govern<sup>r</sup>: of Narsapooe the Governours son of this place is gone from hence with a 1,000 men to assist the Governour of Narsapooe.

The reason of our detaineing the ship longer then our orders was for the Maddapollam Bales which could not be got out of the River before and wee were of the opinion that a day or two would not be so disadvantageous to our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters in detaineing the ship then for to have the bales left behind wee are.

We have thus long delayed our answer to yours of the 8th: Instant received here the 11th: late at night, because it was but yesterday y<sup>t</sup>: we closed up our agreem<sup>t</sup>: with Gunnapa Chittee, Eram Rauze &c<sup>a</sup>: Merch<sup>ts</sup>: of Tevenapattam, for an Investm<sup>t</sup>: of pag<sup>a</sup>: 20000 for themselves & with Viabo Chittee &c<sup>a</sup>: Joynt Stock Merch<sup>ts</sup>: of Cuddalore for pag<sup>a</sup>: 10000 which is as much as they could be prevailed with to undertake for, on such terms and conditions in proportion, as Gunnapa Chittee, Eram Rauze &c<sup>a</sup>: Partners have, as  $\mathbb{P}$  inclosed List of the same may appear, by which yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: may observe y<sup>t</sup>: Betteelas and Neckcloths of any sort, are quite left out; y<sup>e</sup>: former because we could not agree [to] their price, & the latter because the Merch<sup>ts</sup>: would not be induced to undertake for any, which last we are not sorry for, as being that sort by which wee could not gaine ourselves any Credit or thanks, if they should prove noe better than those lately sent hence to Fort St<sup>e</sup>: George, they being much better made, & easier procured nearer yo<sup>r</sup>: place, than any we can provide here in the Countrys about us, w<sup>ch</sup>: failure had we but known of some months soon<sup>r</sup>: we might in some measure have supplied in another sort of Goods, by soe many fine Dimitys either 18 coveds or 24 coveds long, and 2 coveds broad each, w<sup>ch</sup>: are made within our bounds, to the quantity of about some 2: 3 or 4: bales might have been procured & gott ready to be sent by the King William, w<sup>ch</sup>: cannot be done without advancing money to the Weavours the prices of the 18 cov<sup>ds</sup>: long & 2 cov<sup>ds</sup>: broad, have been 40 pag<sup>a</sup>  $\mathbb{P}$  Corge y<sup>e</sup> best, & those of 24 cov<sup>ds</sup>: long & 2 cov<sup>ds</sup>: broad, from pag<sup>a</sup>: 60 to 65 good, to 70 Pag<sup>a</sup>: y<sup>e</sup> best  $\mathbb{P}$  Corge, concerning w<sup>ch</sup>: we desire your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup> directions for the time comeing the rather because y<sup>e</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company have wrote for them by their last years shipping, as  $\mathbb{P}$  copy of their Letter to Fort St<sup>e</sup>: George sent us here last year. There may allsoe be made within our bounds a good sort of Cloth of Small checkers of black or blue & white, in manner &

The Merch<sup>ts</sup> : here by the continued practice of such small abatem<sup>ts</sup> : between number & number (as your Hon<sup>rs</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : well observes) made in y<sup>e</sup> : sev<sup>ll</sup> : former contracts between y<sup>e</sup> : Hon<sup>ble</sup> : Comp<sup>a</sup> : & them : w<sup>ch</sup> : by soe long a tract of time hath gained the force of standing custome, so much to y<sup>e</sup> : Merch<sup>ts</sup> : advantage ; as y<sup>t</sup> they are loth to part or lett goe their hold of any thing y<sup>t</sup> : makes soe well for their Interest ; whereas in all well made contracts, y<sup>e</sup> : difference & abatem<sup>t</sup> : of price upon lower numbers, should pinch the Merchants Soe senceably, as that they should think it their interest and advantage, to bring in none under y<sup>e</sup> : head musters ; but this is not a proper time to make any such tryall.

We have consider'd all y<sup>e</sup> : probabilitys wee can, to a compliance wth : yo<sup>r</sup> expectation of y<sup>e</sup> : 600 bales you relye upon us for, towards the lading of y<sup>e</sup> King William ; in which God willing we shall not faile you, if our Merch<sup>ts</sup> : will be faithfull to y<sup>e</sup> : performance of what they have promised, & y<sup>e</sup> : season favourable for the carriage & travelling of their Cloth : We have therefore sent your Honour &c<sup>a</sup> : y<sup>e</sup> : calculate of all y<sup>e</sup> : Bales, their late as well as new Contract can make up : and Eram Rauze &c<sup>a</sup> : Partners have promised to bring into our bounds 150 bales on their new Contract, by Christmas day, provided you supply them sufficiently with money, requireing the whole to be made in two paym<sup>ts</sup> :. Wee have therefore the better to encourage their endeavours, given them one bill of Exchange for pag<sup>a</sup> 6,000 drawn on your Hon<sup>r</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : at ten days sight, payable to Vengana and Maura Chittee and we must oblige y<sup>e</sup> : Cuddalore Merchants by giving them a Bill in two or three days more, for about pagodas 4,000 on this present new Contract.

We have no Presses here, nor never had belonging to y<sup>e</sup> : Hon<sup>ble</sup> : Company as haveing never been used in this place ; & what is worst of all the want of good & proper timbers to make them of, & Teak (if we had it) is too brittle for y<sup>e</sup> : use ; but y<sup>e</sup> : Screws ought to be made of Europe Iron, w<sup>ch</sup> : we depend upon your Hon<sup>r</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : for, to be sent us by the first fair opportunity that offers & then we shall take care of packing our brown Cloth by them soe well, as to avoid the extremity of over doeing, to y<sup>e</sup> : prejudice of the same.

We are very low in Cash, & shall be hard putt to it, to pay off this month charges Garrison w<sup>ch</sup> : encreases upon us at this time, by so much y<sup>e</sup> : more as we are necessitated to receive and to entertain in y<sup>e</sup> : Companys service, all y<sup>e</sup> : best & most likely Topasses, as offer themselves, w<sup>ch</sup> : charges extraordinary we shall lighten, So soon as the apprehensions of any fear of trouble to this place is removed.

We send your Honour &c<sup>a</sup> : our Gunners acco<sup>tt</sup> : of the stores of powder in this Fort & at Cuddalore &c<sup>a</sup> : outguards ; and to make more now, y<sup>e</sup> : season of y<sup>e</sup> : year will not permit, no[r] have we any conveniency for safe lodgeing y<sup>e</sup> : same, w<sup>ch</sup> : is y<sup>e</sup> : needfull at present, but that we are with all due respect.

We are now with yours of the 29th: last month which we received the 3<sup>r</sup> Instant at night, and was read next day after in a full Councill, excepting M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes, who was then indisposed; which being our Kings birthday, we commemorated with feasting, & some publick rejoyceings, with all Sociable good Company wth: continued and closed that day, which we thought not a proper time to enter upon cross purposes of any interrogatorys required by that Letter; and the continued rains we have had ever since hath hindred our meeting in a full Councill till the 11th following, when the Letter was read a second time, the acrimony part of it relateing to our Letter to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company we hope by our following answer to mollifie (which is our Cheif aim in such manner as may be satisfactory to your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: as well as justify and acquitt us from any blame in that matter.)

What we wrote to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company by the Howland, relateing to Broad Cloth and all manner of stores, which your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: are pleased to observe as irregularitys, and presumptions in us, was grounded upon former Letters & advices of Govern<sup>r</sup>: Hattell & C<sup>a</sup>: Councill here; sent home by the Fame and Martha as may more plainly appear if reference [be had] to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys Generall Letter to this place, dated in London the 21st: Nov<sup>r</sup>: 1699 Copy of which we received here in July last, wherein their Honours doe not only commend the sending such advices but also injoyn our continuance of the same in compliance to which we wrote as we did, thinking it our duty to do so, but not immagining our obedience should be construed to any Irregularitys or presumption in us, concerning what is wanting of stores, and most vendable of Europe Goods here, seeing we did not presume nor take upon us to direct or advise their Hon<sup>rs</sup>: what they should send out to any other place or part of the Coast, but ourselves, to whom they speak in their said Letter, which for the future we shall forbear to doe, in obedience to your orders. As to our art of Government as you are pleased to mention, we confess it is to be wished that not only differences, but the causes of them are to be avoided as much as possible; tho the best constituted societys are not free but att sometime or other, difference has or may have happened; and it was soe among the Apostles themselves, to the exactitude of whose lives, rules and precepts, we cannot pretend, in which sence we mean not what is allowable in the fair way of argueing and debating any weighty matter, for cloth is not made without some thread; or yarn be cast cross in the Loom.

As to what your Hon<sup>r</sup>: & C<sup>a</sup>: are pleased to say of our advantagious investments for quantity, quality, and prices, and other benefitts to the Company, which eclipses yours, doe what you can, at first sight seemed obscure, as if it had been wrote in Cypther the Inversion of which we take to be the true key for us to understand, your meaneing by, which is right, though we remember not by all our former Generall Letters we ever advanced any thing as should offer a comparison with your much better management of affairs, than ours here; but it is true, we obliged our Merch<sup>ts</sup>: upon our late and present Contracts, to promise their Cloth in all their Sev<sup>l</sup>: Species, should be brought in as good and cheap as the same sorts the Maderass Merchants provided, according to the severall new musters sent us from the Fort which was required of us and we advised your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: accordingly; all which comes not up to any comparison; so that upon the [premises it doth] not appear that the Deputy Gov<sup>r</sup>: has deviated from that rule he guided himself by, when in Councill at Fort St<sup>t</sup>: George, where he preferred your Merchants Cloth much above any sent hence, that he had occasion to view and Compare, and hath wrote the same to your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: formerly, as well as lately to the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company in our Generall Letter by the Howland, relateing to former Investments in this place, but we hope the present may please better.

Wee observe what you are pleased to advise of Saliman Cawn and Doud Cawn we shall take care by all best prudent rules, we can, as becomes those forewarned of so inveterate an Enemy as we take Salliman Cawn to be, tho we doe not fear him, according to the preparations we have already and shall make at Cuddalore, that he will attempt that place; and do wish that the other villages and avenues of our bounds, especially Trëpopolore, were so well secured; in order to which shall doe something so soon as the Raines are over, meantime shall be as watchfull as we can, and endeavour to gain the best intelligence as much as possible. The 2<sup>d</sup>: Instant we had news from our Spyes att Trevidy that Jemsid Cawn with above 300 Horse were arrived there, & soon after at his Heels 200 of Dowd Cawns Horse, under the Command of one Dahim Cawn, and about some three days agoe, 100 Horse more of Dowd Cawn's your Mulla at Trividy advices to be arrived there, with complements of friendship from Dowd Cawn to Jemsed Cawn, congratulateing some good news the latter had receiv'd from the Mogull; at the reading of whose Letter, Jemsed Cawn, caused all the Guns in Trevidie Fort to be fired of; the pretended ground for their difference is said to be matters of acco<sup>ts</sup>: only but there hath not hitherto been any acts of Hostillity between them; but that all matters are like to be accomodated in a friendly manner; at the first report of which we took all care possible to put Cuddalore in a Posture of defence.

Wee have received of M<sup>r</sup>: Ingram into the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys Cash, Pag<sup>s</sup>: 152: 18: and of the Deputy Govern<sup>r</sup>: Pag<sup>s</sup>: 58: 25 for which we have given two Bills of Exchange drawn on your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: each at 3 dayes sight, the first payable to M<sup>r</sup>: Charles Bugden, the other to M<sup>r</sup>: John Afflack. We formerly advised the low condition of our Cash, to which we had no answer, and we know not well what to doe to pay of this months Charges Garrison, tho we made a shift to pay the last months we wish a supply may be sent us in Company with one of your Ministers, whom we hope your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: intend shall vissit us tow<sup>as</sup>: Christmas next, if no other opportunity offers sooner for a safe conveyance; for indeed their is little pleasure in labouring under the difficulty's of a low Cash in a Garrison, and angry Letters at the same time; but we are truely thankfull that you have honoured all our bills drawn on you with acceptance, and prompt payments, for which reason we shall not be wanting here on our part to press our Merchants all we can to the performance of their promise of the quantity of Bales required and expected of us, which they say we may depend upon certainly; & the better to effect the same, we have obliged our chief washer man to encrease their number, which he has done by bringing here from Porto Novo & other places 20 washer men yesterday.

Wee shall endeavour a conformity to the rules you give for our direction, in making any Investments for the future.

The Dimity Weavours with us are no more than six looms, who were forced hither some sev<sup>n</sup>: years ago, in the extremity of the then famine from their native Country of Metchlep<sup>m</sup>: and have continued here ever since; and they being so few, it will prove the work of sometime before they can make any quantity as we formerly advised; their whole six looms weaveng at most no more than 20 pieces in a months time but the cheif man of them has promised the Deputy Govern<sup>r</sup>: yesterday that he will bring ten more of his cast, in 20 days time, with their famils to live in Cuddalore provided the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company does Employ them that they may gaine a livelihood, which is promis'd they shall, which we will confirme to them in Council when the rest of them are come, and concert termes & conditions with all of them.

Wee shall send your Hon<sup>r</sup> &c<sup>a</sup> a peice or two of the chequered sort of Cloth you mention, so soon as they are come from washing which may be sometime next week, the Deputy Governour haveing employed some looms in the makeing those sorts for his perticuler Acco<sup>t</sup>: the best of them for musters shall be sent for your view and choice with their respective prices.

Wee take notice of what you say as to our stores of powder, which we shall observe and doe according to your orders.

Wee send your Honour &c<sup>a</sup> by these peons 28 sealed papers 20 of which contain 5 fanams each & the other 8 Papers containe one Pag: each being indifferently taken out of the Severall parcells of Pag<sup>s</sup>: and fanams that have been lately coined in the mint of Cuddalore endorsed and distinguished by their Severall numbers, amounting to Pagodas 13:20 fanams Madrass, which when assayed with you, please to advise us how they prove.

Concerning the Letter to your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: signed by severall of the Councill here. M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes had the copy of his note to the Deputy Governour produced to him, which he confessed but that he thought the Deputy Governour notwithstanding [ing] any such advice of his ought to have comunicated and consulted the necessary orders on the same with the rest of the Councill in the Fort but it [was] made appeare, and proved in Councill on the 11th instant that there was no more of the Councill then Mess<sup>rs</sup>: Ingram & Crahwell that night in the Fort to the latter it was sent for his peruseall the former being asleep in bed. M<sup>r</sup>: Farmer being then in Cuddalore, which M<sup>r</sup>: Haynes till then did not remember but says that the Letter he signed was not so much in the nature of a complaint, as a humble enquiry into some points, to know what the Deputy Govern<sup>r</sup>: in such cases might or ought to doe, or not to doe, in which now he seems satisfied.

M<sup>r</sup>: Crahwell did not intercept any note sent to the Deputy Governour, which we clear him of; but that he was very earnest and desirous to see it, which he importuned the more by the authority of his place & station is evidently plain.

M<sup>r</sup>: Berlu does not insist on any point of justifying his carriage and behaviour to the Deputy Governour in his lodgings on the 30th August last, but excuses the same to some other cause which was then predominant and prevailed with him which he says he is sorry for, & promises to doe so no more, which last we wish may prove true.

The new Juncaneers placed by Doud Cawn at all the severall stages between us and Fort St. George gives great trouble to our peons, by stoping them in their goeing and coming; concerning which we request the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: President may be pleased to write to Doud Cawn; which is the needfull at present in answer to yours save that we are with all due respect.

MADDAPOLLAM 6th : NOVEMBER 1700.

Yours of the 4th past we received the 22<sup>d</sup> with the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys seal for this factory & returne your Honour & C<sup>A</sup>: the Fort S<sup>T</sup>: George seal.

Recd: 22:
Novr: 1700.

Wee gladly observe that your Honour & C<sup>A</sup> approves of the present we made Ranga Rause & shall take particular care not to receive any more presents from him or any body else that will put the Company to the charge of making returns, being Sencible it is more out of a design of getting double the value from us then reall friendship, he is at present up in the Country with his Master who is att warr with the Pollegars with whom they have fought, the Pollegars have taken his masters son Prisoner and cutt off his head, and there is no certaine news of them, so that it is Generally beleived that they are also cutt off by the Pollegars.

Wee have made the best enquiry we can of the Merchants and Conicoplys what they gave Mr Woolston last Contract, but the Merchants will not own that they gave him any thing but the Companys Conicoply says that he had 150 Pag<sup>s</sup> & 14 p<sup>s</sup> of fine long Cloth, 4 p<sup>s</sup> of which the Merchants gave him, & 10 p<sup>s</sup> he promised to pay them for, but never did, that he knows off.

Wee have used our best endeavours with our Merchants to enlarge our Investment for next month but cannot prevaile with them to make it more then nine thousand Pagodas and cannot procure any other sorts then what is mentioned in said contract, against that time, except one bale of each sort of the Betteelas which we send your Honour & C<sup>A</sup>: musters of by these Peons to measure when washed 15½ yards long and 1 yard broad the Plaine at 40 pag<sup>s</sup> P<sup>r</sup> Corge, the pack thread striped at 35 Pagodas and the narrow striped at 30 Pag<sup>s</sup> which if your Honour & C<sup>A</sup>: approves of they are willing to make a considerable [quantity of each sort] for y<sup>e</sup>: next Investment but cannot prevaile with them to abate anything of the price, telling us the new Company gives soe much, and their muster not so good.

Upon their promising to inlarge our Investment for December we paid them the 25th past one thousand Pag<sup>s</sup>: (thô it was not due by their contract till November) and they are now at us for more money, but we have not two hundred Pag<sup>s</sup>: in Cash, and have wrote to Metchlep<sup>m</sup> for a supply who advise that they are as low in Cash as wee, therefore we desire your Honour & C<sup>A</sup>: will send a speedy supply or else our Merchants will not be able to comply with their promise.

Wee have also a prospect of getting five or six thousand Pagodas worth of goods from Goalore Narraine one of the Dutch cheif Merchants at Dasheroon, who was here about a month agoe, & would willingly have been concerned with our Merch<sup>ts</sup>: if they would permit it to goe in his sons name (a boy of about 10 years of age) and he would provide what Cloth the Merchants should order him for his sons share of the contract, (but they would not by any means agree to it, because their contracted time was near expired, and they had given out their money for all the goods contracted for, but promised that, his son should be concerned in the next Investment.

Hee then made this proposall to us of provideing five or six thousand Pag<sup>s</sup>: of goods on the same terms we make with our Merchants deliverable in Decemb<sup>r</sup>: and not to receive the money till the goods were all bro<sup>t</sup>: into the factory, and would bring some more Dutch merchants to be concerned with him in said contract, but wee could not then agree with him not knowing whether your Honour & C<sup>A</sup>: would have us enlarge our Investment, but upon receipt of your Letter we wrote [to him to provide the Goods] and bring [the merchants] with him to signe a contract for [the same] which he has promised, and to bring a considerable quantity of Goods with him in few days, but it must goe in his sons name, because he belongs to the Dutch as soon as they have signed the contract we will send it to your Honour & C<sup>A</sup>: with the proposealls they shall make for next years Investment.

Wee could as easily have sent your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: a Translate of our Merchants proposalls as the Contract, but thought it might have been more satisfactory to have a copy in Jentue signed by the Merch<sup>ts</sup>: The Translate your Honour sent us agrees with the Translate of the originall entered in our Consultation Book only in the Ginghamms which are Gingham sheets, and not Izarees as your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: takes them for.

Wee have endeavoured the sale of the Horse, but cannot here; therefore have sent him to Metchlep<sup>m</sup>: to be disposed of there.

Wee should be very willing to retrench the charges of this Factory if we knew how to doe it in any particular not knowing that we have one Serv<sup>t</sup>: that is not necessary and usuall for the Cheife & Council to have, If your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: would have us to live as such, and keep up the credit of our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters.

Wee would have made our Investment of more variety, but that we had not musters of any other sorts, nor any List of Goods most proper for the Europe Markett, but shall in our next Investment observe the List M<sup>r</sup>: Foquett has sent us, & have Musters a makeing which we will send to your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: for your approveall when done.

We have almost done repaireing the Factory House, a Particular Acco<sup>t</sup>: of which we will send your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: by the next conveyance.

The House which formerly belonged to the second, y<sup>e</sup>: weight of the Tarris has broke Sev<sup>t</sup>: of y<sup>e</sup>: timbers and fallen in; which cannot be repaired & is of no use to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company therefore if your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: pleases, we will pull it down, and dispose of the Brick and Timbers which we beleive will more then defray the charges we shall be at to repaire the Factory.

We shall want two or three peices fine Broad Cloth for presents haveing none in the Factory and some Broad Cloth ordinary Perpetuanos, and Looking glasses, haveing frequent occasion to make presents to the under Governours for the passing of our goods, which if we refuse to doe they will stop them, it being customary to present them once a year, tho all the presents we have made since we have been here (besides Ranga Rauze) will not amount to fifty Pagodas and doe hope we shall not have occasion to make any more for this years Investment.

Wee have now in the Factory but 233 p<sup>s</sup>: of Long Cloth ready for sorting with 24 p<sup>s</sup>: of Gingham sheets, & 46 p<sup>s</sup>: of 15 coved Percollaes and at the Washers 103 p<sup>s</sup>: of Long Cloth, 37 p<sup>s</sup>: Gingham sheets 118 p<sup>s</sup>: of 15 coveds percollaes, and 61 p<sup>s</sup>: of Sallampores but the Merchants does promise that in a few days they will bring in the full amount of their Contract for 6000 Pagodas above 200 peices of long [cloth] was stoped at Dasheroon by the Juncaneers which we have cleared by sending a small present and is expected here in a day or two. / We are

This comes to advise your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: that after much fatigue and many long Harrangues we have at last concluded on a Contract with our Merch<sup>ts</sup>: for the terms &c<sup>a</sup>: whereof, we referr your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: to inclosed Copy and accompany- ing musters hopeing what we have transacted herein will meet your approbation.

On the 30th: ultimo we were Honoured with yours of the 4th: Ditto observeing the arriveall of the Howland which we were glad to hear, we shall for the future send all our advices by our own Peons especially if of consequence and the reason we send those advices of the 20th: July by other hands was to save charges.

The revolutions of the Country are now quite over & the inhabitants againe peaceable settled in their dwellings carrying on their respective trades soe that your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: may depend on full returns of the old arrears & the King William & we hope most part of the new Investment and the remainder on some other shipping by the time prefixt in season for her departure.

Wee shall procure the Roccas from the Nabob according to your desire, and send them to M<sup>r</sup>: Foquett and forward their copies to your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>:

The Cheif when he was last year at Chiccacull obtained the Priviledge of the Madrass Rupees passing Currant in all Payments as well in the Kings Revenues as in Trade, and they accordingly doe soe here, and are now of more esteem then any Rupees whatever for any person will receive them without putting himself to the trouble of a shroff & which soe noe other Rupees will pass, where it is they are refused if your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: [pleases] to advise us & if in [our] Government we shall insist upon the priviledge granted us by Fuckera Saib & doubt not of induceing him to confirm it.

Wee observe M<sup>r</sup>: Woolstones base treachery and doubt not, but it will thrive with him accordingly.

The King William stayed here five dayes and w<sup>ch</sup>: was to water & victuall carrying with her severall [head] of live Cattle & on noe other Account neither buying or selling to the amount of Rupees 1,000 & we had no orders to give her a dispatch.

Our Generall Books you shall be sure to have before the King Williams arrivall if M<sup>r</sup>: Owens indisposition does not prevent it, he returns your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: thanks for permitting him to come on the King William which he designs to embrace.

Wee shall want besides a person to succeed M<sup>r</sup>: Owen a Writer which we hope your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will supply us with & first oppertunity.

Your Pacquett to Bengall we immediately according to direction forwarded by forty four trusty and nimble Peons & doubt not but it will arrive according to your expectation there.

Wee are quite out of Factors Provisions of all sorts wherefore desire your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: to send us some & first oppertunity.

The musters of narrow striped Betteela's are already with your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: & we enclose our last 2 Months Account Cash & remaine.

Since our last of the 14 Instant, & the weather soe fair, our Merchants have brought in good store of Cloth of severall sorts, so that we are in no fear of any failure of the [quantity] you depend upon us for, but our cheif care is now how to get that quantity washed & embaled time enough to answer your expectation for the ladeing of the King William w<sup>ch</sup>: we still hope we shall, with as little brown Goods as possible we can; white Cloth making the best Package & Tonnage; for which reason we request that so many of your washermen as can well be Spared, may be sent us; hearing that some have left your parts thrō: want of Employ, which we cannot easily beleive. The Bengall ropes last Sent us were mostly Short peices, and seems to have been used, they proving so rotten that they often snap & break in the braceing, and packing of our bales, especially our fine Goods, which causes some hindrance to our Packers in the Dispatch of their work.

Our Merchants have been so importunate for money, as that they have prevailed with us to give them Bills upon your Honour &c<sup>a</sup> for 12000 Pag<sup>a</sup>: Viz<sup>t</sup>: to Viabo Chittee &c<sup>a</sup> Joint Stock Merchants one Bill of Exchange for Pag<sup>a</sup>: 5000 at six days sight payable to their Factors Botchu Chittee, and Callastra Chittee, & to Eram Rauze &c<sup>a</sup> Partners one Bill of Exchange for Pag<sup>a</sup>: 7000 at six days sight payable to Vengana, & Maura Chittee. We have receiv'd of M<sup>r</sup> Farmer into the Comp<sup>a</sup>: Cash Pag<sup>a</sup>: 150 for which we have given one Bill drawn upon your Honour &c<sup>a</sup> at six days sight payable to M<sup>r</sup> Francis Bett all which Bills we pray may be honoured with acceptance, which will encourage [ours] and the Merchants utmost endeavours to the performance of what promised.

We send by these Peons two pieces of the chequered Cloth formerly advised, each being full 16 Coveds long and 2 Coveds broad, and the price the Deputy Governor has paid is 10 pag<sup>a</sup> P<sup>r</sup> Corge brown from the loom, and has now twelve looms employed in that work for his proper account which may be encreased to the number of about 32 looms, within our bounds this is the first tryall they have made of these sorts, but hope in time they may improve their better makeing of them, equall to the like sorts at Metchlepatam concerning which (if you approve of them) we desire your directions & what name you'll please to have them known by, those to the Northward (if we remember right) being called Allejaes. Wee think of no more to add at present, but that we are with all respect.

Our last was the 5th September Copy whereof comes enclosed, since have yours of the sevent[h] August by the King William, which we are dispatching towards you as fast as we can with her Kintalage of petre stores &c<sup>a</sup>: according to the List & shall order her to touch at Vizagapatam, and Metchlepatam in her way to you intending (God willing) that she shall saile from Ballasore by the 25th Instant.

We have not sent for the Lead from the ship being not able to dispose of such vast quantity's at so good rates as you can. The Charterparty shall be returned with the ship.

Wee want the Charterparty proportion of Redwood for the Cholchester and Anna, and what is procurable here is at so high a price that we doe not think it for our masters advantage to buy it.

If you can send a quantity down on freight on any vessell in January it may arrive here time enough for the Anna.

Our Competitors goe on very slowly in their business, the ship they design directly home we beleive will be late, and it is doubtfull whether they will be able to send the other to Metchlepatam with any bales. The London they design directly for England and the Tankerveile to Metchlepat<sup>m</sup>. The Antelope they have but just dispatched home & a very weakly ship manned cheifly with forreigners

Wee expect the Chambers Frigatt will be at home as soon as she being in a manner laden. The Fame we hope to dispatch the latter end of next month.

The Colchester in January and the Anna in Feb<sup>r</sup>: we were in hopes you could have spared us some bales but by other advices we fear the contrary we have nothing of moment to offer to you but we are.

METCHLEPATAM NOVEMBER 24: 1700.

Wee receiv'd your Honours &c<sup>a</sup>: of 22 Ultimo & 6th: Instant & are very glad the Howland was dispatched with so good a cargoe, God send her well to her desired Port.

Wee are very glad to hear your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: approves our goods to be 5 <sup>p</sup> Cent cheaper than formerly, we shall use our endeavours, to advance their goodness as much as lays in our power, but all those goods that came from hence as well as Maddapolloms, were ready washed when wee came down, wee shall doe what lays in our power for the well washing of them for the future.

Wee acknowledg our fault, as to our sorting & signing Bales Notes, which shall not be so for the future, but Humbly desire your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: to let us know who are and who are not capacitated for sorting.

Wee have made the strictest inquiry we can concerning M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell and Woolston giving Dusticks to bring in the new Company Cloth, there are presumptions, but can make no positive proof, & those merchants Maulda Ancha & Mogdula Mally were set at large, at the request of those that imprisoned them.

M<sup>r</sup>: Frewen informes us, that there is at Maddapollam ordinary Sallampores & LongCloth but fears the price will not meet with your Honours &c<sup>a</sup>: aprobation he has wrote to your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: by this conveyance concerning it the long-Cloth is about Pag<sup>t</sup>: 35, the Sallampores 17: 18.

Wee impatiently wait your Honours &c<sup>a</sup>: orders concerning Woolston who certainly is one of the impudent fellow liveing, as your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will hear from M<sup>r</sup>: Frewen he has att severall times before our comeing down conveyd away almost everything, that was worth any thing, of which wee have sent your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: a List.

There was likewise, sold out of Maddapollam Factory, as many brass potts, & Panns as came to 59 Pa: by M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell, which besides the disgrace, to our Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters, was never brought to Acco<sup>t</sup>: your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: Prosecution of Woolston must be speedy, for he talks of going home in the Tankerville which is he expected the beginning of January, and your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: may be assur'd should come to our factory, wee should take care to secure him, hoping there is no such Person with us as would advise him of it.

Wee humbly thank your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: for the acceptance and Payment of the Bill of Exchange to Muddu Perrimal & Yendore Trippaty.

Wee were in hopes that in our contracts we had comply'd with your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: orders, wee are sure Narran could inform your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: that wee contracted for as few Chey goods and Gulecundah Betteela's, as we could bring the Merchants to, and with submission, if your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: Pleases to look into our Instructions Paragraph the fifth, our [limitation for Chey] goods extends to the January shipping but [not] after, but could there have been a way found of contracting for less Chey Goods, or Betteela's we should certainly have done it, but the Merchants alleg'd, they had a great many chey goods, in their hands, & the weavers which they had provided on our acco<sup>t</sup>: & the time very short & soe would not contract without them.

Wee have made no further progress in our August contract, then wee informed your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: in our last, and had we contracted, should have conform'd as exactly as possible to your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: Instructions of the 22<sup>d</sup>: of October last, however we have sent your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: other proposalls, but shall not proceed upon them, till we receive your honour &c<sup>a</sup>: orders in which proposalls we have brought the merchants to as small a quantity of Gulcondah Betteela's as possible for they will not contract without some of them, wee have likewise brought them to as large a quantity of long cloth, & number of sheets, as they say they can possible provide by August.

And have sent Musters of Neckcloths, and sha[dy] Betteela's, with their lowest prizes, but this wee refer to your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: further orders.

It was the occasion of no little Joy to us, to hear of the incorporateing our Masters, that Evening wee sent the News to Maddapollam, with the needfull advices, and sent M<sup>r</sup>: Faucett & M<sup>r</sup>: Rowland to M<sup>r</sup>: Graham (M<sup>r</sup>: Pitt being att Maddapollam) and for his answer referr your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: to our Diary.

On Friday 15th: Instant there came one Pedinata a Pulligar, into Gundore demanding of the Government, two Persons, who he said were in this place, his coming has occasion'd us a great [deale of trouble] & hindrance in our business, a full account of which your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will have in our Diary.

Our Investment as yet comes in very slowly, tho we dayly expect great quantitys of goods from severall places, Wee have upwards of three thousand p<sup>s</sup>: Cloth of one sort & another, and are dayly hastning the merch<sup>ts</sup>: telling them the great disapointment and dammage, it will be to our Masters, should they not comply with their Contract, sometimes incourageing of them other times telling them of the twenty five p<sup>s</sup> c<sup>t</sup>: they will be forced to pay, to the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company for what Goods shall not be brought in by the time mentioned in their contract and using all the means we can that we may not disapoynt your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: expectations, which hope will have it's desired end.

Wee have made bold to draw on your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: a small Bill of Exchange for Pag<sup>s</sup>: 174: 18 payable at ten days sight to M<sup>r</sup>: Geo: Lewis & M<sup>r</sup>: Thomas Wigmore for the like Vallue rec<sup>d</sup>: of M<sup>r</sup>: John Foquett, into the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys Cash which hope will meet with your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: Approbation. Wee have not else at present but subscribe.

The inclosed is Copy of our last dated the 6th: Instant since which our Merchants have signed a Contract (copy whereof comes inclosed) for Pag<sup>s</sup>: 4033 deliverable in December in which is included the 3000 Pag<sup>s</sup>: which we advised your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: in our last that our Merchants had promised and makes both Contracts with our Merchants for December to amo<sup>t</sup>: to Pag<sup>s</sup>: 10067: 9: 11: Our merchants have brought us since our last, LongCloth 278 Peices Gingham sheets 166 p<sup>s</sup>: Sallampores 17 p<sup>s</sup>: and Percolla's of 15 coveds 58 p<sup>s</sup>: which is all at the washer's, the merchants were very earnest with us upon signing this Contract for more mony but we could not supply them, and they could not amongst them all advance one thousand Pag<sup>a</sup>: to send up in the country to their Weavers but were forced to send to a Dutch Merchant at Pollecoll to borrow it, if your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: do's not send us a speedy supply, (wee) are afraid they will not be able to comply with their Contract neither can we supply them by drawing Bills, nor have wee money to defray the charges of the fac<sup>t</sup>: for next month.

Wee have also made a contract with Goalore Narraine for Pag<sup>s</sup>: 3217: 18: 11: deliverable the 25th: Dec<sup>r</sup>: which goes in his son's name and is signed by him who is called Goalore Goba Lingum, & to receive the mony for said Goods when they are brought in and sorted, as your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will perceive by copy of said Contract, which comes inclosed, which we hope your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will approve of; he would have sign'd a Contract for more provided we would permit the goods to be washed at Dasheroun, or take some of those sorts of Betteelae's which we sent your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: a Muster of with our last which we would not agree to not knowing whether your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will approve of the small quantity we have contracted for.

M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston being here with the Consull wee sent to him to returne some house moveables which he had lent to them of the new ffactory to which he return'd us the inclosed note they are not of any great vallue being only 5 chairs a Table and a small Bell, but we want them and we did advise him that since he would not returne them wee would charge it to his account; The Companys Braminy also acquaints us that when M<sup>r</sup>: Lovell was here he sold out of the ffactory a pcell of Brass Potts to the amount of 39 Pag<sup>a</sup>. and that M<sup>r</sup>: Woolston did take away the Particular Acco<sup>t</sup>: from him, w<sup>ch</sup>: makes us suspect that he has not given the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company Credit for it wee are.

The Preceeding lines Copy of our last accompanying the Copy of our Contract & Musters which hope you have ere this rec<sup>d</sup>: & prov'd to your Content the advice whereof will be very satisfactory to us. No: 114.
Recd: 10th

Your Pacquett for Bengall was forwarded as you directed & doubt not it's arrivall in due time if the troubles of the roads does not impeed which are again obstructed on the other side Chicacull but by our Cheifs good Correspondence with those Rajahs &c<sup>a</sup>: we hope these Peons will pass unmolested as the former, thō neither the Duan's nor merchants Peons have that liberty & severall going to Ganjam & those parts have been forced to returne.

Wee observe your Honours &c<sup>a</sup>: expeditious dispatch of the Howland with so considerable a cargo, God send her in safety & to a good markt to our Masters.

Wee must acknowledge our washing here to be very ordinary and which indeed is a great disparagement to our cloth, we have used all means to mend it by bringing some washers from Madrass to instruct them & by keeping the Cheif beater sent us in Presid<sup>t</sup>: Higginsons time to overlook them & see it well done but tis to little purpose, we have now again advis'd them of your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: Complaint & severly threatned them, & they give us hope of it's amendment for the future but that time must evince.

The notes shall be sign'd by one Person only for the future as you direct tho it has not hitherto been practised by us when we sorted together & we have never yet had any complaint of our sortm<sup>t</sup>: & shall take care never to deserve it, Wee shall lade what brown Cloth we shall have by us on the King Williams arrivall as you direct.

The Ellephants teeth on the Howl<sup>d</sup>: belong'd not to the new Company or their people but to a Cattaree Merchant & paid Custome here accordingly, the pepper was an Inconsiderate pcell & M<sup>r</sup>: Juxon being pmitted to bring it with him from [Madrass] we assented to his relading it for Metchlepatam but are sorry to find your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: so resent it, had it been the new Companies or the ladeing thereof would have anywise benifted them it should have rotted & so would wee too before we would have pmitted it & wee hope your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: are sencible we have never in the least befriended their affairs but as far as consisted wth: safety impeded them & which we shall Continue to effect.

Wee are strangely surprised at the 2 p<sup>s</sup>: of Betteela's being missing in our bales, 'tis the first complaint we have ever had of that nature & upon exami[ni]ng the remains of our Godowns we find all right but the report of the Cap<sup>t</sup>: & Purser is yet more strange being altogether false for what bales they return'd on shoar as being wet in coming off we opend & nicely examined them & any p<sup>s</sup>: that appear'd the least damag'd we took out & put another in it's place haveing remains of the same sort in our Godown & those that were wet we have wash'd here & which your Honour &c<sup>a</sup> will receive p the King William & w<sup>ch</sup>: is the present needfull from

R<sup>T</sup>: HON<sup>BLE</sup>: ENG<sup>S</sup>: EAST INDIA COMPANY
OVER THE COAST OF CHORMANDELL SUMATRA &C<sup>A</sup>:
COUNCILL IN FORT S<sup>T</sup>: GEORGE.

May it please your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>:

No: 115.
Dec<sup>r</sup>: 1700.

After a most Tedious Passage the Scepter arrived at Triamong the 13th: December last where we found the Troubles lately accomodated, by the surrender of Ippue, and the Country in a Quiet posture, the Deputy Governour and M<sup>r</sup>: Shaw there staid to have a publick Bitchar, summoning the Mandareens and Proateens as is usuall, also the Dagongs of Sablat, of which Raja Quasso is head, who never before came to any of the English, being he against whom the late Deputy Governour made his Voyage to the Northward, to beat him out of the Country, which was attended with very ill success being by the Cowardice of the Mallays, forced to a dishonourable Retreat reinfect<sup>a</sup>. They all now made their publick Recantations for their late rebellion therein acknowledging their great crime & futurely promised a perfect obedience & submission to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company & Sultan Gulimot all of them after being presented Returned to their respective homes, promising the laying aside all animosities and to apply themselves wholly to the Planting of Pepper &c<sup>a</sup>: for the improvem<sup>t</sup>: of their Country.

2. Now upon the conclusion of these late unhappy Troubles, of which beleave them pretty well fatigued being near Ippue reduced to great exigency by scarcity of [Provisions their vigorous prosecuting] their rebellion, occasioning a [total neglect] of their Paddy & Pepper Plantations, those of the latter haveing very much suffer'd so that they'll require some Considerable time to be brought to their late pfection wee hope yet to be able to purchase great Quantities of Pepper provided we have but suitable supplies of Long Alb<sup>t</sup>: Mexico dollars, those being the onely Current for that Commodity, for we may truly affirme that this Coast of late years hath very much suffered by the frequent want of Money wherewith to Purchase it to the no small discouragement of the natives the ill Consequences of which we have represented to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company in our Generalls by the Armenian Merchant and the Scepter, copies whereof are remitted for your Honours &c<sup>as</sup>: perusal, also as much of our Diary Acco<sup>t</sup>: Cash &c<sup>a</sup>: Papers as could possibly be got ready during the ship's short stay, wee having been very busy in the dispatch of the two Europe ships could not be in any readiness with our Coppies Designed for Fort S<sup>t</sup>: George.

3. Wee have in our Letter to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company endeavoured to give them a true and plaine account of their affairs here, esteeming it our Indispensible duties soe to doe, wee w[i]sh it may prove satisfactory these late troubles have created them a great charge in maintaining so many buggasses and Mallays, their discharge now very much Exhausting our small stock as <sup>the</sup> account cash now Remitted.

4. Wee desire your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will please to Credit us for amount of ship Armenian Merchant and [ship Scepters] Invoice and Debt our acco<sup>t</sup> fort two Bills of Exchange drawne on the [R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>:] for the amount of Dollars 8500 receiv'd of Capt [Carswell and] Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phenney, without which accident [all sup]plies, should have been destitute of Money for [the] purchasing Pepper.

5. The severall Bills drawn on your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: by the late Deputy Governour and Council, the Respective sums were all rec<sup>d</sup>: into the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Companys Cash, here, as <sup>the</sup> Copy of said Letter now remitted.

7. M<sup>r</sup>: Broughton &c<sup>a</sup>: did make what inspection they could into the Books and Acco<sup>ts</sup>: to give your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: satisfaction about M<sup>r</sup>: Sowdens Complaint, but there being no storek<sup>as</sup>: accounts of M<sup>r</sup>: Kiddells prevents the possibility of any further Inquisition here.

8. Wee continued on board the Scepter 599 [bales] for Europe, takeing out as few as possible, wee dispatched her the 2<sup>d</sup>: Instant havinge loaden upon her 12 Tuns more then her Tunnage, she sailed the 5th: d<sup>o</sup>: we hope shee'l save her Passage which they seem not much to Question expecting to be at S<sup>t</sup>: Hellena as soon as the Armenian who wee dispatched the 19th: past, saileing the 20th: wee pray them both a safe arrivall so that therein hope have fully answer'd your Honour &c<sup>as</sup>: expectations.

9. Wee [have a boat of Pepper] lately come from Sablat being the first [from those parts] these many years, wee hope to have a good considerable quantity in two or three months more, ready in our godowns for any ship that comes this way to Take it in, from England or the Coast, if our stock of Mexico Dollars will but hold out.

10. M<sup>r</sup>: Barkham still continuing here there is no Vacancy for M<sup>r</sup>: Gough in the Council but so soon as one offers your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>as</sup>: Injunctions shall be observed.

11. M<sup>r</sup>: Frith hath been at Triamong most of the time since his returne to the Coast, where he hath been very serviceable to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: in assisting M<sup>r</sup>: Eytton during his late tedious sickness being very well acquainted with those parts, so that could wish your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: could Dispense with his continuance there a little longer he seeming to have a due sence of his past Miscariages.

12. Wee have put M<sup>r</sup>: Hughes &c<sup>a</sup>: in mind of writing to their friends to give security for them in England, and have since entertain'd Joseph Hilton a Writer, he having behaved himself well, & Capable of business, hoping your Honour &c<sup>as</sup>: approbation, desiring also a further supply of assistance, <sup>the</sup> first, our Acccounts both here & at Triamong being very much behind hand and at the latter place there is none skill'd in accounts so that we absolutely want a person of Experience in accounts to bring up these Books, two of our Writers here are also much Indisposed.

13. As to the Improvement of the place & Trade; our utmost Endeavours shall not be wanting, haveing Humbly Offer'd to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Company what we think may conduce to it, as your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will see by the Coppies now sent.

14. [The trusting of the Petty Princes here is what] wholly cannot be [avoided however, all possible caution] shall be used therein that [the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: be] come not sufferers by [it].

15. Wee lately had [the Melancholly News from] Triamong that Raja [Addill is contriving newtrobles, to the Northward, which makes them write for more men, and really this Garrison is but in a poor condition, as appears by the List now sent, many of them being also sick, & 5 Dead at Tryamong since our arrivall & 3 here, your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: will see w<sup>t</sup>: we have wrote to England about the removing that Factory, the scituation being so very bad, hoping you'll please to order it, for 'tis now ready to Tumble on their heads, & the building it at Bentall at once will not much increase the charge.

16. Without there be a considerable force of about 200 men, Europeans and Portugeze, on this Coast wee beleive these Countrys will never continue long in Quiet, as it hath been found by fatall Experience, for when they see wee are not able to protect them they will be always wavering in their allegiance to prevent this, Such a Constant force we beleive to be the only expedient.

17. Wee do & shall continue to observe your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>as</sup>: Injunctions for the transacting all affairs of Moment in Consultation & see that in the private Trade all persons be allowed an Equall freedom not Questioning but to prevent all Just complaints in that kind.

18. Mussoolas if could make the Coffrees manage them would be of great use on this Coast, & would futurely prevent those great Losses, the Company have sustained for want of them, this wee have signif[yed] to their Hon<sup>rs</sup>: as per the Inclosed generalls remitted.

19. The Rup<sup>s</sup>: sent for a Tryall by the Anne went off currant for] halfe a Ps<sup>s</sup> each, and none since appe[aring argues] their Esteeme, wee Desire about 2000 more [for a further] Experiment, also the amount of [2000 p<sup>s</sup>: in] fanams, they being very Currant and now scarce at Triamong, wee shall Endeavour also to make them pass here, the Proffit on them being considerable.

20. Wee have receiv'd your Honours &c<sup>as</sup>: Generall by Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phripp, who arrived here the 5th: Ins<sup>t</sup>: Bound for Batavia and uncertaine as to his returne hither, on his way home, wee have encouraged him to hope for a Ladeing of Pepper provided are not prevented by the arrivall of a ship from our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters, or other orders from your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: at Fort St<sup>t</sup>: George.

21. The Mallays Puasso, or Ramzan month Coming on Just on our arrivall here; our holding a Publick Bitchar was defer'd the Rajah's &c<sup>a</sup>: being duly summoned but Excused themselves by their approaching fast, Respectively promising their attendance in a short time after, affairs of moment being already settled in these parts which occasions it now to be mostly matter of ceremony [but] chargeable by Presents to the severall Rajahs &c<sup>a</sup>: as hath been Constantly practis'd, on such occasions, and Consequently unavoidable.

22. Wee have bought of Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phripp peculls 15 lb. 59 of Benjamin also a parcell of Rice being at the usuall Prices the former being ahead at P<sup>s</sup> 50 ꝓpecull the Latter Bamboes 20 ꝓps.

23. Those most Necessary utensills, Scales & weights were forgott to our great disappointment Intreat their being remembered per next.

24. A constant annual supply of rice is very requisite, either from the Coast or the Bay of Bengall, also butter & oyle; Rice on this Coast being very scarce, being forced to give out wheat to the Coffrees for their subsistance, this scarceness is not only this year but Constantly for the Malays are of so lazy a temper that they seldom take care for more then their own necessary occasions.

25. The Mallays who are the Northerne Incundiarys give out that they are sett on by the Dutch, we shall endeavour to gett the best information thereof, we are able, that we may find out the truth or falsity of their pretensions.

26. The Armenian brought out but four chests of treasure the amount of her Invoice being ps. 16270 : for which have Credited Acco<sup>t</sup>: Currant Fort St. George, your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: expecting her bringing out a much greater stock, which occasioned the sending so little per the Scepter, which without a speedy supply will prove a great disappointment.

27. We shall be as Frugall as Possible in Expences, haveing (by their Consent) putt them to Dyett money att Tryamong which tho' the allowances appear large yet will very much retrench the Expences of y<sup>e</sup>: Factory we designe it also here, so soon as can conveniently which will also much lessen our Charges.

28. The Surgeon we brought over in the Scepter being dēcd at Tryamong a little after our arrivall there so that we are now destitute of any skilled either in Physick or Chyrurgery; which in this sickly place renders our case really Deplorable we humbly entreat may be supply'd per first.

29. The Serjeants and Corporalls sent by the Scepter are all very bad officers being sad Drunken Idle fellows; Fluellin wesent to England on the Scepter being mutinous & ungovernable.

30. Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phripp gives us to understand that there is a Padre at Acheen willing to come to these parts the presence of one would very much animate the Portugeuze here, and Encourage the coming of others.

31. If some slaves could be procureable young lusty fellowes and women we desire your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: would please to supply us, our Numbers of Coffrees being much reduced and they are the Persons Chiefly Employed in building, and all services of this Garrison Cooly hire being very dear.

32. We are at a loss for Ink the receipt sent formerly for the makeing it being not to be found we humbly request materials & directions for their use also other sorts of Factors provisions for our store will be soon Exhausted.

33. Gunney bags are extremely wanted for y<sup>e</sup>: loading of Pepper, 1000 will not be to many, but if not made of new & thick gunneys they will be of little use here.

34. Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phripp this voyage called at Trebanney where the Mallays were very Civill to him, & seemed very desirous of our settling amongst them according to his Description of it, there appears to be very good Encouragem<sup>t</sup>: the further Consideration whereof most humbly referr to your Honour &c<sup>a</sup>: three things seem much to recommend it, being healthfull provitions plentifull and a good harbour for shiping.

35. We have received of the following persons y<sup>e</sup> there mentioned into the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Cash for which have presumed to draw bills on your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: payable ten days after sight humbly craveing their acceptance:—

 OVER Y<sup>e</sup> : COAST COROMANDELL & SOUTH
 SEAS &c<sup>a</sup> : COUNCILL IN FORT ST. GEORGE

May it please your Honour &c<sup>a</sup> :

Captain Phripps calling here happily gives us this opportunity of informing your Hon<sup>r</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : of y<sup>e</sup> : present state of Affairs on this Coast our last being of the 15th : March past, which we wrote at Captain Phripps going for Java, he being then uncertain as to his returne hither which letter and Pacquett we have continued on board, and to them we humbly crave reference; we were then apprehensive of Rajah Addills creating Troubles to y<sup>e</sup>: Northward, which by their care and vigilancy & our sending them a seasonable supply of Buggasses were prevented, all still continueing quiet in those parts; but for a more particular Acco<sup>t</sup>: refer to their advices having engaged Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phrip to call there by the way; The greatest difficulties they and we at present labour under is our great want of Cash & without a very supply shall be reduced to great Exigencies, which will happen at a very unfortunate Juncture now the best Cropp of pepper is ready to come in, but we still hope the speedy arrivall of the Madrass Merchant with a good supply will putt a period to them and that we shall be able to give her a very timely Dispatch (All Continueing quiet) with a full lading of pepper. Tho' if she should call at Batavia wee can hardly expect her till the latter end of next month.

2. Wee have concluded all our bitches wth: y<sup>e</sup>: sev<sup>l</sup>: Rajas & proateens of these parts, & at them was a very numerous appearance greater then hath been known to have been at any since Mr. Bloom's time and an universall satisfaction has been express'd by them all promising faithfull allegiance to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>t</sup>: and Increase of the pepper & paddy plantations.

3. There was a difference depending at our arrivall between some of the Pangram Juntanallys People and Raja Kallipas wth: was by them referr'd to the Deputy Governors decision w<sup>ch</sup>: was lately accommodated to the satisfaction of both parties. The Proateens likewise at Pollee had a Bickering lately on w<sup>ch</sup>: two men were kill'd and two wounded. On Raja Mooda's request we sent Twenty Buggasses & Mallay souldiers who brought them to the Raja who lately hath brought all to a seeming pacification so hope shall hear no further of it.

4. Three Prows of pepper from Sablat have given us the slip going away for Java Carrying our Buggass souldiers with 'em they had as wee are Inform'd about 200 Bahars of pepper on board so y<sup>t</sup>: had they come here by our purchasing said papper we should have been ere now for y<sup>e</sup>: want of Cash reduced to great Extremities. Those parts abound with disaffected people wee have as your Hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will perceive by our Diary & Letters now remitted Taken all possible care for y<sup>e</sup>: keeping all quiett there.

5. Tryamong having been experienced to be so fatall to y<sup>e</sup>: lives & Healths of our People y<sup>t</sup>: wee Judged it to be of absolute Necessity for y<sup>m</sup>: to remove to Bantall and therefore presumed to order y<sup>m</sup>: to prepare for it accordingly, not questioning but yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will please to approve thereof being under so dire a necessity, Besides y<sup>t</sup>: Houses at Tryamong are utterly Decay'd so y<sup>t</sup>: should they continue there all must be rebuilt & new & Building in one place or y<sup>e</sup>: other, will in a manner create but y<sup>e</sup>: same charge.

6. Silver fanams as advised, in our former letter are in great request to y<sup>e</sup>: Northward, a large Quantity will be extremely well, beleving in a short time they may be made currant for pepper.

7. The Head Proateens of Cattowne were very Importunate with us to settle some English at that paggarr, so in April last wee sent Mr. Glenn writer to reside there They are very Importunate with us to buy their pepper, but by our want of boats wee excuse sending any money, as also strength to secure it, y<sup>t</sup>: paggar having been lately robb'd wherein y<sup>e</sup>: R<sup>t</sup>: hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>t</sup>: lost p<sup>r</sup>: 69: 2.

8. In April last we sent p<sup>r</sup>: 500 per a prow that came wth: Pepper from Manduta, y<sup>e</sup>: night after her Departure a violent storm happen'd in the which fear she is lost as yet having no news of her.

9. Herewith are remitted coppies of our Diaries Letters Acco<sup>t</sup>: Cash &c<sup>a</sup>: Papers, as per Inclosed List the great Confusion of y<sup>e</sup>: Acco<sup>ts</sup>: of this place together wth: Mr. Shaws Indisposition, and want of help has occasioned our not being able to send y<sup>e</sup>: Generall books by this Conveyance and indeed wee are in very great want of assistance having since y<sup>e</sup>: D. Govern<sup>r</sup>: arrivall buried five Covenant servants viz<sup>t</sup>: Messrs. Congreve and Kesteven here, and Messrs. West Quesenbrough and Troughton at Tryamong, therefore humbly request yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will be pleas'd to send us sufficient assistance per next.

11. The books of Tryamong are now three years behind hand and they have none Capable of bringing 'em up: some persons therefore skill'd in Acco<sup>ts</sup>: are absolutely wanted.

12. Wee have taken all Imaginable Care here of our Sould<sup>rs</sup>: as to their Lodging Dyet &c<sup>a</sup>: keeping them sober, and they have in generall done very well, having buried but two of those that came over with us, & one of them came sick from Tryamong, yet as per Inclosed List are very weak; Therefore earnestly desire a Supply by y<sup>e</sup>: first, our being without any person skilled in Physick or Surgery, is likewise a most sad Considera<sup>con</sup>.

13. Those Coffrees sent hence in 95 to be brought up Smiths, Bricklayers & Carpenters if sufficiently experienced in their respective trades, desire may be return'd per first; their service being much wanted. Wee are really in great want of slaves to carry on our Buildings therefore Request a good supply of Coast Slaves if procureable they being very requisite to Mix with our Coffrees who once design'd to have Cut y<sup>e</sup>: Garrison off, they likewise being much cheaper and y<sup>e</sup>: charge of their maintenance is not very considerable.

14. Wee are in great want of small arms having very few good in y<sup>e</sup>: Garrison also some small guns as Faulcons & minions wth: are very usefull for our Paggars Two or three Mortars also for y<sup>e</sup>: slinging of hand granados would be very requisite.

15. Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phrip requesting permission for the landing of his Opium here which he sold at Batavia without paying Custome and there could not delive rit by reason of the Dutch severity, wee judgd his request reasonable and accordingly granted it.

16. Mr. Edward Barkham having been very sickly Returns to Fort St. George by this ship who will be able to give yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: a particular account of Affairs here.

17. Mr. Robert Broughton humbly requests permission of yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to Returne for Fort St. George or for England as Oppertunity shall offer desire yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: you'l be pleased to supply y<sup>e</sup>: Vacancies which will then be in our Council, Mr. Gough hath according to order succeeded Mr. Congreve as youngest therein.

18. Wee are now fitting up y<sup>e</sup>: Prow & by laying a Deck upon her hope to make her a serviceable vessell the Bencoolen Yatch wee fear is past reparation.

19. Our Gunner Mr. Tamms is at present very ill Insomuch y<sup>t</sup>: wee much fear his miscarriage which would be a great Loss to us having no other person skill'd in y<sup>t</sup>: profession so hope to be supply'd wth: another who in case of Mr. Tamms recovery may be Employ'd to y<sup>e</sup>: N<sup>o</sup>: ward and be there very serviceable.

20. Wee have presumed to draw upon yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: the severall after mention'd bills of Exchange for p<sup>rs</sup>: 8,878: 5: having Rec<sup>d</sup>: y<sup>e</sup>: like value into y<sup>e</sup>: R<sup>t</sup>: hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Cash here of y<sup>e</sup>: severall under mention'd persons and payable as Incerted. Humbly craving their acceptance viz:

21. Captain Phrip having been solicited by Jn<sup>o</sup>: Carvalles father for his son's returne to Fort St. George and requesting of us his release offering to leave two men in his place who wee have accepted & Entertain'd permitting y<sup>e</sup>: other to returne who takes his passage in this ship. Our Pallankeen is broke & altogether unserviceable Therefore desire yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: would be pleas'd to supply us with another, as to Horse furniture requested formerly Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phrip has furnish'd us with what necessary.

22. Wee are very sensible that the charges of this Coast run very high y<sup>e</sup>: properest Expedient that wee can think of, for their Retrenchm<sup>t</sup>: would be our constantly having two or three good sloops to cruise along y<sup>e</sup>: coast w<sup>ch</sup>: would lessen y<sup>e</sup>: number of our People, & be as great a security for our having all the pepper of this Coast w<sup>ch</sup>: wee humbly referr to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: Consideration.

23. Wee found the keeping a Gen<sup>l</sup>: table very chargeable & not at all satisfactory therefore wee went to board wages & thereby on a modest Calculation shall lessen our Expences upwards of a thousand Dollars per annum.

24. Pangran Juntanally at his being lately here to bitchar complain'd very much of Pangran Jangallos receiving a greater share of y<sup>e</sup>: Customes of pepper coming out of his country y<sup>n</sup>: himself besides his annuall pension from y<sup>e</sup>: R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: of ps. 400 per ann. so y<sup>t</sup>: labouring under such discouragem<sup>t</sup>: was y<sup>e</sup>: reason his Country did not produce such quantities as formerly therefore for his Encouragem<sup>t</sup>: wee agreed to allow him one Sucoe per bahar upon such pepper as came from those places under his Jurisdiction wth: w<sup>ch</sup>: he appeared very well satisfied & this allowance is no more then what the Rajas of these parts receive w<sup>ch</sup>: wee Judged to be very reasonable hoping yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: approbation thereof.

25. There is now in our Godowns bahars 320 of pepper with w<sup>ch</sup>: & what to the N<sup>o</sup>: ward hope shall have a surplusage after loading the Madrass Merchant (the Country continueing quite and a speedy supply of money) to help fill up a January ship.

26. The want of goods proper for presents hath necessitated us to buy y<sup>m</sup>: at y<sup>e</sup>: curreant prices here w<sup>ch</sup>: creates on Extraordinary charge wee desire a supply by the first also of cloth for colours being in great want entreating likewise beams and scales may not be forgotten.

27. The Estate of Doctor Richard Blackwall deēd hath credit in the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: books p<sup>a</sup>: 97: 2: w<sup>ch</sup>: we advise y<sup>t</sup>: yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: & c<sup>a</sup>: may dispose thereof as convenient.

29. The Noquedah of a prow lately caome from Poggee an Island to y<sup>e</sup>: N<sup>o</sup>: ward near Nassaw adviseth us y<sup>t</sup>: he there saw part of a Wreck y<sup>e</sup>: Head appearing pretty fresh as tho' newly painted the vessell teak, we pray it may not be a ship belonging to Fort St. George. Wee have not to add at present craving leave to subscribe ourselves.

No. 19.
Recd:

That most unfortunate & Expensive Affair of Ippu ended about three days before the Scepter arrived by the Proateens inhabitants and one Dagangs means: who by agreem<sup>t</sup>: with us refused to assist those Murtherers the Buggasses any farther, whereupon they fled for their own safety then those places that stood out surrender'd to us and has continued in peace ever since: upon this success the Mallay Souldiers were discharg'd the last of January except such as was requisite to guard the severall paggars and for other usual services.

Since wee have been obliged to entertaine Severall Supernumerary to the no small augmentation of our ordinary expences to prevent Raja Addill from putting in practice his mischeivous projects to prejudice our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters Affairs: Wee beleive he is speciall poor wth: is a great advantage to us, for'tis certaine he'l never be quiet nor honest while he has power to be otherwise, so that had wee force sufficient the only remedy is to send him packing out of the country else wee can expect no other then to be constantly at such an expence.

By the Bitchar that the Worsp<sup>l</sup>: Dep<sup>y</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: made here wth: Raja Quasso the Dagongs and Proateens of Sablat and Cattowne they are seemingly very good freinds to our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters But severall Actions past since that gives occasion to suspect their sincerity, for three prows this year pretending to transport Pepper thence to Bencoolen gave us the slip and went for Java, altho' they had some of the Comp<sup>as</sup>: Mallay souldiers on board them, but whether they were forced or consented can't be certaine, and now it being the reason for returne of prows from Java, they have gather'd under pretence of Cock fighting (the usual rendevouze to agree upon their villany) a great concourse of people many in a hostile manner, supposed to obstruct seizing said prows and people if they returne, so that to prevent any troubles there, have been obliged to reinforce that paggar.

The Panleema of Padang is lately dead whereupon the old Emperour and the young king of Indrapoor whome the Dutch designe should succeed the Panleema are likely to quarrell for the Govern<sup>t</sup>: 'Tis said the Dutch will send to Batavia for a person there, whose right it formerly was, but left it to the Deceased's more prevailing Interest and went to Batavia where he has been many years as reported at liberty, but supposed a Prisoner at large, how this Affair will terminate can't say having no sure correspondence in those parts, yet hope it may divert the Dutch from fomenting troubles in these countreys by their Emissarys.

This stands the affairs of these parts at present in reference to the Peace of y<sup>r</sup>: country and hope it may long continue to be no worse of wth: can be no certaine assurance given, since the Mallays are a people Barbarous in their practice, false in their faith, and unsteady in their resolutions, the last story told them being the Bias of their Actions, till brought to the contrary by the next perswader, and that's certain to be the next they meet with.

This place of Tryamong has been generally esteem'd very unhealthfull: Glad would wee be could wee contradict that allegation, but sad experience obleidges us the contrary for since Mr. Darley left this place, wth: is about eighteen months, here has Dyed four persons of Councill, and four writers, which is all of the Comp<sup>as</sup>: covenanted servants that was then order'd & has been since sent hither Except the Cheif & Mr. Crouch (Mr. Gough who was sometime here & went to York Fort with the Worps<sup>l</sup>: Dep<sup>y</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>:) and Mr. Robert Hughs who came hither lately from Bencoolen. Equivalent thereunto has been the mortallity amongst the Military insomuch that the relation hereof to the Worsp<sup>l</sup>: Dep<sup>y</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: upon his arrivall caused him to be of opinion after having viewed Bentall that it would conduce much to the preservation of the lives and health of the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Serv<sup>ts</sup>: & consequently the better managem<sup>t</sup>: of their hon<sup>rs</sup>: Affairs if this Factory were removed thither since there's a large space of plaine ground upon a very convenient assent which may easily be cleared having little on it but shrubs, as may be much more where trees now grow very fit for houses, Whereas this place (save the very spot whereon the Factory stands and about fifty yards square of clear ground where Mallay houses stand being no room for more) is all swamps and woods impossible to be made better besides the paggar wth: all the dwelling houses and others are so old and decay'd that they are ready to fall downe, and require to be new built within six months at farthest, and the same might with a very little more cost be done at Bentall.

The late frequent advices we have given the Worsp<sup>l</sup>: Dep<sup>y</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: and Councill of the Death of our people, has renew'd the consideration of this Affaire, so that for the reasons aforesaid and many other too long here to insert, have agreed upon our removal to Bentall, and order'd us to provide everything the best wee can against the arrivall of shipping by whose Assistance may transport our Gunns and other heavy things.

Accordingly wee are busied and hope may effect what they command, and that it will answer the end expected.

The Mallays of these parts are very scrupulous in receipt of money in all payments insomuch that none but long Mollocco Dollars will pass curr<sup>t</sup>: and those must be long and black, no other dollers pass anywhere without much trouble (except just at this one Factory) so that wanting such as humour them undergo much trouble and often disappointm<sup>t</sup>: especially in buying Pepper, for that commodity they will have money that please them, else not sell any; and oft tho' have good money have not just such; Now wee observe that fanams are generally well esteem'd for of all brought to this place have not sufficient in our Buzar to change two Dollers except by chance, so that to remedy this wee humbly propose the coyning great quantities of Fanams with the Mallay stamp and sending us; and don't doubt but with a small charge and some trouble to get them accepted as the curr<sup>t</sup>: coyne in all paym<sup>ts</sup>: as well for pepper as other, By the charge we mean the amo<sup>t</sup>: of two or three hundred Dollers in presents to the Sultan, his Mother, Raja Macoota, the Mandereens and proateens when at a Bitchar bring them to agree upon, and order their acceptance accordingly, which may be well bestowed supposing considerably is to be got by the coynage, which will help to lessen our Expences.

Altho' the designe of buying Pepper with them should fail, yet will very considerable quantities pass here in a years time so no loss to be feared yet for first tryall 'twould be well to have some Dollers in Cash to prevent any prejudice to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Affairs from any unexpected accident that may happen.

Mr. Nath<sup>l</sup>: Eyton says he has rec<sup>d</sup>: advice from his Friends in England that he was admitted a Factor in our R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Masters service the 16th: of November 1695, and that two of his brothers are bound in a bond of 1,000 £ for y<sup>e</sup>: faithfull discharge of his Duty; They add further that having demanded the Indentures, the Secretary answer'd they would be sent out by first shipp to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>s</sup>: so he expected them by the Scepter, but finds nothing thereof: wherefore he desires humbly to signifye this to yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>s</sup>: and intreat if no mention of it in their Hon<sup>rs</sup>: Letters to have it inserted in yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>rs</sup>: &c<sup>s</sup>: next Generall to the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>a</sup>: that their order may be knowne.

The Worsp<sup>l</sup>: Dep<sup>ty</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: & Councill of York Fort have ordered up to draw bills of Exchange on yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>s</sup>: for such part of the Estate of William Coote decd as is paid into the R<sup>t</sup>: Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Comp<sup>as</sup>: Cash here, & make them payable to such persons as the Hon<sup>ble</sup>: Court of Admiralty shall order. The Deceased did make a will, but it was esteem'd invalid by the Worsp<sup>l</sup>: Matthew Mildmay then Dep<sup>ty</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: & Councill Herewth: comes the papers of the Deceas'd according to list, with the Acco<sup>t</sup>: sale of his effects the Acco<sup>t</sup>: Curr<sup>t</sup>: of his Estate the ballance whereof is p. 1273: 3: 1: for which sum have drawne said bills and the Originall Will keeping an attested Coppy here. He appointed by said will Cap<sup>t</sup>: Richard Phrip to have the charge of his effects and remitt them to England. The first and second bills of Exchange are deliver'd Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phrip, severall things as a horse and a parcell of wooden combs of small value are at Bencoolen also a chest of Ophium here which is Damag'd & 'twill not sell in this place, and have not Orders to venture it hence; when disposed of shall make returns of the Produce. The Dec<sup>d</sup>: last year return'd p. 1,000 to Cap<sup>t</sup>: Phrip upon his owne account.

Wee are in miserable want of Men both civill and military. The Worsp<sup>l</sup>: Dep<sup>ty</sup>: Govern<sup>r</sup>: and Councill order'd us to send yo<sup>r</sup>: Hon<sup>r</sup>: such books and papers as had in a readiness but wee could not possibly send any, being but Three of us and obleidged to be at three severall places, except earnest business calls us together (Mr. Crouch at Manduta, and Mr. Hughs at Ippue) so that can't performe what is reasonably to be expected from three persons always together and settled to business at a certaine place; 'Tis our utmost to keep up the monthly Accompts & ordinary business of the factory so that the Generall Acco<sup>ts</sup>: are much behind hand as formerly advis'd, Wee beg most earnestly that yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: will consider this Affaire and Assist us As also wish souldiers having but a Serjeant, a Corporall, & a few Topasses in this paggar but never an Europe Centinall save one.

Our Slaves are what by Death and running away, so reduced that have not wherewth: to serve our necessity, nor can they supply us from York Fort, wherefore entreat yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: to send us some from the Coast for when wee remove to a new place shall greatly need them.

All manner of Factors Provisions are exhausted as blank books, paper &c<sup>a</sup>: which hope will be remedied by yo<sup>r</sup>: hon<sup>r</sup>: &c<sup>a</sup>: next supply.

No. 20.
Recd:

1700.

Wee thought there might be no cause for us to trouble yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : by writing you so soon untill our last of y<sup>e</sup> : 26<sup>o</sup> : past w<sup>ch</sup> : you have upon y<sup>e</sup> : file had been answer'd were it not upon occasion extraordinary w<sup>ch</sup> : requires it as our duty to advise you of, as it relates to so barbarous a murther as has been committed on y<sup>e</sup> : 24<sup>o</sup> : past upon y<sup>e</sup> : body of one Cooly Chittee about 18 years of age, in a place some miles distant from our bounds, in y<sup>e</sup> : way as he was returning home to Pullicherry by a crew of villians, tho' some are more notorious so than others of them, They are in close custody, whose names are viz<sup>t</sup> : Ranga, Wootundy, Sueka (these three are brothers) Venecatteputte a Peon, Mootellas an Oylman Pereipilla is a Talliar. It doth not appear upon examination that there were any more but 3 or 4 of y<sup>e</sup> : aforementioned y<sup>t</sup> : were upon y<sup>e</sup> : spot & in the place where the murther was committed, tho' all y<sup>e</sup> : six shared in y<sup>e</sup> : booty & price of Blood. Yo<sup>r</sup> : hon<sup>r</sup> : &c<sup>a</sup> : may please to take notice y<sup>t</sup> : the two first mention'd are Bretheren in iniquity as well as naturally by birth, they having about some three years agoe murdered one Vencattee, in the way between our bounds & Trevidy, w<sup>ch</sup> : they upon examination then confess'd & were sentenced to be transported and banished to Acheen a punishm<sup>t</sup> : too favourable for so hainous a crime and were accordingly shipp'd off on board a ship of Agmud Mercons, bound for y<sup>e</sup> : afores<sup>d</sup> : Port, but he touching first at Porto Novo, dropt Mootundy & left him there, Ranga being carried wth : him to Acheen, & from thence back againe y<sup>e</sup> : same voyage to Cuddalore, where he hath sculked & nested himself ever since, w<sup>ch</sup> : is no wonder of Agmud Mercon, when it is Consider'd how serviceable both the Brothers have proved to him by their decoying & kidnapping (in y<sup>e</sup> : late famine) so many poor country people as were sold and transported as slaves. Having premised thus much, w<sup>ch</sup> : wee think is no [ . . . ] Degression to the subject matter in hand, it [follows] that on the 24th : last month being Sunday, the design of robbing the Chittee was communicated to all of them and the manner of doing it, conserted & agreed to by 4 of them, tho perhaps the black design of Mu[rther] might be kept as a hidden secret to a fewer [number] which is not very probable, in regard they [went] out armed with swords and haveing overtaken the Chittea, whom they knew had a small sume of money about him they discoursed him in [some tri]viall matters, till they came to a place conv[enient] to execute their black designe, where they [obleiged] him to sitt down & rest, which done they [demanded] some Beetle of the Chitty, which they had [and after] that more, but were refused, at which they [quarrell'd] with the Chitty, beginning with [ . . . ] after with their swords givinge the [Chitty sev<sup>n</sup> :] cutts and gashes in his neck, until he was [almost] dead, and then threw him into a well [hard by where] perceiving him to have life, they made [an end of] him : In this action all of them there were [Principalls] of all whom Ranga and his Brother [Woodundy] take place in the highest degree, as haveing [excited &] stir'd up the rest ; yet these four haveing [each been] severally and singly examin'd, each [of'em in their] turn declare against the other [three but do not con]fess themselv[es guilty] of the [matter of fact tho' they all agree that the Chitty was kill'd by them, & Ranga's sword found to be spotted wth : Blood Perriapilla was not wth : them in this foul Action, but] was the first that discover'd the same to the [justices] and the manner how the money was shared : Succa was not knowing to the murder, as haveing stayed at home, but was with some reluctancy perswaded and prevailed with to take a share : concerning all which we desire your Institutes, & what rule your Honour &c<sup>a</sup> : will please to give for our guidance in proceeding against the criminalls, seeing we are not enough to form any Jury of the two, that is requisite in such case as the law requires.
